B52 Bombers Strike Demilitarized Zone

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers pounded the demilitarized zone Sunday for the second straight day. The target was North Vietnamese troops in the neutral area.

Hunger Strike Spreads At Joliet Prison

JOLIET, Ill. (AP)—A spreading hunger strike by inmates of the state penitentiary's Joliet branch resulted Saturday in confinement of the 950 prisoners in their cells, Warden Frank Pate said.

Pate said that there was no corresponding problem among inmates of the Stateville branch of the penitentiary, a few miles north of the so-called Old Prison branch where the fasting developed.

"We aren't sure what's behind this, but we aren't taking any chances," Pate said.

He said that one-fourth of the prisoners refused breakfast Friday. About one-third did not eat at noon, and one-half of the inmates returned their evening meals uneaten.

Saturday, he said, the inmates were not allowed out of their cells and arrangements were made to deliver food to the cells. Pate said that only a small portion of the food was refused.

The warden said that the restriction order was not rescinded. "It will remain in force until we get to the bottom of the problem or until the restlessness blows over," he said.

The confinement measure, Pate said, was issued as a preventive measure and is considered a routine precaution in maximum security prisons.

Mail distribution was made to the convicts as usual Saturday. Pate said use of radio sets continued, and visitor interviews were conducted as usual for inmates.

Guards in the prison were asked to watch for unusual conduct among prisoners. Pate said that recent behavioral problems in prisons elsewhere may have influenced the Joliet inmates and that civil unrest outside the prisons might have contributed.

for the first time in the Viet Nam fighting.

As in the Saturday raids, the eight-engine bombers struck Sunday in the southern half of the 6-mile wide demilitarized zone, where elements of the North Vietnamese 324th Division had been sighted.

Two-Week Fight

U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese troops for the past two weeks have been fighting the North Vietnamese division in Operation Hastings, one to two miles south of the zonal border.

The zone, established by the 1954 Geneva conference, separates North and South Viet Nam.

A U.S. spokesman said after the Saturday raids that visual and aerial photo reconnaissance had uncovered large concentrations of North Vietnamese troops in the neutral zone.

The targets Saturday included an ammunition dump, a weapons storage area and 26 gun positions.

It was possible that Sunday's raids struck at the same or nearby targets.

The ground-breaking American strike Saturday at the strip astride the 17th parallel stirred moderate to heavy anti-aircraft fire from clandestinely emplaced enemy guns.

Control Group Warned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States informed the International Control Commission in advance of the B52 bombing in the Viet Nam demilitarized zone Saturday that it would have to take appropriate measures to protect U.S. forces, Washington officials said.

An urgent appeal was made to the commission for adequate steps to halt North Vietnamese infiltration across the demilitarized strip, the officials added.

The commission, composed of representatives from India, Canada and Poland, is charged with supervising the 1954 Geneva accords on Indochina. One team has headquarters in the area, but it is some distance from the section where the B52s hit.

It was understood that the U.S. representations to the member powers were in support of a July 21 protest by South Viet Nam alleging increased North Vietnamese use of the zone for moving forces into South Viet Nam.

North Viet Nam has not allowed the inspectors to go into the zone from its side.

Concerning criticism of the first air strikes on targets in the demilitarized zone, U.S. officials said: North Viet Nam has stepped up its use of the zone as an infiltration route, markedly over the past few months. The passage of North Viet Nam's 324th Army Division through this zone was recently publicly confirmed.

Military Buildup Passes Goal Early

WASHINGTON (AP) — The massive build-up of U.S. armed strength has passed its announced goal of 3,093,000 a year ahead of time. There are strong indications the build-up will continue.

Pentagon officials are reluctant to talk in specific terms about the eventual size of the military forces.

Questioned, Deputy Secretary of Defense Cyrus R. Vance said, "We cannot see clearly at this time what will be required."

Vance added that "we do not know yet" what the upper limit on military manpower will be.

Other sources said force planning currently was projected ahead three months at a time.

War Big Factor

The course of the war in Viet Nam is the major factor that will determine the level to which over-all American armed strength will be raised.

The U.S. force in Viet Nam currently totals more than 280,000 men. This total is expected to climb to about 400,000 by the end of this year and probably higher next year.

If conditions should dictate a bigger-than-expected reinforcement in Viet Nam, the effects would be felt throughout the military establishment.

For example, the sending of an appreciably greater force to Viet Nam would require an increase in the number of recruits and units to fill the holes left in the Garrison in the United States.

A larger force in Viet Nam, under a one-year tour of duty, would necessitate a step up in the output of replacements.

The big U.S. build-up was set in motion just one year ago.

Subsequent to that, Congress was asked to provide funds to augment the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force by 452,000 men.

Under the schedule laid out for Congress by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, the new level of 3,093,109 men was to be reached by June 30, 1967.

However, the build-up progressed so swiftly that the objective was reached — and surpassed by a little — as of June 30 this year. This was shown in official figures released this week.

As of June 30, the Army stood at 1,199,764 men, some 34,000 short of the immediate goal.

The Marine Corps totaled 261,659 as against an objective of 278,184.

A policeman was struck on the shoulder by a rock. One Negro youth struck by a bottle was placed in a police car. More than 50 youths charged the vehicle but police sent them running by using their night sticks.

White Onlookers Heckle Negro Rights Marchers

CHICAGO (AP) — Civil rights demonstrators marched into an all-white neighborhood Saturday and encountered a barrage of jeers, rocks and bottles.

At one point near the end, police, swinging clubs, charged into a band of white hecklers and left one blond young man with blood streaming down his face.

The demonstrators, about 250 in number, trudged from a Negro area into a white district on the southwest side to demand equality in renting and buying property.

Boos and shouts of "dirty niggers" followed them along the last mile of their four-mile route. But the major trouble occurred when they paused for about 20 minutes in front of the F.H. Halvorsen Realty Co.

About 40 demonstrators had started a vigil there Friday. But police removed them when a hostile crowd gathered.

The paraders stood on one side of the broad street Saturday while about 200 vocal white critics stood on the other side.

Police formed a buffer zone in the center and lined roofs on both sides of the street.

The march was resumed and a few more missiles were tossed. Police rushed hecklers in a vacant lot and drove them away.

Democrats Now Wearing High-Interest-Rate Shoe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The high-interest-rate shoe, traditionally worn by the Republicans, now is on the Johnson administration's Democratic foot — and pinching politically.

Franklin D. Roosevelt had the idea that the average man, borrowing his way through life for a home, automobiles, appliances and sometimes to pay taxes, had a high degree of interest in the interest he had to pay.

Up Under LBJ

Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman kept interest rates down. The rates went up in the Republican administration of Dwight D. Eisenhower but nothing like what they have under Lyndon B. Johnson.

Democrats have begun to worry that the interest-rate increase, as a symbol of the higher cost of living, is going to hit their candidates at the polls in November with just about as much impact as the reputed public frustration over Viet Nam.

Sens. Russell B. Long, D-La., the assistant Democratic leader, and Albert Gore, D-Tenn., have taken the lead in urging President Johnson to do something about it.

But there doesn't seem much the chief executive can do beyond cutting federal spending — which the Republicans say he isn't doing — at a time when banks and savings institutions are warring with each other for investors' money and record mortgage costs have brought a slump in home building.

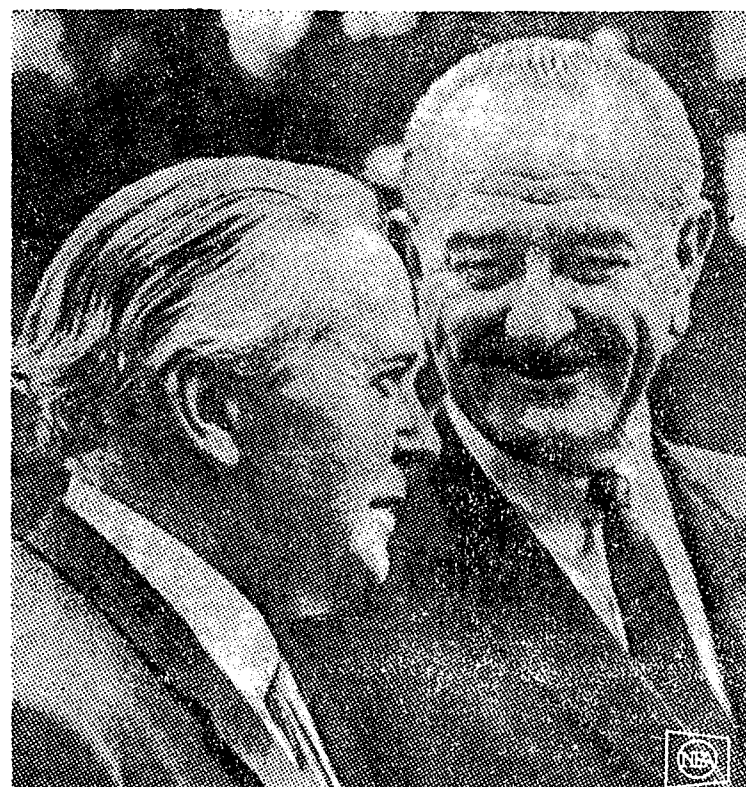

GOP Memo

The current issue of the Senate Republican Policy Committee memo spends most of its wordage on such subjects as interest rates, the cost of living, strikes and their economic effect, the value of the dollar and "LBJ's economic gambling — passing the point of no concern."

Democrats generally blame the tight-money policy of the Federal Reserve Board — which Johnson can't control directly — for the high interest rates. They attribute inflation generally to the business boom but are careful not to suggest any dampening of the economy in an election year.

The long-winged U2, capable of flying at altitudes above 90,000 feet, took off Thursday morning on what the Air Force described as a routine mission from Barksdale Air Base, La. Its mission and destination were not disclosed.

U2s, however, have been used for reconnaissance of Cuba.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON chatted with British Prime Minister Wilson outside the White House July 29 as the two leaders met for a round of talks. Wilson's arrival at the White House was delayed for about 15 minutes because of a sniper scare. ### Wilson Gloomy About Viet Peace

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson returned from Washington talks Saturday, happy with President Johnson's "understanding" of the Labor government's money troubles but gloomy about prospects of peace in Viet Nam.

Wilson indicated much of his talk with the President had explored the Southeast Asian conflict, and he emerged with the conclusion that "there is no immediate prospect of any peace talks."

Even more pessimistic was word from Moscow, where United Nations Secretary-General U. Thant had sought ways of softening up the Soviet Union's position so that some door to peace negotiations might be pried open.

Small Chance

Thant, too, saw little chance, commenting that the Russians had not budged an inch from their position, which coincides with that of Hanoi: that the United States should get out and let North Viet Nam and South Viet Nam settle their quarrel.

Soviet leaders told Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi about the same thing on her recent journey to Moscow.

On his return to London, Wilson said President Johnson "fully understood" Britain's general support of American policy except that it felt compelled to dissociate itself from bombings on the fringes of Hanoi and the port of Haiphong.

In addition, Wilson was satisfied, he said, that the White House was in sympathy with Britain's need to cut back some defense spending abroad to get its financial house in order.

Wilson returned from Washington by way of Ottawa to see Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson.

On that score, U. Thant in Moscow spoke even more strongly, saying: "I am increasingly convinced that the Viet Nam war will develop into a major war if the present trend continues."

He added his continued try was based on genuine concern that the conflict could "escalate dangerously."

Fear Striking Mechanics May Refuse New Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking airlines mechanics won a whopping hike in wages of 72 cents an hour plus fringe benefits in the agreement, it was learned Saturday.

The hefty package, spread over three years, is an annual increase of 6 to 7 per cent, about double the White House guideline for curbing wage demands the government considers inflationary.

But fears remained over whether the 35,000 strikers would approve the contract proposal in voting across the country Sunday. And not a plane of the five grounded airlines will fly until they do. The lines struck July 8 are Eastern, National, Northwest, Trans World, and United.

Prices Will Hold

President Johnson, announcing the agreement Friday night, appeared to anticipate criticism over the size of the settlement when he said airline labor costs were so low no price hikes would follow.

Whether the airlines would withdraw the fare reductions proposed to the Civil Aeronautics Board was not known immediately.

The 16,000 other strikers — fuelers, gas-truck drivers, maintenance men, stock cleaners and janitors — will get the same percentage wage hikes but less in money because their pay scales are below the mechanics' current rate of $3.52 an hour.

"This settlement will not be inflationary," Johnson said.

Wage increases alone total 56 cents an hour over the three years for 19,000 mechanics. But in return the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists gave up its insistence on a cost-of-living wage escalator clause and pension improvements.

High-Ranking Asian Reds Reportedly Met In Viet Jungle

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The official Viet Nam Press said Saturday some high-ranking Asian Communists, including a general from Red China, had met 10 days ago under an extraordinary security guard in the jungles of Tay Ninh Province of South Viet Nam.

Without touching on what might have been their subject matter, the government news agency indicated a chance military patrol had broken up the session, in confusion.

The Viet Nam Press said South Vietnamese army troops had infiltrated the area, near the Cambodian frontier about 70 miles northwest of Saigon, and engaged in a firefight with elements of a full regiment of guerrillas posted in the jungles as a security force. By its account:

Leave Briefcase

The Communist representatives broke up the meeting and pulled out, leaving behind a briefcase that was seized by the troops.

Captured documents named one participant, Vo Chi Cong, as counselor of the Viet Nam People's Revolutionary party and personal representative of President Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam.

On hand from Red China were Maj. Gen. Huyet Deat Trung, military adviser to the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front, and Maj. Ngu Goang Rang, political adviser to the front.

Both names were spelled phonetically in the Viet Nam Press account. They sounded similar to Vietnamese names, but it is common for both the Chinese and Vietnamese Communists to change names.

The Viet Nam Press story said a colonel named Mot Nang had been present as a representative of the Cambodian National Defense Ministry and that a colonel identified only as Chevalclan had represented the Laotian Communist Pathet Lao.

Top leaders of the South Vietnamese Communist movement were reported on hand.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

NAMED FOR EDITOR

GREENCASTLE, Ind. (AP)—A $100,000 scholarship fund honoring the editor of the Chicago Tribune was announced Saturday by Dr. William Kerstetter, President of DePaul University.

The scholarships will carry the name of W. D. Maxwell, a DePaul alumnus and editor of the Tribune since 1955.

They will go to deserving "B" students, Dr. Kerstetter said, "who rarely have scholarships available to them."

Wilson Gloomy About Viet Peace

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson returned from Washington talks Saturday, happy with President Johnson's "understanding" of the Labor government's money troubles but gloomy about prospects of peace in Viet Nam.

Wilson indicated much of his talk with the President had explored the Southeast Asian conflict, and he emerged with the conclusion that "there is no immediate prospect of any peace talks."

Even more pessimistic was word from Moscow, where United Nations Secretary-General U. Thant had sought ways of softening up the Soviet Union's position so that some door to peace negotiations might be pried open.

Small Chance
Thant, too, saw little chance, commenting that the Russians had not budged an inch from their position, which coincides with that of Hanoi: that the United States should get out and let North Viet Nam and South Viet Nam settle their quarrel.

Soviet leaders told Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi about the same thing on her recent journey to Moscow.

On his return to London, Wilson said President Johnson "fully understood" Britain's general support of American policy except that it felt compelled to dissociate itself from bombings on the fringes of Hanoi and the port of Haiphong.

In addition, Wilson was satisfied, he said, that the White House was in sympathy with Britain's need to cut back some defense spending abroad to get its financial house in order.

Wilson returned from Washington by way of Ottawa to see Canadian Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson.

In London, at the airport Wilson told newsmen his parley with Johnson had been another in his moves to try to mediate the Vietnamese war. He said that while prospects were dim, "we shall go on probing to see if we can find a way."

He added his continued try was based on genuine concern that the conflict could "escalate dangerously."

At that score, U. Thant in Moscow spoke even more strongly, saying: "I am increasingly convinced that the Viet Nam war will develop into a major war if the present trend continues."

Tax Battle
Idaho is locked in controversy, cutting across party lines, over a 3 per cent state sales tax. The tax is already in effect and the governor supports it. A referendum on the tax will be held in November.

Missouri does not elect a senator or governor this year, but three of its 10 House members have challenges in the primary. They are Republican Duward G. Hall and Democrats Richard Ichord and Paul C. Jones.

A fifth primary of the week is Thursday in Tennessee. Gov. Frank Clement is making another run at Sen. Ross Bass for the Democratic nomination for the Senate. He lost to Bass two years ago for the two years in the unexpired term of the late Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Former Gov. Buford Ellington and John J. Hooker Jr. are contending for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Ellington resigned as President Johnson's director of the Office of Emergency Planning to run for governor. Hooker, a Nashville attorney, is a personal friend of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

Tennessee Republicans have a contest between Kenneth Roberts and Howard Baker Jr. for their Senate nomination.

Too Late
Officially there is no GOP candidate for governor. Charles Moffett sought to file as a Republican candidate, but due to a ruling, he qualified too late. He will be on the ballot as an independent. He is former director of the University of Tennessee evening school.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON chatted with British Prime Minister Wilson outside the White House July 29 as the two leaders met for a round of talks. Wilson's arrival at the White House was delayed for about 15 minutes because of a sniper scare. Mr. Johnson made good use of every extra minute he had as he brought both sides together to try to negotiate a settlement in the national airlines strike earlier in the day. (NEA Telephoto)

Spotlight On Michigan's Primary

WASHINGTON (AP) — G. Mennen Williams, who resigned as assistant secretary of state to run for the Senate, tests Tuesday whether he still has the vote-drawing power in Michigan that kept him in the governor's chair throughout the 1950s.

Williams is rated by political observers as a strong favorite over Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanaugh for the Democratic Senate nomination.

Wants Big Win
He would like to win big in the Tuesday primary and carry the momentum over into the fall election contest with Republican Sen. Robert P. Griffin. Griffin has no primary opposition.

Kansas, Idaho and Missouri also have primaries Tuesday. In Kansas, Rep. Robert Ellis is trying to upset Sen. James B. Pearson in the Republican primary.

In Idaho, Gov. Robert E. Smylie, the nation's senior governor in length of service, is asking Republican renomination for an unprecedented fourth four-year term. Don Samuelson, a young legislator, is running against him.

U2 Wreckage Positively Identified
PANAMA, C.Z. (AP) — Wreckage found by farmers in west-central Bolivia was identified positively Saturday as a U.S. Air Force U2 reconnaissance plane that had vanished on a flight out of Louisiana Thursday.

An announcement from the U.S. Southern Command headquarters in the Panama Canal Zone said the wreckage and remains of the pilot, Capt. Robert D. Hickman, 32, of Alexandria, La., father of six, would be taken to Oruro in Bolivia for transportation to the United States and a detailed investigation of the cause of the crash. Oruro is 52 miles east of the crash site and about 140 miles south of La Paz, the Bolivian capital.

U.S. officials said Hickman apparently had blacked out because of a lack of oxygen early in his flight and the plane continued on automatic pilot to Bolivia where it ran out of fuel and crashed on a plateau.

Farmers near the Bolivian town of Llanquera reported finding the wreckage Friday. They trekked 24 hours to Oruro from the crash site, an area accessible only by foot and pack animal, to report to authorities.

Col. Louis J. Churchill, public affairs officer for the U.S. Southern Command here, said positive identification of the plane and the remains of Hickman had been made by an investigating team headed by Lt. Col. Edward J. Fox, air attaché of the U.S. Embassy in La Paz. Fox and his team reached Oruro late Friday night and left for the crash site at dawn Saturday.

"They will conduct a preliminary investigation and coordinate with Bolivian armed forces personnel to clear the crash area and collect the wreckage," Churchill's announcement said.

The announcement also reported two U.S. Air Force HC130 search and rescue aircraft left their staging base in Lima, Peru, for La Paz to be at Lt. Col. Fox's disposal.

The long-winged U2, capable of flying at altitudes above 90,000 feet, took off Thursday morning on what the Air Force described as a routine mission from Barksdale Air Base, La. Its mission and destination were not disclosed.

U2s, however, have been used for reconnaissance of Cuba.

Fear Striking Mechanics May Refuse New Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking airlines mechanics won a whopping hike in wages of 72 cents an hour plus fringe benefits in the agreement, it was learned Saturday.

The hefty package, spread over three years, is an annual increase of 6 to 7 per cent, about double the White House guideline for curbing wage demands the government considers inflationary.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The executive board of Local 1781 of the International Association of Machinists voted Saturday to ask its membership to reject the airline strike settlement.

Local 1781 represents some 6,000 United Air Lines mechanics in San Francisco.

William Yonkman, a spokesman for Local 1058 of the IAM, representing about 475 Trans World Airlines mechanics, said reaction to the settlement has been "strongly negative."

But fears remained over whether the 35,000 strikers would approve the contract proposal in voting across the country Sunday. And not a plane of the five grounded airlines will fly until they do. The lines struck July 8 are Eastern, National, Northwest, Trans World, and United.

Prices Will Hold
President Johnson, announcing the agreement Friday night, appeared to anticipate criticism over the size of the settlement when he said airline labor costs were so low no price hikes would follow.

Whether the airlines would withdraw the fare reductions proposed to the Civil Aeronautics Board was not known immediately.

Leave Briefcase
The Communist representatives broke up the meeting and pulled out, leaving behind a briefcase that was seized by the troops.

Captured documents named one participant, Vo Chi Cong, as a representative of the Viet Nam People's Revolutionary party and personal representative of President Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam.

On hand from Red China were Maj. Gen. Huyet Deat Trung, military adviser to the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front, and Maj. Ngu Goang Rang, political adviser to the front.

Both names were spelled phonetically in the Viet Nam Press account. They sounded similar to Vietnamese names, but it is common for both the Chinese and Vietnamese Communists to change names.

The Viet Nam Press story said a colonel named Mot Nang had been present, as a representative of the Cambodian National Defense Ministry and that a colonel identified only as Chevalani had represented the Laotian Communist Pathet Lao.

Top leaders of the South Vietnamese Communist movement were reported on hand.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND NAMED FOR EDITOR
GREENCASTLE, Ind. (AP) — A $100,000 scholarship fund honoring the editor of the Chicago Tribune was announced Saturday by Dr. William Kerstetter, President of DePauw University.

The scholarships will carry the name of W. D. Maxwell, a DePauw alumnus and editor of the Tribune since 1955.

They will go to deserving "B" students, Dr. Kerstetter said, "who rarely have scholarships available to them."

The donor of the gift is Col. Henry Crown, a Chicago businessman and close friend of the editor.

High-Ranking Asian Reds Reportedly Met In Viet Jungle

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The official Viet Nam Press said Saturday some high-ranking Asian Communists, including a general from Red China, had met 10 days ago under an extraordinary security guard in the jungles of Tay Ninh Province of South Viet Nam.

Without touching on what might have been their subject matter, the government news agency indicated a chance military patrol had broken up the session, in confusion.

The Viet Nam Press said South Vietnamese army troops had infiltrated the area, near the Cambodian frontier about 70 miles northwest of Saigon, and engaged in a firefight with elements of a full regiment of guerrillas posted in the jungles as a security force. By its account:

Two Killed As Gunfight Blazes In Police Court
PLENTYWOOD, Mont. (AP) — A burly oil worker pulled a .22 caliber pistol in court, shot and killed the mayor of Plentywood and wounded the judge and a policeman Saturday before the wounded officer killed him with a bullet between the eyes.

The gunfight took place in the city courtroom just after Duane Falk, 33, of Plentywood, the oil worker, was convicted of assault and fined $50. Sheriff Lyle Medders said Falk stood up and started blazing away with the gun, which was in a pocket of his jeans.

Mayor Ludwig Tande, 46, shot in the arm and side, staggered through a door and died on the floor of the Fire Department garage.

Falk wounded Justice of the Peace William Denikas, about 80, who had hobbled into the courtroom on crutches, and city policeman Ole Fiske, 59.

Undersheriff Ben Holt said Fiske, shot in the side, then struggled with Falk until Falk accidentally shot himself in the side. In an ensuing exchange, Fiske shot Falk in the head, Holt said.

Fiske was in serious condition in a hospital and Denikas, who normally is confined to a wheelchair, was in satisfactory condition.

Falk had just been convicted of assaulting Robert Engstrom of Reserve, Mont., in a Plentywood bar in June. Ed Rucker of Plentywood, the defense attorney who represented Falk, said the bar fight was over $230 Falk contended Engstrom owed him for damage done to his car in an accident last year.

"I got the best out of there in a hurry," Rucker told newsmen. "I hid in the fire garage next door and counted six shots. Then I started to go home for my gun and I saw Falk fighting with Ole Fiske," the policeman. Rucker said he could not tell who fired the shot that killed Falk. (Continued On Page Eight)

Exclusive Series From Inside Red China Begins Monday In Journal And Courier

From inside Communist China comes an exclusive report for the Journal and Courier, a vivid picture by renowned Feliks Topolski, known by critics as the world's greatest living sketch artist. The series will start Monday.

In five dynamic chapters combining masterful art work with word reporting Topolski presents the scene during the crisis between the U.S. and Red China caused by the escalation of the Viet Nam war.

Topolski's report is the first from any newspaper reporter since 1958 when John Strohm, accredited to Newspaper Enterprise Assn., by the U.S. State Department, reported extensively from Red China during the acute crisis over the offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

Feliks Topolski has traveled to every quarter of the globe documenting wars, famines, coronations, pageants, politics and personalities with his facile crayon and equally facile words.

The editors of NEA commissioned Topolski earlier this year to report on Red China today, to show in word and picture what he saw, just as he saw it.

Feliks Topolski

He has done just that, within the limits set by the Chinese government. He was not permitted to cover the Red Chinese scene freely but was under constant official chaperonage.

His copy clearly depicts what he was allowed and not allowed to see; much of what he did see he was not permitted to sketch.

Nevertheless, Topolski has managed a vivid representation with his pencil and typewriter of his journey to China, his first since the Communist takeover.

Feliks Topolski was born at Warsaw, Poland, in 1907, the son of an actor. He was educated at the Mikolaj Rey School and the Warsaw Academy of Art. After working for a leading satirical paper in Warsaw and painting a 50-foot mural at the National Institute of Art he served in the Polish army, reaching the rank of Second Lieutenant in Artillery Officers School.

Topolski studied in Italy and France and visited London in 1935. He fell in love with the city and its people and became a British citizen in 1947.

A friendship developed between Topolski and George Bernard Shaw. The artist produced numerous sketches of G.B.S. and illustrated editions of "Pygmalion" and other books by Shaw, and he later designed sets for "Man and Superman" and other plays.

Shaw once called Topolski "an astonishing draughtsman, perhaps the greatest of all the impressionists in black and white." Shaw's lengthy correspondence with the artist recently was acquired along with other of the dramatist's memorabilia by the University of Texas.

Topolski was appointed an official war artist during World War II by both the British government and the Polish army. By tank, bomber and battleship he covered the war in Russia, the Middle East, China-Burma-India, Africa, Italy and Germany.

Topolski's drawings and paintings have appeared in Life, Fortune, Holiday, Look, Vogue and Harper's Bazaar and important publications throughout the world. His numerous books include "Britain in Peace and War," "Three Continents," "Portrait of G.B.S.," and "Topolski's Legal London."

His works are in art gallery collections in London, New Delhi, Tel Aviv, Glasgow, Warsaw, Edinburgh, Melbourne, Toronto, Singapore and Brooklyn. Topolski was commissioned to record the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II and some of his paintings hang in Buckingham Palace.

In 1953 Topolski began his "Chronicle," a unique publishing venture. Published 24 times a year, the "Chronicle" is a broadsheet in the tradition of those in the 18th and 19th centuries, the forerunners of today's newspapers. Topolski's "Chronicle," edited, drawn and published by the artist, is a permanent record of the world at large.

Watch for this outstanding exclusive series beginning Monday in The Journal and Courier.

In early days, shoes showed the rank or wealth of the wearer, among the Greeks, Romans, and Egyptians.

Those unable to attend who sent gifts were: Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wilson, Springfield, Mrs. Virgil Vedder, Murrayville and W. W. Mehrtz, Murrayville. Billy Vedder received the door prize. Cupcakes and iced tea were served.

ROODHOUSE CLASS OF '39 GUESTS FOR LUNCHEON

ROODHOUSE—Members of the Roodhouse Community High Class of 1939 took time out from the Roodhouse Centennial Celebration to meet for a noonday luncheon given at the home of Emma Fugger Day, Thursday. Other attending were Peggy Bucklin Nichols, Alene Casteel Petrey, White Hall; Alene Sprague Denny, Thelma Seavers Peters, Elayne Nebergall Reynolds, Roodhouse; Jeanne Battershell Fleming, Addison; Justine Neal Whitworth, Bloomington; Ruth Vigus Shank, St. Louis, Mo. A teacher, Thelma Chapman Wilkinson, was present. Also present was Marjorie Casteel Ash, Mrs. Day's niece, who assisted with the luncheon and remained as a guest.

BALLARDS VISIT MUSEUM AT OAK RIDGE, TENN.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ballard have returned to their home here, 872 Grove street, after a trip which included the American Museum of Atomic Energy at Oak Ridge, Tenn. The visit featured demonstrations and displays on peaceful uses of the atom.

Serving on the executive committee of the Roodhouse Centennial Corporation to carry out the major plans for this celebration were Frank A. Hopkins, general chairman; John R. Harms, vice chairman; Betty Ann Bruce, secretary; Opal Day, treasurer; and Walter Harms, headquarters chairman.

There are six division chairmen heads. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wolfe, revenue division; Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, men's and women's participation; spectacle division. Betty and Helen Benner; spectacle ticket division. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Moulton; publicity. Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Shaw; special events Mr. and Mrs. James H. Orr.

These people and their committees have worked long and hard to make the 100th year of Roodhouse an occasion to be long remembered by the citizens of Roodhouse.

Shaw once called Topolski "an astonishing draftsman, perhaps the greatest of all the impressionists in black and white." Shaw's lengthy correspondence with the artist recently was acquired along with other of the dramatist's memorabilia by the University of Texas.

Topolski was appointed an official war artist during World War II by both the British government and the Polish army. By tank, bomber and battleship he covered the war in Russia, the Middle East, China-Burma-India, Africa, Italy and Germany.

Topolski's drawings and paintings have appeared in Life, Fortune, Holiday, Look, Vogue and Harper's Bazaar and important publications throughout the world. His numerous books include "Britain in Peace & War," "Three Continents," "Portrait of G.B.S.," and "Topolski's Legal London."

His works are in art gallery collections in London, New Delhi, Tel Aviv, Glasgow, Warsaw, Edinburgh, Melbourne, Toronto, Singapore and Brooklyn. Topolski was commissioned to record the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II and some of his paintings hang in Buckingham Palace.

In 1953 Topolski began his "Chronicle," a unique publishing venture. Published 24 times a year, the "Chronicle" is a broadsheet in the tradition of those in the 18th and 19th centuries, the forerunners of today's newspapers. Topolski's "Chronicle," edited, drawn and published by the artist, is a permanent record of the world at large.

Watch for this outstanding exclusive series beginning Monday in the Journal and Courier.

THE PENNEY STORY

Suddenly we're very 'in' with teenage daughters!

By ROBERTA NASH

When I overheard a girl tell her mother one of our dresses was 'tuff,' I asked my teenage niece for a translation and found out the girl meant she liked it.

Today's high school and college girls (boys, too) are a good deal more knowledgeable about their styles than they used to be. And just between us mothers, so is Penneys.

Because the kids said, 'Give us what we want,' and our fashion buyers got the message.

After all, Penneys is, you know, like 'tuff.'

Fifty years ago sounds like a long time but for the members of the Jacksonville High School class of 1916, who observed their 50th "GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY" Reunion recently it seemed only yesterday.

On Saturday, July 9th, 1966 in the beautiful new Irma Latzer Gamble Center on MacMurray College campus, twenty-seven of the original seventy-seven members assembled for this big event. There are twenty-three deceased members.

The twenty-seven classmates present and their seventeen guests, which included husbands, wives, and a daughter, enjoyed a delicious banquet served under the supervision of Mr. Edward Maney, director of food service at the college. Four tables which converged fan shaped to the speakers table were beautifully decorated in the class colors of green and white. Green table linens, white tapers, and white floral pieces were used.

Each class member received a "Memory Booklet" containing pictures, histories, memorials and a Reunion poem written by William A. Bartlett, the present ranking class president. Preceding the dinner, Merrill Cruzan gave the invocation. Frank A. Robinson, Master of Ceremonies, presented William A. Bartlett who extended greetings and a warm welcome to all.

All present stood for a moment of silence in memory of the deceased class members. Mrs. Lucille Chandler, accompanied by Miss Mahala McGehee, sang a group of appropriate numbers. Messages and telegrams from absent members were read. Several floral tributes in memory of deceased class members were acknowledged. A joyful reminiscing social hour followed.

Those from out of state and traveling long distances to be here were Mrs. Gladys Andre Eberhart and her daughter Mrs. Jane Buford of Ft. Worth, Texas, Walton Bland and wife Ruth from Nalcrest, Fla. Mrs. Lucille Bolton Cameron and husband C. G. Cameron from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Mrs. Catherine Carter Decker from Webster Groves, Mo.

J. Verans Coover and wife Floe from Pueblo, Colo., Wayne F. Gibbs and wife Beatrice from Williamsburg, Va., Mrs. Ruby Molohon Eriksen and husband, Martin Eriksen from Great Falls, Mont., and Edward Tomlinson and wife Juanita from Indianapolis, Ind.

The local Planning Committee was Mrs. Ethel Cruse Opperman, Miss Helen Paschall, Miss Elizabeth Hembrough, Miss Marguerite Corrington, Walter White and Frank A. Robinson. Mrs. Ruth Fenstermaker Bartlett was treasurer.

4-H Club Activities

The Victory Ag 4-H club met at the Charles Williams home July 21 with Randy Schone presiding.

The program was presented by Debbie Houston, Sue Knutson, Lee Burrus, and Todd Burrus.

A report was given on the ice cream social by Don Wardle. Lee Burrus and Roger Lakamp led pledges to the flag. Charles Williams talked about the entry blank for the 4-H fair. Refreshments were served by the host.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED FOR WEEK

Two marriage licenses were issued last week from the office of County Clerk Louise Coop: John Leo Sullivan of 916 East Lafayette and Mary Reavy of 730 West State; Derek R. George of Carbondale and Donna Sue Megginson of Route 2, Waverly.

Matter of Fact

The raglan, a kind of loose overcoat with large sleeves, is named after a British field marshal, Lord Raglan, noted for wearing such a coat during the fiercely cold winter campaign he conducted as head of the British expeditionary forces in the Crimea in 1854. Earlier, in the Waterloo campaign in 1815, Raglan received a wound which caused the amputation of his right arm.

"PLAY BALL!"

In

"the good ol' summertime" of 1865, a new pastime captured the interest of Jacksonville's citizens.

Baseball, popularized by soldiers during the Civil War, was introduced to Jacksonville by "Line" Chandler, a sports buff from Chandlerville. He learned the game in the East and brought it to Jacksonville when he enrolled in Illinois College. Soon two town baseball teams were playing regularly.

Students at the College organized a team called the "Hercules" and it remained a part of the campus sports scene until 1878 when intercollegiate baseball was introduced. As other towns organized baseball teams, the game took on professional status and Jacksonville had a minor league team until the turn of the century.

Interest

in recreation had been stirred by baseball and soon extended to other sports. Tennis became a favorite way to spend a Sunday afternoon and golf began to grow in popularity.

In the East, football was gaining stature among the colleges and soon the sport made its way to Jacksonville. The first organized game, played in 1890, Illinois College was trounced by the School for the Deaf. In a short time the high school in Jacksonville also took up the game and football became an established tradition.

Basketball also came to the community before 1900 under the auspices of the YMCA, and soon a number of leagues were organized under the direction of the "Y."

Jacksonville's

early enthusiasm for sports produced some by-products that all residents still enjoy today. When cycling became popular in the 1890's, the bicycle clubs that sponsored races and tours also became the first advocates of a good state-wide road system. And it was the obvious need for more recreational facilities that prompted Samuel W. Nichols in 1903 to donate the land for the park that bears his name.

Since that first "play ball" was heard 101 years ago this summer, the people of Jacksonville have remained ardent sports fans and, as spectator or participant, have had the opportunity to enjoy virtually every major sport on the American scene.

This page from Jacksonville's past is presented by the people of Elliott State Bank, this year observing its 100th year of service. It is based on a history of Jacksonville written by Dr. Ernest Hildner, Illinois College, and commissioned by the bank for its centennial observance.

Fifty years ago sounds like a long time but for the members of the Jacksonville High School class of 1916, who observed their 50th "GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY" Reunion recently it seemed only yesterday.

On Saturday, July 9th, 1966 in the beautiful new Irma Latzer Gamble Center on MacMurray College campus, twenty-seven of the original seventy-seven members assembled for this big event. There are twenty-three deceased members.

The twenty-seven classmates present and their seventeen guests, which included husbands, wives, and a daughter, enjoyed a delicious banquet served under the supervision of Mr. Edward Maney, director of food service at the college. Four tables which converged fan shaped to the speakers table were beautifully decorated in the class colors of green and white. Green table linens, white tapers, and white floral pieces were used.

Each class member received a "Memory Booklet" containing pictures, histories, memorials and a Reunion poem written by William A. Bartlett, the present ranking class president. Preceding the dinner, Merrill Cruzan gave the invocation. Frank A. Robinson, Master of Ceremonies, presented William A. Bartlett who extended greetings and a warm welcome to all.

All present stood for a moment of silence in memory of the deceased class members. Mrs. Lucille Chandler, accompanied by Miss Mahala McGehee, sang a group of appropriate numbers. Messages and telegrams from absent members were read. Several floral tributes in memory of deceased class members were acknowledged. A joyful reminiscing social hour followed.

Those from out of state and traveling long distances to be here were Mrs. Gladys Andre Eberhart and her daughter Mrs. Jane Buford of Ft. Worth, Texas; Walton Bland and wife Ruth from Nalcrest, Fla.; Mrs. Lucille Bolton Cameron and husband C. G. Cameron from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; Mrs. Catherine Carter Decker from Webster Groves, Mo.

J. Verans Coover and wife Floe from Pueblo, Colo.; Wayne F. Gibbs and wife Beatrice from Williamsburg, Va.; Mrs. Ruby Molohon Eriksen and husband, Martin Eriksen from Great Falls, Mont.; and Edward Tomlinson and wife Juanita from Indianapolis, Ind.

The local Planning Committee was Mrs. Ethel Cruse Opperman, Miss Helen Paschall, Miss Elizabeth Hembrough, Miss Marguerite Corrington, Walter White and Frank A. Robinson. Mrs. Ruth Fenstermaker Bartlett was treasurer.

4-H Club Activities

The Victory Ag 4-H club met at the Charles Williams home July 21 with Randy Schone presiding.

The program was presented by Debbie Houston. Sue Knutson, Lee Burrus, and Todd Burrus.

A report was given on the ice cream social by Don Wardle. Lee Burrus and Roger Lakamp led pledges to the flags. Charles Williams talked about the entry blank for the 4-H fair.

Refreshments were served by the host.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market last week put on a double performance, repeatedly sinking to new lows for the year. Trading was somewhat more active.

Volume totaled 31,590,390 shares compared with 29,390,910 the previous week.

"We're no longer talking about a summer rally," said one analyst as trading for the month of July ended.

The Dow Jones industrial average had taken a thumping loss of 21.77 at 847.38.

The week saw the smashing of a narrow trading range which had existed since May 17 when the Dow industrials sank to their previous 1966 low of 864.14.

Until last week, the average had fluctuated between that low, or slightly above it, to the neighborhood of 900 in the Dow.

Market technicians predicted sooner or later either the "floor" or the "ceiling" of this trading band would be broken and that would determine the next trend.

From the chartist's viewpoint, the present outlook is for another test of a "support" area between 832 and 840 in the Dow.

Whether the list would hold there was anyone's guess.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks last week sank 7.7

Chicago Livestock Market Report

CHICAGO (AP)—The butcher hog supply of 17,000 head last week was the smallest for a non-holiday week this year and buyers bid prices up in competition for the offerings. They closed strong to 50 cents higher.

The top of $27.50, paid on Tuesday, was the highest since June 1 and compared with a peak of $26.50 for the previous week.

The supply was down 1,000 from a week earlier.

The average price for the week was estimated at $26.17, the highest since the first week of March.

It compared with $25.17 the previous week and $24.39 a year ago.

Slaughter steer prices closed mostly steady. The cattle supply at 12 major terminals was down somewhat.

to a new 1966 low of 305.9. It was the worst weekly loss since May 14 when it sank 10.7.

Of 1,560 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 1,170 fell and 273 rose.

The "money squeeze" was cited as one of the biggest factors in the slump. This was underlined Wednesday by the U.S. Treasury's offer to pay 5 1/4 per cent interest, highest in 45 years.

Prices on the bond market generally were unchanged.

The average price of $25.35 for steers was the same as the previous week but down about $1.20 from a year ago.

Prices held steady for spring slaughter lambs.

SEARCH FOR GEN. STILWELL

NEARING END

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Debris sighted floating in the Pacific 400 miles southwest of San Francisco was being checked Saturday by the Coast Guard in a final effort of search for the plane in which Brig. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell vanished last Sunday.

The debris was seen Friday from a Coast Guard search plane. The plane, along with the cutter Dexter, was trying to relocate the debris for close-up inspection. The pilot reported it "looked like some kind of wood."

If the debris check is as fruitless, as the search has been since the Stilwell plane vanished, the Coast Guard said it probably would suspend its efforts at dusk Saturday night.

The general, 54, commander of the Army's Special Forces Training Center at Ft. Bragg, N.C., was one of three men aboard the twin-engine DC3 bound for Hawaii. It radioed it was in trouble 325 miles south of San Francisco Sunday and that was the last heard of it.

Stilwell, on leave, had gone on the plane ferrying flight with an old friend, the pilot, Hal Grimes, to get navigating experience.

Bombers

In action around a military spokesman in Saigon said Vietnamese troops on a road clearing operation Saturday found 90 enemy dead along Highway 1 about 39 miles northwest of coastal Qui Nhon. The area, about 275 miles northeast of Saigon, had been hit by U.S. bombers Thursday after 120 to 150 Viet Cong were spotted there.

The spokesman also announced the start of Operation Springfield II by the 3rd Brigade of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division, 45 miles northeast of Saigon. He said the search and destroy operation began Thursday.

Units of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry ended Operation Clay at midnight Saturday, reporting 35 enemy killed and seven captured since their drive began 29 days ago near Tuy Hoa in the central lowlands.

In other aspects of the war: Briefing officers announced that U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese troops had killed the equivalent of two battalions of North Viet Nam's 324B Infantry Division in Operation Hastings. This is a 15-day-old campaign just south of the demilitarized zone. The list of confirmed enemy dead rose to 830. Though some Marine units had been mauled, over-all allied casualties were called light.

Soldiers of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division probed a long-time Viet Cong stamping ground in Binh Duong Province, 50 miles north of Saigon, with no immediate contact. They were involved in a large, new sweep-and-destroy operation code-named Springfield.

A recent visitor to Hanoi said the Russians were providing North Viet Nam advanced combat MIG21 aircraft to combat American raiders. He would not guess at the number. The war's dogfights so far have resulted in the destruction of 17 of the Communists' fighters, including three MIG21s, against a loss of 5 U.S. planes.

A U.S. spokesman announced the B52 attack was to combat North Vietnamese infiltration, specifically by the 324B Division, via the demilitarized zone. Two bombing incidents in the strip last September were classified officially as accidental, and the B52 raid was described as the first ordered there by American authorities.

Hit Near Border

The spokesman said the eight-engine Stratofortresses from Guam had rained 500-pound and 1,000-pound bombs on enemy installations little more than half a mile south of the border, which splits the zone. He listed an ammunition dump, a weapons storage area, 26 gun positions and extensive fortifications.

"From the amount of fire we received," he said, "the positions evidently were occupied."

Moreover, American field commanders in Operation Hastings were reported to have been authorized by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the U.S. commander in Viet Nam, to fire artillery into the zone if necessary.

2 Killed

Falk.

Dozens of residents of this town of 2,000 rushed to the City Hall on hearing the shooting.

Tande, who was serving as prosecuting attorney in the assault case against Falk, was shot first in the arm. He twisted his body and was stuck in the side by Falk's next bullet.

Tande staggered from the courtroom while Falk's gun was still blazing, and collapsed on the floor of an adjacent garage.

Plentywood is in extreme northeastern Montana, 16 miles from the Canadian border and 24 miles from the North Dakota state line. Falk, 33, had worked in oil field in the sparsely populated area.

Tande, 46, was one of the best-known lawyers in the area. He was a former county attorney, and filled the jobs of mayor and city attorney while maintaining his law practice.

Justice Denikas has held his job unopposed for years. Fiske is a long-time member of the police department.

Falk had been charged with assault by Robert Engstrom of Reserve, Mont., in connection with a fight in a Plentywood bar last month.

Denikas found him guilty and fined him $50. Then Falk stood up and began firing, witnesses said.

"The town is stunned," said J. S. Polk, editor of the weekly Plentywood Herald. "The mayor was our leading citizen. People are just standing around stunned."

The flurry of shots was over in a few seconds. Falk's revolver was empty and three shots had been fired by the police-

Striking

ics, inspectors and crew chiefs will get an extra pay differential of 5 cents an hour on top of the 56-cent hike.

The 5-cent flight-line wage differential was viewed as the most costly fringe benefit in the contract proposal.

All the strikers will get up to $2 a week in added company-paid medical benefits to cover members of their families, virtually wiping out the health-benefit deduction that now comes out of their paycheck.

The union won improved vacations — four weeks after 15 years' service instead of the present 20 years, and three weeks after 8 years instead of the current 10 years.

The details were learned despite the lid of secrecy clamped on by the White House until the strikers vote on the contract.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., who headed a presidential emergency board that recommended a 3.6 per cent increase, said in a statement: "The settlement reached by the parties last night, in my opinion, is somewhat more than 4 per cent, somewhat more than 4 per cent but clearly below 4.4 per cent."

"Any allegation that the wage settlement goes beyond 4.4 per cent is simply contrary to fact," he estimated the cost to the airlines of the settlement at $72 or $73 million.

The union had sharply rejected the presidential board's suggested settlement and Morse then went to Congress for emergency legislation to stop the strike.

While Morse gave no details of his analysis, the union earlier disputed the figures used in the report of the presidential board's analysis of present wages and fringe benefits were falsely inflated by inclusion of Social Security and other taxes not normally considered part of a labor contract.

The outcome of the machine-ists' vote on the current proposal will be known sometime Sunday.

The contract is retroactive to last Jan. 1, and the 35,000 strikers will get lump-sum back pay averaging $200 per man.

Spotlight

In Michigan, Republican Gov. George Romney is unopposed for nomination to a third term. His fall opponent will be Zolton Ferency, state Democratic chairman who has no opposition for his party's gubernatorial nomination.

In addition to Pearson and Ellsworth, there are two other candidates for the Republican Senate nomination in Kansas. They are William D. Tarrant, former mayor of Wichita, and Ava V. Anderson, wife of a Concordia dentist.

Pearson came to the Senate in January of 1962 by appointment and won election the following fall to the remainder of the unexpired term of the late Sen. Andrew F. Schoepel.

Ellsworth is a three-term House member.

Family Tradition

Republican Gov. William H. Avery has nominal primary opposition. So does Robert Docking, the prospective Democratic nominee. Docking, an Arkansas city banker, is a son of former Gov. George Docking.

Idaho has a three-way contest for the Democratic nomination for governor involving Cecil Andrus, William J. Dee and Charles Herndon.

The state elects a senator this year but there are no primary contests over the nominations. Ralph Harding, a former House member, will try to unseat Republican Sen. Len B. Jordan in the November election.

Neither of the state's two House members — Democrat Compton I. White Jr. and Republican George V. Hansen — has primary opposition.

A candidate for Hansen's seat, via the Democratic primary, is Army Capt. George Willmore, fresh from flying helicopter missions in Viet Nam. He is opposed in the primary by A.M. (Bill) Brunt, a former state Democratic chairman.

Here is the August political lineup (primaries except where designated as conventions):

Aug. 2—Idaho: Senator, 2 representatives, governor.

Kansas: Senator, 5 representatives, governor.

Michigan: Senator, 19 representatives, governor.

Missouri: 10 representatives.

Aug. 4—Tennessee: Senator, 9 representatives, governor.

Aug. 9—Arkansas: runoff.

Aug. 13—Louisiana: senator, 8 representatives.

Aug. 16—Montana: senator, 2 representatives.

—Wyoming: Senator, 1 representative, governor.

—Virginia: runoff.

Aug. 20—Delaware: Local candidates.

Aug. 23—Alaska: Senator, 1 representative, governor.

ARENZVILLE — The quarterly Lutheran Church Women meeting was held recently at St. Peter's Lutheran parish hall. Mrs. Larry Noble and Mrs. Robert Brasell presented the topic, "Then Abide Hope," assisted by Mrs. John Clark. Mrs. Charles Hendrick, and Mrs. Herman Lovekamp. Mrs. Hackman was pianist.

Mrs. Don Meyer conducted the business meeting. A report from the Christian Action fellowship.

chairman, Miss Helene Sue Hendrick, showed that 25 activity kits and 16 klenli kits have been completed and are ready for shipment to needy children. The Esther Project, consisting of clothing articles which the members have sewed, is also complete. Ninety cancer pads have been distributed.

Mrs. John Clark reported on the district retreat which she attended at Canton in June. Over 40 women participated in a day of study, prayer, and fellowship.

Mrs. Frances Staake, Mrs. J. E. Peck, and Mrs. Wilbur L. Meyer were appointed to the nominating committee to prepare a slate of nominees to be presented at the next quarterly meeting.

It was decided to extend an invitation to the LCW of St. John's Lutheran Church, Bluff Springs, for a social and fellowship afternoon on Oct. 20. The following committee appointments were made: decorating: Mrs. Earl Hackman, Mrs. Elsie Winkelman, Mrs. Waldron Paul; program: Mrs. Russell Nordsiek, Mrs. Robert Brasell, Mrs. William Rawlings; refreshments: Mrs. Edward Hackman, Mrs. Herman Lovekamp, Mrs. Melvin Dufelmier.

The twenty-two members and two guests, Mrs. John Thompson and Mrs. Ruth Brasell, then enjoyed refreshments served by Mrs. Martha Meyer and Miss Helene Sue Hendrick.

CWF MEETING HELD AT CHAPIN, MRS. MATTIS IS HOSTESS

CHAPIN — The C.W.F. of Chapin Christian church met recently at the home of Mrs. Ernest Mattis.

Adelia Hamilton led the group in devotions and Mrs. Ann Hymes led the study period. Mrs. Edna Obert presented a report on the C.W.F. meeting which she attended in Indiana.

The president, Mrs. Lina Detmer, conducted the business session, presided during a quiz and distributed questions to be answered at the next meeting.

The August meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lina Detmer with Mrs. Edna Obert as assistant hostess. Mrs. Nellie Hymes attended as a guest.

The raglan, a kind of loose overcoat with large sleeves, is named after a British field marshal, Lord Raglan, noted for wearing such a coat during the fiercely cold winter campaign he conducted as head of the British expeditionary forces in the Crimea in 1854. Earlier, in the Waterloo campaign in 1815, Raglan received a wound which caused the amputation of his right arm.

"PLAY BALL!"

In

"the good ol' summertime" of 1865, a new pastime captured the interest of Jacksonville's citizens.

Baseball, popularized by soldiers during the Civil War, was introduced to Jacksonville by "Line" Chandler, a sports buff from Chandlerville. He learned the game in the East and brought it to Jacksonville when he enrolled in Illinois College. Soon two town baseball teams were playing regularly.

Students at the College organized a team called the "Hercules" and it remained a part of the campus sports scene until 1878 when intercollegiate baseball was introduced. As other towns organized baseball teams, the game took on professional status and Jacksonville had a minor league team until the turn of the century.

Interest

in recreation had been stirred by baseball and soon extended to other sports. Tennis became a favorite way to spend a Sunday afternoon and golf began to grow in popularity.

In the East, football was gaining stature among the colleges and soon the sport made its way to Jacksonville. The first organized game, played in 1890, Illinois College was trounced by the School for the Deaf. In a short time the high school in Jacksonville also took up the game and football became an established tradition.

Basketball also came to the community before 1900 under the auspices of the YMCA, and soon a number of leagues were organized under the direction of the "Y".

Jacksonville's

early enthusiasm for sports produced some by-products that all residents still enjoy today. When cycling became popular in the 1890's, the bicycle clubs that sponsored races and tours also became the first advocates of a good state-wide road system. And it was the obvious need for more recreational facilities that prompted Samuel W. Nichols in 1903 to donate the land for the park that bears his name.

Since that first "play ball" was heard 101 years ago this summer, the people of Jacksonville have remained ardent sports fans and, as spectator or participant, have had the opportunity to enjoy virtually every major sport on the American scene.

This page from Jacksonville's past is presented by the people of Elliott State Bank, this year observing its 100th year of service. It is based on a history of Jacksonville written by Dr. Ernest Hildner, Illinois College, and commissioned by the bank for its centennial observance.

Cards Top LA 3-1 For 6th Straight

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The surge of St. Louis Cardinals made it six straight victories and 12 in to victory before a sellout crowd of 47,770, the largest regular season crowd in St. Louis history.

Brock singled in the first inning and scored on Tim McCaver's triple. Orlando Cepeda's sacrifice fly then gave the Cards a 2-1 lead.

Brock homered in the fifth off Don Sutton, the Dodger starting pitcher.

In the first inning, the Dodgers' Willie Davis singled, moved up on a wild pitch and a fly ball and scored on Dick Stuart's single.

Casper Rallies, Shares Golf Lead

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—National Open Championship Casper scored two birdies and an eagle on the last three holes for a 68 Saturday to share the third-round lead of the $92,000 Speedway Golf Festival with R. H. Sikes.

Sikes also had a four-under-par 68 after taking a bogey 6 on the final hole when he wandered into the trees and three-putted.

Casper coupled 35-33 for his 68 over the 36-72 course. It is such a new layout that winter rules, improving the lie on the fairway, are being enforced.

The conditions were not too conducive for great shotmaking and there was a dropout of 14 players the most for a PGA sponsored event this year.

Casper said that the greens were so hard that it was difficult to try to reach them?

Billy dropped an eight-foot putt on the 16th, a 25-footer on the 17th and canned his eagle by placing a No. 4 wood shot 17 feet from the hole and ramming in his putt on the 18th.

Defending champion Bruce Crampton of Australia and three other pros were disqualified in the big dropout.

Johnson Powers Reds To 5-1 Win Over Houston

CINCINNATI (AP)—Deron Johnson cracked a three-run homer and Vada Pinson a two-run shot behind Sammy Ellis' six-hit pitching as the Cincinnati Reds trimmed Houston 5-1 Saturday for their fifth straight victory.

The victory was the 10th for the Reds in their last 12 games and the loss was the seventh in a row for the Astros.

Ellis, bringing up his record to 7-14, lost his bid for a shutout in the fifth, when Jim Wynn drew a walk with two out, reached second on a wild pitch and scored on Sonny Jackson's single.

Tommy Harper led off the Red's fourth with a single and Pinson drove a Mike Cuellar pitch over the center field fence for his ninth homer.

Johnson connected off reliever Claude Raymond in the eighth board difficulties and black following singles by Pete Rose and Tommy Helms. It was his 13th homer.

Bookies Tab Clay As 10-1 Favorite To Beat London

LONDON (AP)—Cassius Clay takes on Britain's Brian London next Saturday in a world heavyweight title fight, which the bookies virtually have written off as a one-man fight.

Clay, fighting his second British heavyweight within three months, is the 1-10 favorite. That means you must bet $10 to win one. London, a tough 32-year-old veteran, is 5-1.

Bosox End Skein With 8-2 Victory Behind Santiago

WASHINGTON (AP)—George Smith drove in three runs with a homer and double and George Scott belted a three-run homer as the Boston Red Sox whipped Washington 8-2 Saturday behind the six-hit pitching of Jose Santiago.

The victory snapped Boston's losing string at three and ended a four-game winning streak for the Senators.

Santiago did not permit a Washington runner past second base until the ninth in posting his 10th victory against seven losses. The Senators ended his shutout bid in the ninth on three singles and an infield out.

Smith's two-run homer capped a four-run burst in the second inning against Los Angeles pitcher Mike McCormick.

Scott smashed his 20th homer in the fifth after a triple by Don Demeter and a walk.

Like Jerry, I am a former resident of Jacksonville, having attended MacMurray College and graduated from Hardin's Business College. I knew Jerry when we were both involved in Sunday School work at the Brookline Methodist church many years ago. In spite of the fame he has achieved in golf, he is the same nice guy we all knew in Jacksonville.

I am certain that the fruits of Jerry's labors will be shown by some great tournament players arriving on the scene who have been taught by him.

Sincerely, Mrs. Florence McClure.

The column, by nationally syndicated columnist Jim Murray reads:

Jerry Barber is very possibly, the best 5 foot 11 inch golfer who ever lived and one of the best at any altitude. He won the 1961 PGA tournament, which is one of the four summits of golf and a tournament which has eluded dozens of the great names of the game, including Arnold Palmer.

He won the Azalea Open three times and holds the record low score for the Tournament of Champions, 268.

As a teacher, he is fond of saying, "Sam Snead fell out of bed one morning with his swing — but you and I have to work on ours." Jerry has the personal habits of a Kansas parson.

For him, the 19th hole is the practice green. He had a short game so deadly that onlookers would frequently note in a tourney, "Jerry's got him right where he wants him now—he's only 50 yards behind him."

Jerry is 50 years old now and he has begun to put on weight — two whole pounds. He weighs 139. In his prime he never weighed an ounce over 137.

Jerry has had several cushy club jobs—carpet-on-the-floor links where the names on the locker doors read like the first two pages of Dun & Bradstreet. But the trouble with that kind of club job is that they throw you a $50-a-plate dinner when you win the PGA, but, finish out of the money in two consecutive tournaments.

Rickie's kinks his Rolls-Royce in the fender, throws his gold-plated putter into the marble fireplace, and screams, "How come he's never around here when I need him? How m I ever going to cure this shank if he goes traipsing across the country finishing 11th all the time?"

Jerry has finally found his spot. Griffith Park is the largest municipal park in the United States. Its players tee up early because they have to haul a semi over the grape-vine to Bakersfield later in the day, or sweep out the barber shop or hand out towels at the steam bath. "A. Palmer," they're signed "Sears-Roebuck." There are more hickory shafts than there were at Carnoustie in 1905. The course groans under the play of almost 200 foursomes a day. Half the players hit the ball into poison ivy country.

Arne's Army The clubhouse was built by the WPA. Not Frank Lloyd Wright. You lose nine holes to a zoo, a freeway, a softball diamond or a dance hall everytime a politician needs re-election. Over at Elysian Opulence, the membership eagerly watches the Masters, the Open, the PGA, or the Wall Street Four-Ball at Palm Beach. At Griffith, the biggest tournament in the world is going on right now—the National Publix at Brown Deer in Milwaukee. The medalist is a young Norwegian immigrant, Arne Dokka, who learned the difference between a birdie and bogey (and how to avoid it) at Griffith Park. There, when they say Arne's Army, they mean Dokka's, not Palmer's.

Griffith has spawned more national, state and regional championships on its two courses (Wilson and Harding, named after elected Presidents, not dukes and earls) than any comparable park of real estate in the world. Its 700-member men's club, headed by Fred Sutton, works just as hard as if it had a proprietary interest, instead of just a tax payer's.

You are well-advised to play in a helmet on weekends. You'll find some guys playing while roosters are still crowing, others putting out by moonlight, ducking the sprinklers.

But Jerry Barber has found a home and is as happy as he'd be with a one-putt green. The members address him as "Sir," instead of the other way around. And, when he goes off on a senior tournament, they give him luggage, not a dirty look. And any morning you can hear him patiently out on the first tee explaining, "Now, Sam Snead fell out of bed one morning with his swing, but you and I . . ."

The entry deadline for the second annual JOURNAL COURIER Jacksonville City Championship Tennis Tournament is just over one week away, and entries to date have been slow getting in.

Entrants are urged to get their entries in as soon as possible so the playing schedules may be completed in plenty of time. Play in the tourney will start the weekend of Aug. 13-14.

Anyone living in School District 117, Jacksonville or South Jacksonville is eligible for the tournament. There are no age limitations, and divisions are set up to accommodate all ages, men and women.

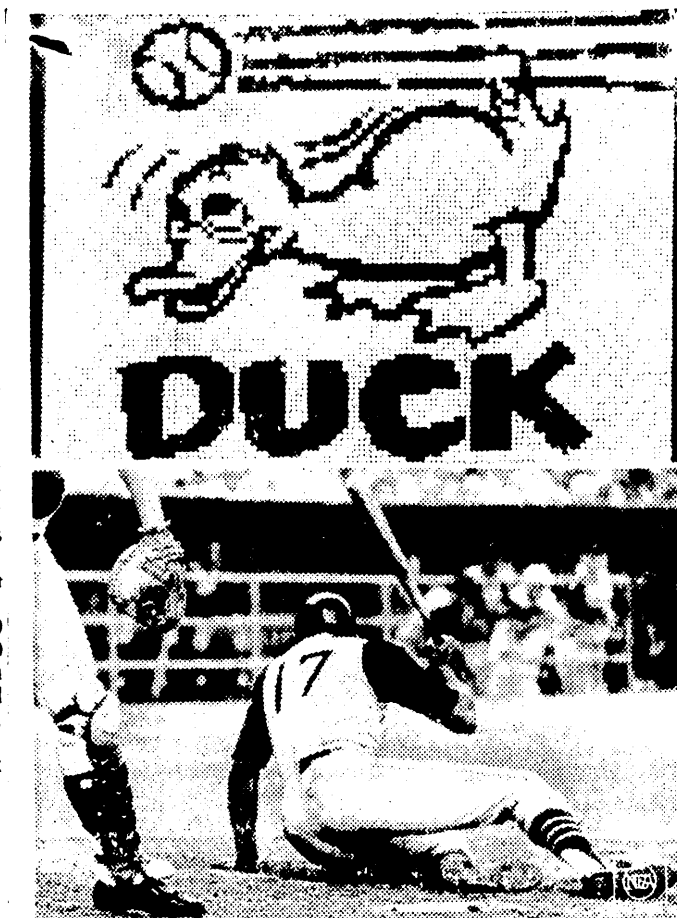

Manny Velasco, JHS tennis coach for the past two years, a regular tournament player over the state, and the defending Senior Men's singles champion, will be tournament manager this year.

In addition to the regular tournament, Velasco plans to invite two professionals to put on an exhibition the weekend of the finals.

Play will continue the next two weekends, strictly on Saturday and Sundays, unless the number of entries forces play on Fridays. It is hoped the tournament will be completed in three weekends.

The divisions are: Men's Singles: 14 and under, Boys'; over 14 and under 18, Junior's; over 18, Gents. There will also be Men's doubles and Mixed Doubles. The Women's classes are: 16 and under, Junior's; over 16, Senior's. There will be no Women's doubles.

An entrant is limited to three divisions. A nominal entry fee of $5.00 for each division entered will be paid at the court prior

FREE ADVICE is in order for Pittsburgh first baseman Donn Clendenon who had to get away from a high, tight one thrown by Houston's Claude Raymond. The Astro-dome scoreboard dispenses the advice.

Jerry Barber Receives Praise From Columnist

Editor's note: The following letter and column were received by the JOURNAL COURIER from a former Jacksonville resident last week:

Gentlemen: Enclosed is an article from the sports section of the Los Angeles Times, which I felt might be of interest to you and other friends of Jerry Barber.

City Power Win 16-5, Lose 12-5 Plays Pair At Riverton

Jacksonville City Power will have a chance to move up in the Little Eight League standings when the local team takes on Springfield City Water, Light and Power in a twinbill this afternoon at Riverton. The game is being played at Riverton because the Springfield diamond was not available.

The heavy-hitting Springfield outfit is currently tied with Riverton for the league lead, both with 6-2 records. Jacksonville is in third spot with a 5-4 record.

Two more doubleheaders remain on the league schedule after today, with Jacksonville having a twinbill with Riverton left.

Rich Coble and George Kording will throw for Jacksonville this afternoon. Coble, 5-4 winner over Florence last week, is 4-2 in the league, and Kording, an 8-0 loser last week, has a 1-2 state.

The game will start at 1:00 instead of 1:30. The team will leave the Drexel at 11:30.

Little Eight Standings

W.	L.	G.B.
Riverton	7	2	1
Springfield	7	2	1
Jacksonville	5	4	2
Taylorville	4	5	3
Decatur	3	6	4
Florence	1	8	5

Today's Schedule

Jacksonville vs Springfield at Riverton (2), 1:00

Taylorville at Florence, 1:30

Riverton at Decatur, 1:30

Oklahoma Still Leads Grid Battle

(AP)—Streak-bolstered Oklahoma, unable to defeat Texas the past eight seasons, still tops the consistent Longhorns for major college football's 25-year championship.

Notre Dame holds down the third spot hotly pursued by Ohio State, Michigan State and Army in a quarter century survey of gridiron achievements.

The Sooners owe their supremacy for the period 1941 through 1965 to the fact they put together a m a z i n g winning streaks of 47 and 31 games. The former is an all-time record for a team against collegiate competition and ran from the third game of 1953 until late '57 when a fourth down gamble carried Notre Dame to a 7-0 triumph.

After losing to Santa Clara in the 1948 opener, the Sooners forged the 31-game chain 13-7 upsets in the 1951 Sugar Bowl game.

Texas has had only two losing seasons in the past quarter century — 4-5-1 in 1954 and 1-9-1 in 1955. It has put together nine straight winning campaigns and in 13 of the last 25 has lost two or less contests during the regular season.

Among teams it has faced more than once, Texas is a loser to only Notre Dame and Southern California, both 0-2.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market last week put on a doleful performance, repeatedly sinking to new lows for the year. Trading was somewhat more active.

Volume totaled 31,590,390 shares compared with 29,390,910 the previous week.

"We're no longer talking about a summer rally," said one analyst as trading for the month of July ended.

The Dow Jones industrial average had taken a thumping loss of 21.77 at 847.38.

The week saw the smashing of a narrow trading range which had existed since May 17 when the Dow industrials sank to their previous 1966 low of 864.14.

Until last week, the average had fluctuated between that low, or slightly above it, to the neighborhood of 900 in the Dow.

Market technicians predicted sooner or later either the "floor" or the "ceiling" of this trading band would be broken and that would determine the next trend.

From the chartist's viewpoint, the present outlook is for another test of a "support" area between 832 and 840 in the Dow industrials — roughly corresponding to the lows of 1965.

Whether the list would hold there was anyone's guess.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks last week sank 7.7

Chicago Livestock Market Report

CHICAGO (AP)—The butcher hog supply of 17,000 head last week was the smallest for a non-holiday week this year and buyers bid prices up in competition for the offerings. They closed strong to 50 cents higher.

The top of $27.50, paid on Tuesday, was the highest since June 1 and compared with a peak of $26.50 for the previous week.

The supply was down 1,000 from a week earlier.

The average price for the week was estimated at $26, highest since the first week of March. It compared with $25.17 the previous week and $24.39 a year ago.

Slaughter steer prices closed mostly steady. The cattle supply at 12 major terminals was down somewhat.

To a new 1966 low of 305.9, it was the worst weekly loss since May 14 when it sank 10.7.

Of 1,560 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 1,170 fell and 273 rose.

The "money squeeze" was cited as one of the biggest factors in the slump. This was underlined Wednesday by the U.S. Treasury's offer to pay 5 1/4 percent interest, highest interest rate in 45 years.

Prices on the bond market generally were unchanged.

The average price of $25.35 for steers was the same as the previous week but down about $1.20 from a year ago.

Prices held steady for spring slaughter lambs.

SEARCH FOR GEN. STILWELL NEARING END

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Debris sighted floating in the Pacific 400 miles southwest of San Francisco was being checked Saturday by the Coast Guard in a final effort of search for the plane in which Brig. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell vanished last Sunday.

The debris was seen Friday from a Coast Guard search plane. The plane, along with the cutter Dexter, was trying to relocate the debris for close-up inspection. The pilot reported it "looked like some kind of wood."

If the debris check is as fruitless, as the search has been since the Stilwell plane vanished, the Coast Guard said it probably would suspend its efforts at dusk Saturday night.

The general, 54, commander of the Army's Special Forces Training Center at Ft. Bragg, N.C., was one of three men aboard the twin-engine DC3 bound for Hawaii. It radioed it was in trouble 525 miles southwest of San Francisco Sunday and that was the last heard of it.

Stilwell, on leave, had gone on the plane ferrying flight with an old friend, the pilot, Hal Grimes, to get navigating experience.

Parts of the Bible have been translated into 1,151 languages, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Personals

Mrs. William Stuart and sons, Mark, Scott, Eric and Craig, of Redlands, Calif., arrived this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blackburn. Mr. Stuart will arrive today. They will also visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stuart.

Mrs. Martha Penton visited from Wednesday until Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Swanson in Peoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sauer and daughter of Springfield are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Urban Sauer.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Knapp of

Falk.

Dozens of residents of this town of 2,000 rushed to the City Hall on hearing the shooting.

Tande, who was serving as prosecuting attorney in the assault case against Falk, was shot first in the arm. He twisted his body and was struck in the side by Falk's next bullet.

Tande staggered from the courtroom while Falk's gun was still blazing, and collapsed on the floor of an adjacent garage.

Pentywood is in extreme northeastern Montana, 16 miles from the Canadian border and 24 miles from the North Dakota state line. Falk, 33, had worked in oil field in the sparsely populated area.

Tande, 46, was one of the best-known lawyers in the area. He was a former county attorney, and filled the jobs of mayor and city attorney while maintaining his law practice.

Justice Denikas has held his job unopposed for years. Fiske is a long-time member of the police department.

Falk had been charged with assault by Robert Engstrom of Reserve, Mont., in connection with a fight in a Pentywood bar last month.

Denikas found him guilty and fined him $50. Then Falk stood up and began firing, witnesses said.

"The town is stunned," said J. S. Polk, editor of the weekly Pentywood Herald. "The people are just standing around stunned."

The flurry of shots was over in a few seconds. Falk's revolver was empty and three shots had been fired by the policeman, Fiske.

2 Killed

Republican Gov. William H. Avery has nominal primary opposition. So does Robert Docking, the prospective Democratic nominee. Docking, an Arkansas city banker, is a son of former Gov. George Docking.

Idaho has a three-way contest for the Democratic nomination for governor involving Cecil Andrus, William J. Dee and Charles Herndon.

The state elects a senator this year but there are no primary contests over the nominations. Ralph Harding, a former House member, will try to unseat Republican Sen. Len B. Jordan in the November election.

Neither of the state's two House members — Democrat Compton I. White Jr. and Republican George V. Hansen — has primary opposition.

A candidate for Hansen's seat, via the Democratic primary, is Army Capt. George Willmore, fresh from flying helicopter missions in Viet Nam. He is opposed in the primary by A.M. (Bill) Brunt, a former state Democratic chairman.

Here is the August political lineup (primaries except where designated as conventions):

Aug. 2—Idaho: Senator, 2 representatives, governor.

—Kansas: Senator, 5 representatives, governor.

—Michigan: Senator, 19 representatives, governor.

—Missouri: 10 representatives.

Aug. 4—Tennessee: Senator, 9 representatives, governor.

Aug. 9—Arkansas: runoff.

Aug. 13—Louisiana: senator, 8 representatives.

Aug. 16—Montana: senator, 2 representatives.

—Wyoming: Senator, 1 representative, governor.

—Virginia: runoff.

Aug. 20—Delaware: Local candidates.

Aug. 23—Alaska: Senator, 1 representative, governor.

Bombers

In action aground, a military spokesman in Saigon said Vietnamese troops on a road clearing operation Saturday found 90 enemy dead along Highway 1 about 39 miles northwest of coastal Qui Nhon. The area, about 275 miles northeast of Saigon, had been hit by U.S. bombers Thursday after 120 to 150 Viet Cong were spotted there.

The spokesman also announced the start of Operation Springfield II by the 3rd Brigade of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division, 45 miles northeast of Saigon. He said the search and destroy operation began Thursday.

Units of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry ended Operation Clay at midnight Saturday, reporting 35 enemy killed and seven captured since their drive began 29 days ago near Tuy Hoa in the central lowlands.

Announce Toll

In other aspects of the war: Briefing officers announced that U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese troops had killed the equivalent of two battalions of North Viet Nam's 324B Infantry Division in Operation Hastings. This is a 15-day operation campaign just south of the demilitarized zone. The list of counted enemy dead rose to 830. Though some Marine units had been mauled, over-all allied casualties were called light.

Soldiers of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division probed a long-time Viet Cong stamping ground in Binh Duong Province, 50 miles north of Saigon, with no immediate contact. They were involved in a large, new sweep and - destroy operation code-named Springfield.

A recent visitor to Hanoi said the Russians were providing North Viet Nam advanced-model MIG21 aircraft to combat American raiders. He would not guess at the number. The war's dogfights so far have resulted in the destruction of 17 of the Communists' fighters, including three MIG21s, against a loss of 5 U.S. planes.

A U.S. spokesman announced the B52 attack was to combat North Vietnamese infiltration, specifically by the 324B Division, via the demilitarized zone. Two bombing incidents in the strip last September were classified officially as accidental, and the B52 raid was described as the first ordered there by American authorities.

Hit Near Border

The spokesman said the eight-engine Stratofortresses from Guam had rained 500-pound and 1,000-pound bombs on enemy installations little more than half a mile south of the border, which splits the zone. He listed an ammunition dump, a weapons storage area, 26 gun positions and extensive fortifications.

"From the amount of fire we received," he said, "the positions evidently were occupied."

Moreover, American field commanders in Operation Hastings were reported to have been authorized by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the U.S. commander in Viet Nam, to fire artillery into the zone if necessary.

Republican Gov. William H. Avery has nominal primary opposition. So does Robert Docking, the prospective Democratic nominee. Docking, an Arkansas city banker, is a son of former Gov. George Docking.

Idaho has a three-way contest for the Democratic nomination for governor involving Cecil Andrus, William J. Dee and Charles Herndon.

The state elects a senator this year but there are no primary contests over the nominations. Ralph Harding, a former House member, will try to unseat Republican Sen. Len B. Jordan in the November election.

Neither of the state's two House members — Democrat Compton I. White Jr. and Republican George V. Hansen — has primary opposition.

A candidate for Hansen's seat, via the Democratic primary, is Army Capt. George Willmore, fresh from flying helicopter missions in Viet Nam. He is opposed in the primary by A.M. (Bill) Brunt, a former state Democratic chairman.

Here is the August political lineup (primaries except where designated as conventions):

Aug. 2—Idaho: Senator, 2 representatives, governor.

—Kansas: Senator, 5 representatives, governor.

—Michigan: Senator, 19 representatives, governor.

—Missouri: 10 representatives.

Aug. 4—Tennessee: Senator, 9 representatives, governor.

Aug. 9—Arkansas: runoff.

Aug. 13—Louisiana: senator, 8 representatives.

Striking

ics, inspectors and crew chiefs will get an extra pay differential of 5 cents an hour on top of the 56-cent hike.

The 5-cent flight-line wage differential was viewed as the most costly fringe benefit in the contract proposal.

All the strikers will get up to $2 a week in added company-paid medical benefits to cover members of their families, virtually wiping out the health-benefit deduction that now comes out of their paycheck.

The union won improved vacations — four weeks after 15 years' service instead of the present 20 years, and three weeks after 8 years instead of the current 10 years.

The details were learned despite the lid of secrecy clamped on by the White House until the strikers vote on the contract.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., who headed a presidential emergency board that recommended a 3.6 per cent increase, said in a statement: "The settlement reached by the parties last night, in my opinion, is somewhat more than 4 per cent, somewhat more than 4 per cent but clearly below 4.4 per cent."

"Any allegation that the wage settlement goes beyond 4.4 per cent is simply contrary to fact," he estimated the cost to the airlines of the settlement at $72 or $73 million.

The union had sharply rejected the presidential board's suggested settlement and Morse then went to Congress for emergency legislation to stop the strike.

While Morse gave no details of his analysis, the union earlier disputed the figures used in the report of the presidential board he headed. The union had protested that the emergency board's analysis of present wages and fringe benefits were falsely inflated by inclusion of Social Security and other taxes not normally considered part of a labor contract.

The outcome of the machinists' vote on the current proposal will be known sometime Sunday.

The contract is retroactive to last Jan. 1, and the 35,000 strikers will get lump-sum back pay averaging $200 per man.

In Michigan, Republican Gov. George Romney is opposed for nomination to a third term. His fall opponent will be Zolton Ferency, state Democratic chairman who has no opposition for his party's gubernatorial nomination.

In addition to Pearson and Ellsworth, there are two other candidates for the Republican Senate nomination in Kansas. They are William D. Tarrant, former mayor of Wichita, and Ava V. Anderson, wife of a Concordia dentist.

Pearson came to the Senate in January of 1962 by appointment and won election the following fall to the remainder of the unexpired term of the late Sen. Andrew F. Schoepel.

Ellsworth is a three-term House member.

England Captures World Soccer Title

LONDON (AP) — Geoff Hurst awarded a goal. The Germans protested so angrily that their manager, Helmut Schoen, dashed out to quiet them.

"All my players agreed that the shot hit the crossbar and bounced down outside the line," Schoen said. "However, England deserved to win."

Hurst raced in alone for the final goal, climaxing the competition which began more than two years ago with more than 30 countries competing to be among the 16 finalists in the last month.

England replaces Brazil, defeated in the qualifying rounds after holding the cup since 1958.

England appeared to have won the match in regulation time after Martin Peters scored four yards for a 2-1 lead in the 78th minute of the 90-minute match. However, Wolfgang Weber sent the match into the first 30-minute overtime in hit on the bar and bounced out.

Referee Gottfried Dienst of Switzerland ruled the ball did not reach the net and pointed to a corner kick. However, three English players surrounded him in protest and persuaded him to allow a Russian linesman Tofik Bakhramov.

Bakhramov ruled the ball had gone in the net and the referee Cup."

U.S. Women Cop Curtis Cup, 13-5

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — The United States Curtis Cup team weathered a gathering storm in the afternoon, the British storm in the afternoon, the singles matches Saturday and British women finally found the won the international women's golfing trophy for a fourth of the Cascades' closing holes straight time by a final score of 13-5.

Continued fine play by Barbara Fay Boddie, Phyllis Tish Preuss, and Carol Sorenson Boddie, Miss Preuss and Mrs. Flenniken, who had a hand in Flenniken — and halved two nine of the points scored in the while losing only one.

The clinching half-point came when Anne Quast Wells claimed a half in the No. 2 singles with Mrs. I. C. Robertson, who had rallied from three down by capturing the 15th, 16th and 18th holes.

Overall Early Favorite To Win Review Futurity

SPRINGFIELD — Overall, one of the leading three-year-old pacers in the nation and winner of the Little Pat Stake here last year, looms as the favorite in the thirty-eighth presentation of the Review Futurity here on Aug. 17.

Spectacular harness racing programs will be offered starting Friday, August 12 and continuing through Thursday, August 18. H. W. (Hube) Elliott, secretary of speed, says the mile track was never faster and estimates that between 400 and 450 horses will make starts.

It was in the Little Pat Stake here that Overall posted his second fastest career mile going in 2:01 4/5ths for driver Johnny Patterson. The colt owned by Helen R. Buck, of Far Hills, N. J. went on to a total of 11 triumphs in 19 starts and earnings of $63,446, second richest for a two-year-old pacer.

Stakes winner in New York this season, Overall has been second in recent outings. At Saratoga, N. Y. he was second to Romeo Hanover with the winning mile in a snappy 1:59 3/5ths and at Goschen he was second to Newport Robbi once in 2:02 and again in 2:03 1/5ths.

Heart stamina and toughness are the words that Patterson uses in describing Overall. He calls him a "game little cuss" and admires his straight way of going with a seemingly effortless gait.

In the Review Overall will oppose such fine three-year-olds as Fashion Tip, Jim Harrison, Song Cyde, Meadow Lenco, Silent Byrd, Try's First, Deluxe Hanover, Goliath, and American Adios.

Fashion Tip recently paced in 2:00 3/5ths over the five-eighths of a mile Sportsman's Park track in Chicago winning for Jim Dennis over Jimmy's Pilot 1965 Illinois Harness Horse of the Year.

Song Cyde won the Great Midwest Pace at Martinsville on July 20 turning in heat clockings of 2:05 2/5ths and 2:01 2/5ths for Billy Shuter.

Meadow Lenco, Silent Byrd and Jim Harrison have been turning in good performances on the Grand Circuit.

There is an advance sale of reserved grandstand tickets available through the Illinois State Fair Ticket Office, P.O. Box 576, Springfield, Ill. Box seats are $1.50 each while center and end seats are $1.00 each.

Bob Greenlee, shot putter from Daytona Beach, will captain Yale's indoor and outdoor track teams next year. He will also captain the Eli football team next fall.

The action came during the Indians' 12-5 victory over the Braves in the Little League World Series Saturday night. The Indians now lead the best of five series, 2-1.

Braves Sweep Pair From San Francisco

ATLANTA (AP) — Gene Oliver, backed up Denny Lemaster's ver slammed three homers Saturday night, driving in seven runs and powering Atlanta to a 15-2 whipping of San Francisco, the Braves' third straight conquest of the Giants.

Atlanta won the afternoon half of the day-night doubleheader 6-5 in the 11th inning when Denis Menke singled home the winning run. The losses dropped the Giants into third place, 1 1/2 games behind National League-leading Pittsburgh.

The twinbill turnout of 75,343 pushed Atlanta's attendance past the million mark to 1,031,526.

Oliver hit a pair of two-run homers off starter and loser Bob Priddy, and the reserve catcher slapped a single and a two-run blast off reliever Ray Sadecki.

Oliver, who now has six homers for the season, became the first Brave to hit three in one game since Hank Aaron did it in 1959.

Woody Woodward drove in four runs with three doubles and a single for Atlanta, which

The John Brodie holdout is a lot more ticklish than it looks on the surface. The San Francisco 49er quarterback was offered $750,000 in a three-year deal with the Houston Oilers before the merger of the two pro leagues. Now he thinks he was used as a pawn in the peace and wants the same three-quarters of a million from the 49ers. And the Oilers are being asked to make up the difference, because the 49ers are in no mood to pay him that kind of money.

George Kell, the former third base star who now broadcasts the Detroit Tigers games, thinks the Baltimore Orioles have the most potent batting order he has seen since he got into organized baseball as a kid. Before the season Manager Hank Bauer said he'd be satisfied if his four big sluggers — the Robinson Boys, Boog Powell and Curt Blefary — hit 100 homers. With the season just a little over half gone, they've almost reached that figure already.

Blaik To Receive Special Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Former army football coach Red Blaik will join a distinguished list in receiving the National Football Foundation's Gold Medal Award at the annual Hall of Fame dinner here Dec. 6.

Previous winners included Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower, Herbert Hoover and John F. Kennedy; General of the Army Douglas MacArthur; Justice Byron Whizzer White; Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg and industrialists Roger Blough of Quaker Oats and Juan Trippe of Pan-American World Airways.

In announcing the award Saturday, Vincent dePaul Draddy, awards committee chairman, also announced that the distinguished American Award would go to a Blaik protege, Capt. William Carpenter, Army's lonely end and a hero of the Viet Nam fighting.

After coaching seven years at Dartmouth, Blaik moved to Army in 1941. His 1944-45 and 1946 teams, sparked by Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis, were rated among the nation's best.

He was elected Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association in 1947, by the Washington Touchdown Club in 1953 and the New York Touchdown Club in 1959. He resigned as West Point coach in 1959 to enter private business.

Brunet Now Finally Has Found Home

By SANDY PADWE

NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.
NEW YORK — (NEA) — One winter, George Brunet found himself working in an oil field, another winter in a coal mine.

"I had some office jobs, too," he said.

Next winter it would be logical for George Brunet to open a travel agency.

Few people know this country as well as George.

Home runs — Atlanta, Oliver (36).

Until last season, which he spent with the Angels, George averaged three team changes annually.

"I've heard all the managers' speeches," he said. "They're all the same. Sorry, but . . ."

Brunet made it to the majors for the first time in 1956 with the Kansas City A's. Since then he's been property of — and played for — the Milwaukee Braves, Houston Astros, Baltimore Orioles and the Angels.

"I've been sent down for some pretty silly things," he said. "A couple of times because they wanted to protect someone who had no options left. I had some, so I went."

"I've always bounced back. But until I came to the Angels, I never really had a chance."

"Going down to the high minors isn't that bad, but the low minors, that's something else."

"I remember a bus ride we took from Hot Springs, Ark., to Greenville, Miss. Ten hours in the middle of the summer in that heat. There were other trips in other leagues where age."

Now, Brunet has become the most consistent starter on the Angel staff (he had 10 wins during the first half of the season).

With Dean Chance, Fred Newman and Marcelino Lopez having sub-par years, the Angels still have managed to stay in the first division, playing better than .500 ball.

Rigney can thank George Brunet and Brunet can thank Rigney.

Rigney took a chance after four major league teams had given up on Brunet.

"I kept saying all along that I could win. I knew I had a strong arm," Brunet said.

But in baseball, few people listen to complaints from transient pitchers.

Luckily Bill Rigney did. And now George Brunet is going for a personal record—the same team, the same city for two straight years.

"It takes some adjustment," he said, smiling, "but I'll manage."

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP) — The Chicago Bears "fat men's club" — 10 still overweight players — was denied a Sunday respite which owner — Coach George Halas gave the rest of the squad Saturday.

After Saturday's drill, Halas permitted the squad liberty until a Sunday evening skull session. But the fat 10 must stay in camp for a Sunday sweating out drill under supervision of Halas.

The overweight players were not identified, but Halas stressed that the $50-per-day fine in effect since July 22 for extra poundage will be upped to $200 per day Monday.

ASSAGAI CAPTURES AQUEDUCT FEATURE

NEW YORK (AP) — Cragwood Stables' Assagai came from off the pace and captured the $59,000 Tidal Handicap Saturday in the final racing day at Aqueduct.

Jockey Larry Adams brought Assagai from fourth place at the head of the stretch to a one-half length victory over Canal in the mile and a furlong event. The time was 1:49.

Assagai paid $10.80, $5.90 and $4.60. Canal paid $5.60 and $4.20. Moonrider, paid $3.80 for show.

The 1967 Doral Open at Miami, Fla., has been scheduled for March 2-5.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Rich Allen hit a two-run homer as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the National League-leading Pittsburgh Pirates 4-1 Saturday night.

Packers Favored To Beat All-Stars

CHICAGO (AP) — The championship Green Bay Packers of the National Football League, which pegged 15-point favorites, meet the last pack of big gold pros in the 33rd annual All-Star football game at Soldier Field Friday night.

The Packers themselves have a heavy investment among the 47 pro football-bound lads, who profited handsomely in the battle of dollars now apparently ended with the merger of the NFL and the American Football League.

The fast and brawny All-Star champs since the Packers were upended 20-17 in 1963, includes two explosive Packer rookies, Donny Anderson of Texas Tech and Jim Grabowski of Illinois.

They reportedly cost Green Bay $575,000 and $325,000, respectively, to sign.

Performing against the Packers also will be such well-heeled rookies as linebacker Frank Emmanuel of Tennessee ($350,000 from the Miami Dolphins) and halfback Mike Garrett of Southern California ($325,000 from the Kansas City Chiefs).

Also there are such $300,000 signees as linebacker Carl McAdams (New York Jets); two Houston Oilers tackles, George Rice of Louisiana State and Glen Hines of Arkansas; and

These include Roy Shivers (200) Utah State; John Roland (207), Missouri; Garrett (195), Southern California's Heisman Trophy winner; Walt Garrison (205), Oklahoma State; and Anderson and Grabowski.

The quarterback assignment, probably uncertain until kickoff time, will go to one of a trio including Steve Sloan of Alabama, Bill Anderson of Tulsa and Gary Lane of Missouri.

The high-salaried Anderson may be the key All-Star against the Packers, whose Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung soon will be under pressure protecting their jobs from Anderson and Grabowski.

We'd leave one city after a night game and get in the next city about an hour before we were supposed to be at the ball park.

"We traveled in those old yellow school buses. You just hoped the guy next to you would get up so you could stretch out."

"Guys actually used to sleep in the aisles, and once I saw a player sleep standing up."

"We got $2.50 meal money. So we'd go into a town, ask the hometown players where the 'good' eating places were and stock up. By 'good' I mean the places that gave you dinner for 95 cents."

"In some of those small southern towns you could get a pretty good meal for that much. They know how to cook down there."

Dennis Ribant scattered nine hits in gaining his seventh victory against four defeats. He retired 12 batters in a row at one stretch and also drove in a run with a grounder in the fourth.

Quiet Birthday
Casey, inducted earlier last week into baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., observed a quiet birthday with his wife, Edna, in their penthouse suite overlooking Central Park.

"I tell people who come up here that this is my plantation," Stengel said, looking out over the mid-Manhattan park.

"I tell them all those people down there work for me." Among his gifts, Casey was proudest of his fancy shorts, made up by the man who designs the scanty costumes for the Playboys Bunnies, and a special baseball bat inscribed with the towns and dates of Casey's career, starting with Kankakee, Ill., in 1910.

"At Kankakee, we used to ride street cars between towns," he recalled.

Stengel reinjured his hip at the All-Star game in St. Louis in because of a pair of new shoes but he can still "manage to walk without a cane."

Closest to Mets
Casey felt no doubt that the Mets also were closest to his affection despite his great success with the rich Yankees.

"Our club is moving now," he commented, referring to the Mets. "We had to start out with a bunch of old players, men who had made their mark with other clubs. Now we've got young men who are making a name for themselves as Mets."

"And the people love them — young people, old people, all kinds of people."

"They fire their manager as soon as he wins a pennant," Stengel said. He himself was eased out of the Yankee organization and he was followed by Yogi Berra, fired after winning the American League pennant.

Quiet Birthday
Casey, inducted earlier last week into baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., observed a quiet birthday with his wife, Edna, in their penthouse suite overlooking Central Park.

"I tell people who come up here that this is my plantation," Stengel said, looking out over the mid-Manhattan park.

"I tell them all those people down there work for me." Among his gifts, Casey was proudest of his fancy shorts, made up by the man who designs the scanty costumes for the Playboys Bunnies, and a special baseball bat inscribed with the towns and dates of Casey's career, starting with Kankakee, Ill., in 1910.

"At Kankakee, we used to ride street cars between towns," he recalled.

Closest to Mets
Casey felt no doubt that the Mets also were closest to his affection despite his great success with the rich Yankees.

"Our club is moving now," he commented, referring to the Mets. "We had to start out with a bunch of old players, men who had made their mark with other clubs. Now we've got young men who are making a name for themselves as Mets."

"And the people love them — young people, old people, all kinds of people."

"They fire their manager as soon as he wins a pennant," Stengel said. He himself was eased out of the Yankee organization and he was followed by Yogi Berra, fired after winning the American League pennant.

Big Hit A...ets
Trip Cubs, 3-3

NEW YORK (AP) — Larry Elliott's two-run single highlighted a three-run rally in the fifth inning that carried the New York Mets past the Chicago Cubs 6-3 Saturday night.

The rally gave the Mets a 6-1 lead, but they needed the runs year for Brunet when he finished 9-11 with the Angels. It sixth on Billy Williams' double wasn't spectacular, but it was and Ron Santo's single and in enough to warrant a good look from manager Bill Rigney this Banks.

Varied Events Spark Interest At Morgan County Fair Opening

With the help of more than 150 men, the Morgan county fairgrounds is ready for the opening of the annual exposition starting Tuesday, August 2. The five-day run will conclude Saturday night.

More than 300 entries have been received in the livestock and domestic arts division.

The grounds were readied last Tuesday and tents were raised into place on Thursday to house exhibits and concessions.

Merchants were busy moving their displays into the exposition buildings on the north side of the grounds Saturday afternoon. Many will be busy today and Monday.

Opening day will feature the judging of domestic arts, dairy and beef cattle. The grand-

Frank Ridder, Morgan Native, Dies In Florida

FRANKLIN — Frank Edward Ridder, 51 year old former Franklin resident, died Thursday at Hialeah, Florida, following an illness of the past year. Mr. Ridder, a veteran of World War Two, moved to Florida twelve years ago.

He was born at Clement Station in Morgan county on Feb. 3, 1915, the son of Stephen and Julia Long Ridder. His father preceded him in death. His mother is a resident of Franklin.

Surviving are the widow, Fern, and four children, Pamela, Frank, Jr., Glenn and Carl, all living in Florida. A sister, Mrs. Ruby Lawrence of Chapin and a brother, Wayne A. Ridder, Billings, Montana, also survive.

Funeral services will be held in Florida and burial will be made Monday in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

Park Menagerie Needs Two Pair To Be Complete

If you haven't viewed the menagerie at Nichols Park recently you're in for a pleasant surprise.

Park Superintendent John McGee ran down the inventory Saturday which totals: two swans, two peacocks, six pheasants, 21 guineas, four turkeys, 20 pigeons, 25 chickens, 70 ducks and 21 geese.

The inventory includes a pair or so of almost every type and description.

McGee said two varieties are missing from his inventory and he would like to make the list complete. First of all, a pair of wood ducks are needed to complete the collection, plus a pair of pigeons. McGee said the pigeons should be "the kind with feathers on their feet."

McGee said he had no idea how much the pigeons and ducks would cost, but he would be happy to pay for a pair of each. At least one friend has promised to pay for the pigeons if they could be found.

Hundreds of Jacksonville area residents, young and old, have enjoyed watching the menagerie this summer. Everything but the pigeons and pheasants run loose throughout the park area. The home for the entire collection is located near the bridge across Morgan Lake in the park.

Motorists are urged to be very careful when driving through the park. Most of the birds are very friendly and used to autos. Their friendly disposition sometimes makes them slow to move for approaching cars, however.

McGee said next year he plans to add a lamb and baby goat for the children to play with, as well as a few rabbits if all goes well.

The trip to Nichols Park is a good lesson in animal husbandry for children of all ages. There is no charge.

Donald Fullerton Gets Promotion At Kordite Plant

Donald Fullerton, assistant plant controller at the Kordite Packaging Department of Mobil Chemical Company, Jacksonville, has recently been promoted to distributions and controls supervisor at the company's foams plant in Frankfort, Illinois.

Donald Fullerton

Don started with Kordite in April, 1959, as an accounting clerk at the company's Macdon, New York office. He progressed to cost analyst at Macdon and in September, 1961, was transferred to Jacksonville as plant accountant. In September, 1962, Don was promoted to assistant plant controller.

In his new position as distributions and controls supervisor, Mr. Fullerton will be responsible for all accounting, production control, customer service, and shipping - receiving functions.

Don, his wife Nancy and two children are currently living at 301 Lincoln Ave. They will be moving to Frankfort September 1.

The accident occurred near Jacksonville and Mrs. Mudd was killed instantly.

Mrs. Mudd, 51, was alone in her car when it collided with an auto driven by 18-year-old Robert DeShleria of Grafton at the intersection of Route 100 and the Newbern road, 10 miles southwest of Jacksonville. Police said the accident occurred at 2:20 p.m., following a heavy rain. Details of the crash were withheld Thursday pending notification of the next of kin.

Mrs. Mudd was taken to Jersey Community hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival. DeShleria, a passenger in his car, Dennis Warner, 16, of rural Jacksonville, were taken to the hospital by ambulance and released after treatment of minor injuries.

State police, who are still investigating the crash, said both cars were in the northbound lane when the accident was discovered. There were no witnesses.

Jersey County Coroner Rodney Jacoby will hold an inquest into the death.

Mrs. Mudd, a former Scottville resident, was born July 18, 1915 at Scottville; daughter of David and Hannah Kemperman Ruyke.

She is survived by a daughter, Shelby J. Mudd of Dow; three sisters, Mrs. Helen Powell of Scottville, Mrs. Lena Arnold of Jerseyville and Mrs. Irene Arnold, San Jose, Calif.; a brother, Alvin of Arlington Heights.

Pallbearers were Randy Kemper, Ronnie Kelley, Steve Anders and George Lindsay Jr.

Burial was in Calvary cemetery near Pittsfield.

Bill Schneider Dies Friday; Funeral Monday

Bill Schneider, 79, of 734 N. East St., passed away at Holy Cross hospital at 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Born in Jacksonville May 12, 1887, he was the son of Michael and Sarah Wilson Schneider. He was married Aug. 9, 1913, to the former Alta Girard, who died May 2, 1942. He was married April 6, 1955 to Clara Margaret Miller, who survives.

Also surviving is a sister, Susan Franz of Springfield and several nieces and nephews.

The following stepchildren survive, Mrs. J. W. Cully and Mary Margaret Vanier, Jacksonville; Thomas Junior Miller, Modesto, California, and James Dennis Miller, Springfield.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Edith Scott and two brothers, Howard and Arthur.

Mr. Schneider, a painter, was a partner in the Schneider-Murphy painters contracting firm for 34 and a half years. He was a member of Central Christian church and Painters and Decorators Local 525 of which he was a lifetime member having joined over 50 years ago.

The body was taken to the Williamson Funeral Home where the family will meet friends 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the funeral home with Rev. Don Zumwalt and Rev. William J. Boston officiating. Interment will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

PERCY SAYS LBJ SUPPRESSING REPORT ON AMMO

HIGHLAND, Ill. (AP) — Charles H. Percy, Republican candidate for U.S. senator, Saturday accused the Johnson administration of suppressing a congressional report, which, he said, admits of ammunition shortages in Viet Nam.

The report, Percy said in a speech prepared for delivery at the Madison County Fair, was written by the preparedness subcommittee of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

He said that while the report has not been made public, government sources have confirmed his findings.

Percy said the findings show that critical shortages have existed in Viet Nam and elsewhere and that "in some cases air missions have actually been cancelled in Viet Nam because of a shortage of bombs."

He called upon the administration to release the report, which, he maintained, contradicts public statements given by Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara.

"This is another example of the administration seeking to conceal the facts from the American people," Percy said.

At International

Local Delegates Report On Toastmistress Clubs

The International convention President and Mrs. Johnson, of Toastmistress Clubs was held in the Pick-Congress Hotel, Chicago, Illinois July 17-20. Entres Nous Club of Jacksonville was represented by Mrs. Gerald Lonergan, delegate, and Geraldine Taylor, alternate.

Due to the airline strike many foreign clubs were not represented. Speeches of the winners in the overseas contest were taped and presented at the convention. The Distance Trophy was won by Dorothy Walkeden of Southern Cross Club, Sydney, Australia.

The theme of the convention was "Communication — Passports to Leadership." The convention was opened by International President Mrs. George Bennett of Olympia Fields, Illinois. Dr. Robert Bruce Pierce of the Chicago Temple offered the invocation, and the Presentation of Flags led by the Chicago Sea Scout Ships, Allen Clark and Flying Dutchman Sea Scouts, followed by flags of all foreign clubs of Toastmistress International.

Mr. Hennessey of Mayor Daley's office welcomed members to Chicago; Lt. Governor Samuel Shapiro gave the welcome to Illinois; Anita Audette, Arctic Club of Anchorage, Alaska gave the Response. Greetings were read from Evelyn Theobald, Phoenix, Arizona and treasurer, Alene Reed, Wichita Falls, Texas.

The 1967 International Convention of Toastmistress will be held in Los Angeles, California.

Newcomers To Have Auction In August

The president, Mrs. Larry Schmaljohn, entertained members of the board of the Newcomers Welcome Wagon club July 18th at her home. There were 11 present.

Following routine opening reports were heard. Mrs. Charles Peters, courtesy chairman, had asked at the June meeting to be relieved of her office. Mrs. Dean Traw was appointed to fill this vacancy.

Mrs. Michael Tyson has resigned and Mrs. Gene Shippee, assistant secretary-treasurer, will move to that office.

Mrs. Leroy Hardwig was nominated and approved by the board, subject to vote by the membership, to fill the office of assistant secretary-treasurer.

The program for the August general meeting will be an auction, to be called by Garland Middendorf. Members are asked to bring any type items to be auctioned.

Hostesses for the August meeting are Mrs. Tom Bogacz, Mrs. Tom Hayes and Mrs. Walter Tappen.

Members are reminded the cost of dinner will be $2.25.

Arizona and treasurer, Alene Reed, Wichita Falls, Texas.

The 1967 International Convention of Toastmistress will be held in Los Angeles, California.

The board, after due consideration, has reserved the MacMurray Cabin for the club's 1967 picnic. By January of each year it is difficult to obtain a suitable date for reservation so the board made such plans well in advance.

A dinner dance was approved for October to be held at the local Elks Club with music provided by an orchestra. The cost will be five dollars per couple. Details will be announced at the August meeting.

The board will meet next on Aug. 15th with Mrs. Dean Traw, 223 East Vandalia Road. Board members will not be called and are reminded to remember this date.

Arnold Couple To Receive At Bluffs Today

BLUFFS—Friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend open house this afternoon, Sunday, July 31st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arnold, in celebration of the couple's silver wedding anniversary. The hours are from three to five o'clock and the couple requests no gifts please. A previous article erroneously gave the open house date as July 24th.

Before returning to Bluffs to make their home, the couple lived in Turkey and at other military bases in the United States. Mr. Arnold is a retired Air Force Captain with a 21 year service record. He is employed by Friesen Brothers.

Ashland Woman At Granddaughter's Moline Wedding

ASHLAND — A double ring ceremony held Saturday evening July 16th, at the Moline Gospel Temple in Moline, united in holy matrimony Miss Rita Diane Landreth and John Arthur Amundsen.

Rev. Charles Hollis of the Moline Gospel Temple officiated assisted by Rev. Floyd Fruit-ager of the Aurora Foursquare Gospel church, uncle of the bride.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Landreth, of Muscatine, Iowa and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Amundsen, of Moline, Illinois.

Mrs. Amundsen is a graduate of Rock Island High School and Moline Public Hospital School of Nursing. She is a pediatric staff nurse. Mr. Amundsen is a graduate of Moline High and attended Blackhawk College. He is a fourth year machinist apprentice at Moline Tool Co.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Irene Irvin of Ashland. Mrs. Irvin attended the wedding.

A reception for 300 guests was held in the hospitality room of the church following the ceremony.

The couple left on a wedding trip north, after their return, they will reside in Moline.

Whittaker-Gully

PITTSFIELD — An afternoon ceremony Sunday, July seventeenth, at the Calvary Baptist church, united in marriage Miss Sharon Kay Gully and Dennis N. Whittaker. The Reverend Frank Claybourn officiated at the double ring service.

The bride is the daughter of W. M. Gully of Hannibal, Missouri and Mrs. Doris Wiser, Springfield. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Whittaker of Pittsfield.

Miss Helen Apps was soloist and Mrs. Noble Harrison the accompanist. Baskets of white gladioli and Majestic daisies adorned the altar of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and organza over taffeta. A forward headpiece of illusion leaves with pearls and sequins held her bouffant veil of English illusion. She carried a cascade of mums centering a white orchid.

Miss Vickie Graham was maid of honor, and Miss Carol Baughman and Miss Janice Hammitt the bridesmaids. The attendants were gowned alike in satin floor length gowns. The honor attendant was in yellow and the bridesmaids in mint green with corresponding head-dresses. Each carried a colonial bouquet of gladioli, stock and roses.

JoAnn Gully, sister of the bride, was flower girl and carried a 'pig-tale' bouquet of carnations and daisies. Wade Furlong, cousin of the groom, was the ringbearer.

Candles at the altar were lighted by Norman Shaw and Craig Robb.

Steve Claus attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Paul Ransom and Bing Lowe.

The mother of the bride wore navy with white accessories and the groom's mother was also in navy with navy and white accessories. White carnation corsages were worn by both mothers.

At the reception held at the Community Center Carol Wise, Bette Edmonston, Barbara Butler and Sue Bergman assisted.

The couple is residing at Detroit, Michigan, as the groom is stationed in nearby Selfridge A.F. Base. Both graduated from Pittsfield High School, the bride this year and the groom in 1965.

Worley-Plattner

Miss Beverly J. Plattner of Ashland and Harold E. Worley of Cincinnati, Ohio, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, July sixteenth, at the Ashland Methodist church. The Reverend Kenneth Goodell performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of the Maurice B. Plattners of Ashland.

Miss Janice Thornley was the soloist and Mrs. Ron Plattner was at the organ. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory organza over taffeta with imported French Alencon lace appliqued with pearl adornment. The A line skirt fell in train. A roll petal headdress held her veil of illusion and she carried a cascade of white roses centering a white orchid.

Mrs. John Cosner, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Joyce Steigerwald of Northbrook was bridesmaid and Mrs. Ollie Cinnamon of Burlington, Iowa, was the bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in floor length blue and turquoise linen. Puff veiled bow head-dresses completed their costumes and each carried a cascade of white daisies.

Elmer Braden, Cincinnati was the best man. John Cosner and Ron Plattner, Ashland were the groomsmen. Randy Thornley of Ashland and Bill Campbell of Cincinnati were the ushers.

Sonya Anders and Angel Cosner, nieces of the bride, were flower-girls. Jeff Cosner, nephew of the bride, lighted candles at the altar.

A reception was held at Washington Park Pavilion in Springfield.

Nicholas Arger and Mrs. Eldon Knallakan, all of Jerseyville; Mrs. Gene Barnett of Roodhouse-White Hall Junior club and Mrs. Gordon May. The picture was taken at the Junior Club Banquet in the hotel ballroom where entertainers Jane Wyatt and Troy Donahough were on the program.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The surge of St. Louis Cardinals made it their last 13 games, moving within six games of the National League lead by beating the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-1 Saturday night behind the six-hit pitching of Al Jackson.

Casper Rallies, Shares Golf Lead

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—National Open Championship, Casper scored two birdies and an eagle on the last three holes for a 68 Saturday to share the third-round lead of the $92,000 Speedway Golf Festival with R. H. Sikes.

Sikes also had a four-under-par 68 after taking a bogey 6 on the final hole when he wandered into the trees and three-putted. Casper coupled 35-33 for his 68 over the 36-72 course. It is such a new layout that winter rules, improving the lie on the fairway, are being enforced.

The conditions were not too conducive for great shotmaking and there was a dropout of 14 players the most for a PGA sponsored event this year.

Casper said that the greens were so hard that it was difficult to try to reach them?

Bookies Tab Clay As 10-1 Favorite To Beat London

LONDON (AP)—Cassius Clay takes on Britain's Brian London next Saturday in a world heavyweight title fight, which the bookies virtually have written off as a one-man fight.

Clay, fighting his second British heavyweight within three months, is the 1-10 favorite. That means you must bet $10 to win one. London, a tough 32-year-old veteran, is 5-1.

Clay, criticized for his draft board difficulties and black Muslim affiliations in the United States, picked up a guaranteed $280,000 plus ancillary TV rights for his London title defense May 21 against Henry Cooper, British champion.

The champion stopped Cooper with a badly cut eye in the sixth round.

For his defense against London, Clay is reportedly getting a guaranteed $252,000 along with TV percentages.

London is expected to get about $112,000 from the fight in Earl's Court Stadium, where Billy Graham held his recent London Crusade.

The fight will be carried live on home television to the United States via the Early Bird Satellite starting at 5 p. m. EDT, and negotiations are going on for it to be piped into Europe over the Eurovision network.

There's no doubt about it—I'm the world's most publicized human being," Clay told newsmen.

Clay says he remembers London fighting "when I was a little boy."

This was at Indianapolis in May 1959, when Floyd Patterson knocked London out in the 11th round of their title fight.

Clay's last fight was a 10-round draw with Muhammad Ali in 1964.

Lou Brock's bat and Jackson's arm carried the Cardinals to victory before a sellout crowd of 47,770, the largest regular season crowd in St. Louis history.

Brock singled in the first inning and scored on Tim McCarver's triple. Orlando Cepeda's sacrifice fly then gave the Cardinals a 2-1 lead.

Brock homered in the fifth off Don Sutton, the Dodger starting pitcher.

In the first inning, the Dodgers' Willie Davis singled, moved up on a wild pitch and a fly ball and scored on Dick Stuart's single.

Jackson upped his season record to 11-8.

Defending champion Bruce Crampton of Australia and three other pros were disqualified in the big dropout.

Johnson Powers Reds To 5-1 Win Over Houston

CINCINNATI (AP)—Deron Johnson cracked a three-run homer and Vada Pinson a two-run shot behind Sammy Ellis' six-hit pitching as the Cincinnati Reds trimmed Houston 5-1 Saturday for their fifth straight victory.

The victory was the 10th for the Reds in their last 12 games and the loss was the seventh in a row for the Astros.

Ellis, bringing up his record to 7-14, lost his bid for a shutout in the fifth, when Jim Wynn drew a walk with two out, reached second on a wild pitch and scored on Sonny Jackson's single.

Tommy Harper led off the Red's fourth with a single and Pinson drove a Mike Cuellar pitch over the center field fence for his ninth homer.

Johnson connected off reliever Claude Raymond in the eighth following singles by Pete Rose and Tommy Helms. It was his 13th homer.

LIKE A CHARM WINS SORORITY STAKES

OCEANPORT, N.J. (AP)—Like a Charm came from behind in the stretch and won the $607,415 Sorority Stakes for 2-year-old fillies at Monmouth Park Saturday but had to survive a foul claim before earning $64,449.

Like a Charm bumped Just Kidding midway in the home stretch as she barged to the front and went on to score by four lengths in 1:12 3-5.

Just Kidding, recovering quickly from the slight collision, was second 1 1/4 lengths in front of Millard Wanderer who was in the odds-on favorite and unbeaten in three previous starts.

Just Kidding returned $8.50 and $3 while Rhubarb paid $2.40 to show.

Chicago added two unearned runs off reliever Jim Bouton in the fifth.

SOX PUT MARTIN ON DISABLED LIST

CHICAGO (AP)—X-rays revealed Saturday that J. C. Martin, Chicago White Sox catcher, suffered a fractured left thumb in a play at the plate Friday night. He was placed on the disabled list. Martin's spot on the White Sox roster will be taken by Jim Hicks, Indianapolis outfielder who is hitting .277 with 60 runs batted in and 15 home runs. Martin hit .266 in 59 games.

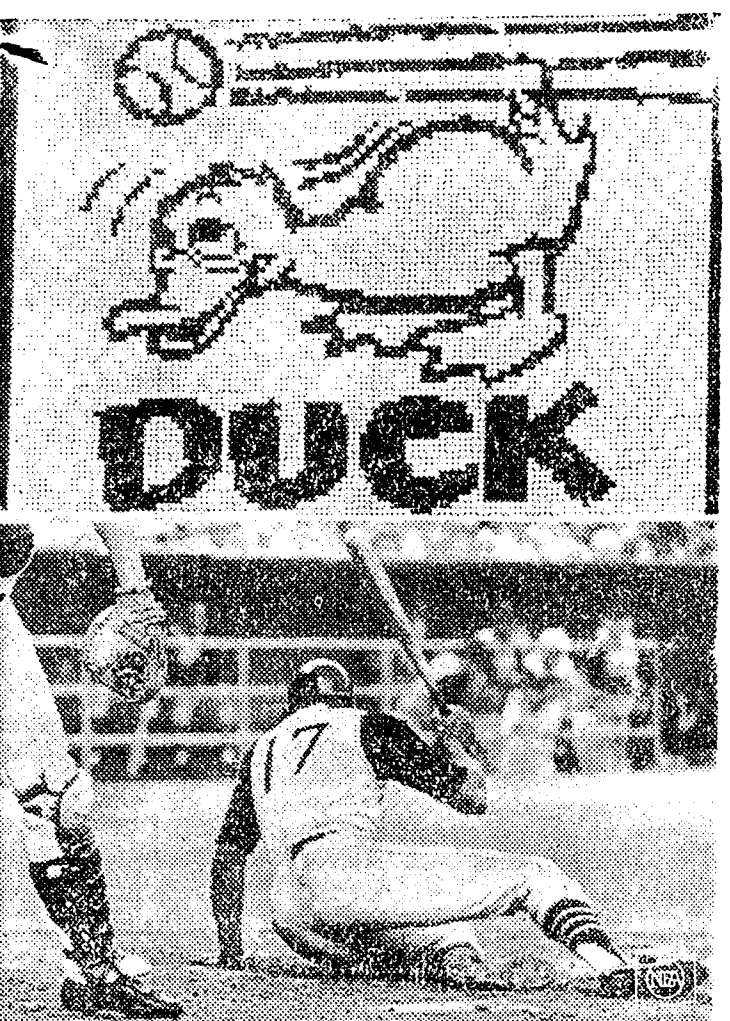

Martin was injured when he tagged New York's Hoare Clarke at the plate to complete a double play in the fifth inning of a game won by the Yankees 2-1. Surgery will be required, and it is estimated that he will be out for three to four weeks.

Over at Elysian Opulence, the membership eagerly watches the Masters, the Open, the PGA, or the Wall Street Four-Ball at Palm Beach. At Griffith, the biggest tournament in the world is going on right now—the National Publix at Brown Deer in Milwaukee. The medalist is a young Norwegian immigrant, Arne Dokka, who learned the difference between a birdie and bogey (and how to avoid it) at Griffith Park. There, when they say Arne's Army, they mean Dokka's, not Palmer's.

Griffith has spawned more national, state and regional champions on its two courses (Wilson and Harding, named after elected Presidents, not dukes and earls) than any comparable hunk of real estate in the world. Its 700-member men's club, headed by Fred Sutton, works just as hard as if it had a proprietary interest, instead of just a tax payer's.

You are well-advised to play in a helmet on weekends. You'll find some guys playing while roosters are still crowing, others putting out by moonlight, ducking the sprinklers.

But Jerry Barber has found a home and is as happy as he'd be with a one-putt green. The members address him as "Sir," instead of the other way around. And, when he goes off on a senior tournament, they give him luggage, not a dirty look. And any morning you can hear him patiently out on the first tee explaining, "Now, Sam Snead fell out of bed one morning with his swing, but you and I . . ."

Deadlines For Tennis Meet Week Away

The entry deadline for the second annual JOURNAL COURIER Jacksonville City Championship Tennis Tournament is just over one week away, and entries to date have been slow getting in.

Entrants are urged to get their entries in as soon as possible so the playing schedules may be completed in plenty of time. Play in the tournament will start the weekend of Aug. 13-14.

Anyone living in School District 117, Jacksonville or South Jacksonville is eligible for the tournament. There are no age limitations, and divisions are set up to accommodate all ages, men and women.

Manny Velasco, JHS tennis coach for the past two years, a regular tournament player over the state, and the defending Senior Men's singles champion, will be tournament manager this year.

In addition to the regular tournament, Velasco plans to invite two professionals to put on an exhibition the weekend of the finals.

Play will continue the next two weekends, strictly on Saturday and Sundays, unless the number of entries forces play on Fridays. It is hoped the tournament will be completed in three weekends.

The divisions are: Men's Singles: 14 and under, Boy's; over 14 and under 18, Junior's; over 18, Gents. There will also be Men's doubles and Mixed Doubles. The Women's classes are: 16 and under, Junior's; over 16, Senior's. There will be no Women's doubles.

An entrant is limited to three divisions. A nominal entry fee of $5.00 for each division entered will be paid at the court prior to playing.

The remainder of the expenses, including balls and trophies for winners, runners-up and consolation bracket winners, will be handled by the sponsor.

Entry blanks for the tournament run each day on the sports page of the JOURNAL COURIER.

City Power Plays Pair At Riverton

Jacksonville City Power will have a chance to move up in the Little Eight League standings when the local team takes on Springfield City Water, Light and Power in a twinbill this afternoon at Riverton. The game is being played at Riverton because the Springfield diamond was not available.

The heavy-hitting Springfield outfit is currently tied with Riverton for the league lead, both with 6-2 records. Jacksonville is in third spot with a 5-4 record.

Two more doubleheaders remain on the league schedule after today, with Jacksonville having a twinbill with Riverton left.

Pony Stars Split In Meet, Ousted

By BUFORD GREEN

SPRINGFIELD — The Jacksonville Pony League All-Star team blasted out a 16-5 victory over Dixon, but dropped a 12-5 contest to the Springfield Merchants league in the nightcap, and was eliminated from the District Tournament, here Saturday.

After pounding out 17 hits in the afternoon victory over Dixon, the locals were held to three safeties in the nightcap and dropped their second game to Springfield in the double elimination affair.

Three Jacksonville pitchers gave up 14 free passes in the first game but only two hits. Ed Tighe, Paul Mosley, Chuck Dinkel and Steve Western all collected three safeties in the contest, and scored a total of nine runs between them.

Dinkel drove in four runs, two with a first-inning round-tripper, Western four and Mosley and Tighe three each. The locals scored at least once in each frame, including a five-run third.

The eventual losers in the nightcap grabbed a 1-0 lead in the second on an error, two walks and a second boot, but failed twice to score over one run after loading the sacks with no outs. A second run came in the third when Jim Ware reached on a boot and Paul Mosley blasted a double.

Springfield exploded in the disastrous third, as the winners reached Steve Western for six hits and batted 11 men.

After Springfield ran the margin to 12-2, Jacksonville made it more respectable with a three-run rally with two out in the seventh, aided by two errors.

Win 16-5, Lose 12-5

Pony Stars Split In Meet, Ousted

By BUFORD GREEN

SPRINGFIELD — The Jacksonville Pony League All-Star team blasted out a 16-5 victory over Dixon, but dropped a 12-5 contest to the Springfield Merchants league in the nightcap, and was eliminated from the District Tournament, here Saturday.

After pounding out 17 hits in the afternoon victory over Dixon, the locals were held to three safeties in the nightcap and dropped their second game to Springfield in the double elimination affair.

Three Jacksonville pitchers gave up 14 free passes in the first game but only two hits. Ed Tighe, Paul Mosley, Chuck Dinkel and Steve Western all collected three safeties in the contest, and scored a total of nine runs between them.

Dinkel drove in four runs, two with a first-inning round-tripper, Western four and Mosley and Tighe three each. The locals scored at least once in each frame, including a five-run third.

The eventual losers in the nightcap grabbed a 1-0 lead in the second on an error, two walks and a second boot, but failed twice to score over one run after loading the sacks with no outs. A second run came in the third when Jim Ware reached on a boot and Paul Mosley blasted a double.

Springfield exploded in the disastrous third, as the winners reached Steve Western for six hits and batted 11 men.

After Springfield ran the margin to 12-2, Jacksonville made it more respectable with a three-run rally with two out in the seventh, aided by two errors.

Simplicity Not For Us

Whatever our shortcomings, there is one thing any fair-minded person has to concede to us Americans:

We won't do anything simply.

Picking our income tax return as a random example, we manage to live our daily lives in a perpetual state of complexity and confusion.

Take sports and recreation. You think baseball and football are simple games? Try to explain one to a visitor from overseas who has never seen one!

Read about some piece—any piece—of legislation introduced in Congress, a state legislature, or even your local city council. Or a court decision.

Do you dig this stuff at first glance? You bet you don't. You have to study it as you wish you had studied your lessons when you were in school.

And the current war on poverty. You think poverty is something that is clutterproof? Hah! The whole project is now slowed down by the knotty question of just what is "poor" and who is successful enough to qualify as poverty-stricken.

We seem to have developed a mental block which makes it impossible for us to write, introduce, pass or sign a law, contract, agreement, pact, truce, lease, form or even a weather forecast without sticking in enough "howevers" and "excepts" to throw the average victim who has to try to decipher it.

Surely it ought to be possible now and then to whop up something—however trivial and nonvital—in language so clear and simple even a grown man or woman could understand it.

Such as: "It is illegal to park your car in the middle of a freeway."

Now there is something anyone can understand. Except, of course, when . . .

Boost For Libraries

What with foreign aid and civil rights and other great legislative concerns comparatively little note has been taken of a less dramatic yet quite important bill passed by Congress and signed into law by the President. This is the legislation to continue upgrading of the nation's library services through federal support.

A good start had previously been made. Now Congress has authorized the expenditure of 700 million dollars over the next five years for library construction and improvement of facilities and services.

The biggest chunk of this money, 300 millions, will be expended on grants to states for library construction, including provision of more space and replacement of outmoded buildings. Two hundred seventy-five million will go to beef up library services, and another 75 million will be spent on further extension of services to the physically handicapped and those in a variety of institutions including hospitals, orphanages and prisons.

One of the most significant expenditures will be the 50 million dollars allocated to foster greater cooperation among libraries. This end also will be furthered by creation of a presidential National Library Commission to recommend means of providing a better and more coordinated library system. The importance of this is heightened by recent developments which facilitate exchange of materials. The time will come when, through electronic means, the resources of the great libraries will in large measure be available to citizens in all parts of the country.

This, at any rate, is the dream. It is a dream that is being brought closer to realization by the new library aid bill.

Dear Ann:

Score Evened Up

By ANN LANDERS
Dear Ann Landers: Boy-oh-boy, did I ever see glimpses of myself in your column a few weeks ago!! I turned the clock back about 40 years, but there I was—just like the homey little girl whose father carried a picture in his wallet of a beautiful older sister. Her picture was left in the bureau drawer.

I'm 55 years old, but some of those memories still hurt. My older sister was the star and I was nothing. She got all the praise and I got all the criticism. When "The Beauty" graduated from the 8th grade, the whole family was there. When I graduated from the 8th grade nobody showed up.

Life plays funny tricks. When it came time for marriage, my sister made a very poor selection. My marriage was one of the best.

To this day mother resents the fact that I have a wonderful husband, a lovely home, fine children, and a good life. My sister's looks are gone, her husband isn't much good and her life is empty. Mother says I was lucky. I say somebody up there decided to even the score. —ORLANDO theory best.

Dear Orlando: I like your

Dear Ann Landers: Our son Jed is 19, a college sophomore and he is enrolled for summer courses. The college is about 100 miles from here. He comes home weekends. Jed has been dating a high school girl who lives in the college town.

The girl has a car. She drives Jed home almost every weekend and moves right into our guest room. We hear them roaming around all hours of the night, which I think is bad for the younger children.

Our family is taking a trip in August and Jed wants to include the girl. I am against it. What kind of parents must she have, anyway? —R. R.

Dear R. R.: The girl's parents must have rocks in their heads, but you've got a few boulders, too, lady. Obviously you can't police your son when he's away at school—and you shouldn't try, but permitting the girl to move in for weekends offers unspoken approval of this much-too-chummy relationship. Say "No" to the vacation deal.

Dear Ann Landers: My problem is my parents. I am a 15-year-old girl. They make me kiss them good night every night. Then my mom blesses me and says something in her native tongue.

After that she makes me tell her that I love her. I think this is stupid. Besides I am too old for that junk. I have asked mom why she does this and she says it is good for people to tell each other they love one another. It doesn't really make me feel closer to her. In fact it makes me dislike her.

What is your opinion of all this garbage? —ANTI-MUSH-ER

Dear Anti: I feel sorry for your mother. She must be desperately unfulfilled. Maybe you think a good night kiss and being blessed by your mother is "garbage," but one day you will wish you could turn the clock back and do a few things differently. But it will be too late.

Confidential to Reddy Freddy: I hope you are "reddy" for plenty of trouble. This girl is underage no matter what state you live in. Her father can throw the book at you—and I hope he does.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Washington Topflight Men Give China Great Nuclear Potential

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Communist China's nuclear development is no fluke.

Her economic flubbing and her propagandistic educational methods had led to a discounting of Peking's technical potential.

But new detailed studies here by the National Science Foundation show that Peking has a stronger — than — expected scientific base. The top layer may be thin but it's technically of high quality.

Though the Communist regime has prostituted many of the universities in Red China, that country has a fistful of top-flight scientists trained in first-rate universities in the United States, western Europe and Japan.

The most outstanding nuclear physicist in China, Chien Sheng-ling, director of the Institute of Atomic Energy, received his Ph.D. in physics from the University of Paris.

Almost equal in prominence are Wang Kan-chang and Chao Chung-yao.

Wang earned his Ph.D. in physics at the University of Berlin. He was later a research associate at the University of California.

Chao received his Ph.D. from the California Institute of Technology. Institute of Atomic Energy deputy director Peng Huang-wu, in charge of Red China's theoretical research in atomic nuclei and fundamental particles, holds a Ph.D. from Edinburgh University.

Institute deputy director Chang Chia-hua was awarded his doctorate by Washington University.

The chief of the Institute of Atomic Energy's cosmic ray laboratory received his Ph.D. at Cambridge.

Communist China's rocket development is headed by Chien Hsueh-shen. He's regarded as one of the world's outstanding aeronautical and jet-propulsion engineers. He has a master's degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and a Ph.D. in aeronautical engineering from the California Institute of Technology. He was later a professor of aeronautics at MIT. As a consultant to the U.S. Navy he went to Germany after World War II "to investigate rocket development."

Two other leading men connected with Red China's rocket work are Kuo Yung-huai and Shen Yuan.

Kuo, deputy director of Red China's Institute of Mechanics, has a Cal Tech Ph.D.

Shen, chairman of the board of directors of the Communist China Aeronautical Engineering Society, has a Ph.D. from London University.

Forty-eight per cent of the board members and members of the standing committees of the Departments of Natural and Technical Sciences of the Chinese Academy of Sciences in 1962 were trained in the United States. Twenty-eight per cent were trained in western Europe.

This is not to say Communist China does not have some very serious technical problems for the future. Her top layer of scientists is thin. It will be years before the junior scientists develop to the first rank.

Despite major gaps in training and some serious educational bumbling, it would be unwise to underestimate what this top layer of scientists can accomplish.

Pat Brown Is Welcoming Backing From Any Quarter

By WASHINGTON STAFF
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
WASHINGTON (NEA) — On the opening day of the Governors Conference in Los Angeles, six governors — John Connally, Texas; Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, California; Otto Kerner, Illinois; John Love, Colorado; John Reed, Maine, and William Scranton, Pennsylvania, appeared on a nationally televised news show.

As is customary, each governor was given a voice level test before air time. Reed, a Republican, was the first to be tested and he blurted:

"I'm sitting behind Pat Brown, the great governor of California."

Brown, facing a tough fall election against Republican Ronald Reagan, quickly barked: "May I quote you?"

There was plenty of entertainment at the Conference, including a preview showing of the movie, "How to Steal a Million."

Noting this item on the day's program, one governor asked: "What is it? A panel discussion?"

Arizona Gov. Samuel Goldwater speculated that it might be a training film for the governors.

Toward the end of the final session, all those governors who were retiring for various reasons this year made their swan song speeches at the Governors Conference podium.

In turn, each stepped to the microphone and briefly mentioned how pleasant it had been working with such a distinguished group for the last two, four or eight years.

Just as the session appeared to be over, the familiar voice of Alabama Gov. George Wallace came booming out:

"I forgot that I wasn't going to be back next year."

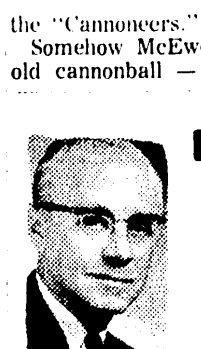

This brought the house down. Wallace, a barred by state law from succeeding himself, is masterminding his wife, Lurleen's campaign to take his place. She is an overwhelming favorite to win. So Wallace added:

"But I will be back next year. I'll be in charge of highway beautification programs in Alabama."

Congressmen sometimes ask for trouble. Take the case of Rep. Robert McEwen, R-N.Y., who recently got a request for a cannonball.

It came from Jefferson Community College in Watertown. The college's athletic nickname is the "Cannoners."

Somewhat McEwen located an old cannonball — a relic from the Civil War — and sent it on. Now the college has asked him old cannonball — a relic from for a cannon.

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

"Where is their conscience?" That question is asked dozens of times each week as citizens write letters to the editor, or neighbors decry an incident.

"Where is the conscience of the person who hit my dog and didn't stop?"

"Where is the conscience of the young people who tore up the park?"

These are understandable questions. They concern the situations which people can see, feel and understand.

There are more puzzling dilemmas. A man fights bravely in Viet Nam, not because he wants to do so, but because he has a conscience about the matter. Thus, as a matter of principle, he gives himself to a cause.

By a similar motivating principle, another man protests the draft, states his opposition to the conflict and goes to jail, not because he wants to do so, but because he has a conscience about the matter. As a matter of principle, he gives himself a cause.

Conscience is not something automatic. It doesn't just happen. It isn't a built-in buzzer, shouting angrily if you go faster than a preset speed.

George Harris once wrote, "A conscience is not a gadget built for comfort, but an internal time bomb. It ticks away the hours, ready at a decisive moment to blow your life apart by turning you against your self-interest or setting you apart from your neighbors."

He told of the story of Jack Shea, an officer of a firm in Dallas who protested the attitudes he found in his fellow-citizens in the days before the assassination of President Kennedy.

As a result of writing about this, he lost his position the U.S. Senate, "Lord, help us and many of his friends. Yet he insisted that had he not done so, he would have canceled his right and responsibility as a — as a matter of conscience.

Fine Set Of Judges Ready For The Fair

Clyde York, general superintendent of the agricultural departments of this week's Morgan County Junior Fair, and the superintendents of the departments have again arranged an excellent panel of judges to place the ribbons and the premiums.

Jerry Taylor of Prairie City will be on hand at 8 a.m. Tuesday when the beef cattle show gets underway. Taylor is a McDonough county farmer and Scotch Shorthorn breeder.

At the same hour G.W. Harpe, state judge of the dairy cattle, is a University of Illinois Extension dairy specialist.

At 9:30 a.m. Stanley Klaus, the old reliable agricultural products, garden, rabbit and poultry judge, will begin his usual two-day chore. He is the vocational agriculture instructor at Carlinville high school and has judged these departments nearly every year since the junior fair was begun.

Barrows entered in the carcass class will be judged at 8 p.m. Tuesday by buyers and type specialists from the Hunter Packing Co., St. Louis. This company was an early pioneer in advocating the development of a butcher hog carrying more lean meat and less fat. Today it is one of the few firms that truly pays a premium for "meat-type" hogs.

At 8 a.m. Wednesday Richard Sims of Macomb will begin judging the sheep by picking out the best fat lambs. Sims is the regional Extension livestock specialist.

Swine judging will begin at 8 a.m. Thursday and Marvin Beechner, well known Duroc breeder from Farmersville, Montgomery county, will have plenty of work ahead of him from then until noon Friday.

Nearly all of the departments have the same superintendents and assistants as last year and they will help the youngsters and judges move the show along with dispatch.

Illinois Farm OUTLOOK

CATTLE ON FEED UP 11 PERCENT

Cattlemen are increasing their output of the nation's favorite food — beef. Prospective supplies are considerably larger than those of last year, judging from the USDA Report of Cattle on Feed July 1.

According to this report, farmers on July 1 were fattening 8,347,000 cattle and calves for market, 11 percent more than one year before. Of this number, they expected to market 4,664,000 head during this quarter (July, August and September), or 11 percent more than a year ago.

Kinds and Time on Feed. Of these cattle, 69 percent were steers and 31 percent heifers. Steers numbered 5,769,000 head, 10 percent more than a year earlier. Heifers numbered 2,548,000 head, up 15 percent.

Cattle on feed more than six months totaled 1,909,000 head, up 4 percent from a year earlier. Those on feed three to six months totaled 2,963,000 head, up 23 percent. And the number on feed less than three months totaled 3,475,000 head, up 6 percent.

Weights of Cattle on Feed. The number of cattle over 1,100 pounds was estimated at 346,000 head, up 9 percent from 1965. The number weighing 900 to 1,100 pounds was 2,018,000 head, up 15 percent. Those weighing 700 to 900 pounds totaled 3,685,000 head, up 7 percent. The 500 to 700-pound group numbered 1,971,000 head, up 15 percent.

And calves weighing less than 500 pounds totaled 327,000 head, 17 percent more than last year. Price Prospects. If marketings of fed cattle exceed last year's levels by up to 10 percent, what can be expected for prices? With more pork and poultry as well as more beef, prices for cattle may average lower than last year. Last year's prices of Choice steers at Chicago held close to $27.00 from May through February, climbed above $29.00 in March, and then began to decline in April. Recent quotations were around $25.50, $1.50 lower than last year.

The demand for beef seems to increase about 3 percent a year. That is, we can sell about 3 percent more beef without any price reduction. But if there is 6 to 8 percent more beef to sell, prices may have to be trimmed by something like 10 percent — $2.00 to $3.00 a hundred pounds from the $27.00 level maintained in the last half of 1965.

Increasing supplies of pork and poultry will tend to depress beef and cattle prices. Pork output always increases during the last half of the year. Supplies in prospect for the next five months appear to be at least 5 percent larger than last year.

Supplies of broilers shrink a little during the last half of the year, but they promise to run about 8 percent larger than in 1965. Turkey production is up close to 10 percent this year. The larger supply of turkeys will make strong competition for beef, especially during the holiday season.

Drouth. Large areas of the nation have been suffering from drouth. The resulting shortage of winter feed may force some extra cattle to market.

FFA STAR FARMER AWARD URBANA, Ill. (AP) — Gary Organ, 20, of McLeansboro was named Friday star farmer of the 13-state central region, Future Farmers of America.

He will compete with three regional winners from other parts of the country for star farmer of the United States at the FFA national convention in Kansas City, Mo. Oct. 13.

1965 Corn Loans Being Paid Off At Rapid Rate

Corn from the 1965 crop placed under price support loan in Morgan county totaled 217,176 bushels through June, Lester E. Roman, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County committee, reports.

This compares with the 214,857 bushels from the 1964 crop put under loan as of the same date a year ago.

Producers of corn and soybeans had until June 30 to make application for price support loans for which the maturity date will be July 31, 1967.

The chairman said that loans had been repaid on 103,946 bushels of the 1965 crop put under loan, leaving 114,130 bushels still under loan.

State-wide 29.5 million bushels of 1965 crop were placed under loan by Illinois farmers through June, compared with 26.6 of the 1964 crop placed under loan through the same period a year ago. Only 16.1 million bushels of the 1965 crop remain under loan, the balance having been redeemed by producers.

Nationally, 1965 crop corn placed under price support loan through June totaled 213 million bushels, compared with 214 million bushels as of the same date a year ago. Of this amount, loans had been repaid on 56.2 million bushels, leaving about 156.9 million bushels still under loan.

BRIMFUL and running over

By Jim Brim

I would like to quote from the Morgan County Soil Survey which was made by the University of Illinois a number of years ago:

The climate of Morgan County is typical of Central Illinois. It is characterized by a wide range between the extremes of winter and summer and has an abundant, usually well-distributed, rainfall.

The average annual rainfall for a twenty-five year period was 36.18 inches. Distributed by months as follows:

January, 1.72; February, 1.51; March, 3.02; April, 3.54; May, 4.20; June, 5.02; July, 3.07; August, 4.02; September, 4.56; October, 2.66; November, 2.06; December, 1.80.

Yes, our climate has summer and winter extremes. We have had some extremes in the past weeks. I will leave the interpretations of the rainfall data to you.

Have you looked at the futures grain prices lately? Look at them and do some thinking about delayed marketing. Storage should be profitable.

Now you should...

...swim.

...think about fall fertilization.

...take soil samples.

...go to the fair.

Is your corn harvesting equipment ready to go? If you need parts get them before the rush begins.

The following is not always true but frequently is an accurate statement:

An adolescent is one who when not treated like an adult acts like an infant.

ARIZONA NUPTIALS FOR BRUCE TRULL

Farm Adviser and Mrs. George Trull will leave Friday for Phoenix, Ariz., where they will attend the wedding of their son, Bruce, to Miss Lucille Riehl, Phoenix school teacher.

The bridegroom is associated with the Safeway Food Stores of the Phoenix area.

Mr. and Mrs. Trull will travel from St. Louis by air and expect to return next Tuesday.

DAUN E. SCHONE FINISHES COURSE AT MISSOURI FORT

FORT LEONARD WOOD, Mo. (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Daun E. Schone, 21, whose wife, Barbara, lives in Arenzville, completed an administration course at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., July 28.

During the course, he was trained in the preparation of military records and forms. Instruction was also given in fundamentals of the Army filing system and in the operation of office business machines.

His mother, Mrs. Helen M. Schone lives in Beardstown.

Stockmen Protest U.S. Aid To Competitors

OMAHA — "Any move on the part of a United States government-lending institution to subsidize the processing of pork for export to this country — and, particularly, from a Communist country — would most certainly be adding insult to injury, coming on the heels of other pressure exerted on farm prices," asserted Don F. Magdanz, executive secretary-treasurer of the National Livestock Feeders Association.

Magdanz had reference to an application which has been submitted to the Export-Import Bank calling for a loan of millions of dollars to a firm in Romania to build pork-processing facilities to process pork products for export to the United States.

The Feeders Association registered its protest to such a move in a wire sent to President Johnson. The wire pointed out that "Communist aggression is still the major world problem costing heavily in American lives and taxpayers' dollars."

Under these circumstances, the message continued, "it is unthinkable for the United States to aid business in Communist countries and, particularly, for direct competition with domestic business and United States taxpayers."

The Feeders Association urged immediate disapproval of the loan application, noting the decline in domestic pork prices and the substantial increase in exports. "Since early this year," the wire noted, "live hog prices in the United States have declined substantially." Furthermore, "hog marketings are expected to increase further after September 1."

The message to the President also pointed out that "pork imports during the first five months of 1966 have run 33% above 1965." The quantity of pork imported for the January-to-May period this year came to 135 million lbs. compared to 101.5 million lbs. during the same 5 months of last year.

"Certainly, there can be no justification for our government to lend financial assistance to foreign firms for the sole purpose of creating competition for domestic hog producers — especially those operating in Communist countries," concluded the Feeders Association official.

'66 Management Tour To Visit Logan Farm

The Wilbur and Carl Paulus farm, six miles northwest of Lincoln, has been selected for the state farm management tour on Sept. 7. The farm features a highly profitable confinement hog raising facility and a modern grain handling and feed processing plant with 60,000-bushel capacity.

The hosts for the day belong to the Sangamon Valley Farm Bureau Farm Management Service, which includes Logan, Menard, Sangamon, Macon, Cass, Morgan and Scott counties.

Recognized Swine Producer Wilbur Paulus was one of seven 1964 winners of the Superior Swine Producer Award, sponsored by the Illinois Pork Council and the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service.

Visitors will see a remodeled nursery building, a time-tested confinement finishing building with partial slotted floor and weighing and loading facility, and a pneumatic conveyor system for efficient feed handling.

The farm also has a cattle-feeding enterprise with capacity for 260 head per year.

Cold Storage Maybe New cropping practices and machinery have been introduced to save labor and get top production value per man. This year Paulus shifted to 30-inch corn rows with an eight-row planter and four-row harvesting equipment. He is now considering the use of a Frigidome storage and drying unit. This unit, which uses frigid air to cool 25,000 bushels of wet corn, would give Paulus the storage capacity to keep the corn moving as fast as it came from the field.

This 663-acre, 2½-man farm has $33 more costs per acre than similar farms, but $49 more returns. Farm management specialists predict that the efficient, profitable hog production demonstrated on this farm suggests the blueprint for 1975 farming.

The tour is sponsored by the Illinois Farm Bureau Farm Management Service and the U. of I. Cooperative Extension Service. Extension specialists and farm management fieldmen will be present to discuss this farm operation.

The farm is located northwest of the junction of U.S. 66 and Illinois 121. A pork chop barbecue will be served at noon for which reservations must be made through farm advisers.

Fifteen boys and girls have entered 67 head. Other breed numbers are Hampshire 34 head; Chester White, 31; Yorkshire, 25; Poland China, 21; Spotted Poland China, 13; Tamworth, 8; Berkshire, 4.

Also 4-H members have entered 39 head of crossbred barrows and 35 crossbred pairs.

There will be 21 exhibitors in the poultry department, 4 rabbit exhibitors and 18 garden exhibitors.

The 4-H horse show in front of the grandstand Wednesday afternoon will be the largest since the show was established. There will be 15 exhibitors.

"I'm very pleased with the turnout," Assistant Farm Adviser Ralph Romig said Friday when he completed the entry lists. "I was afraid the heat and drought might have discouraged some of them."

Modernization Loans Available To Rural Areas

Farmers Home Administration County Supervisor Norman T. Torrens, Jacksonville, asserts new or improved housing is well within the price range of most rural families with small incomes, because of new federal government financing arrangements.

"In this section of Illinois," Torrens continued, "we are helping families building housing on which their monthly payments, in some cases, will be as low as $35."

Other families are making plans to have their homes renovated inside and out.

"Our loans for home improvement," Torrens added, "enable a family to put new siding on their house and fix-up and paint-out the interiors as well as the outside. These funds can also finance the installation of a bathroom or an extra bedroom."

Funds are provided by private lenders with repayment guaranteed by the federal government. Farmers Home Administration credit is advanced only when the applicant's needs cannot be met by other lenders.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kunzeman and family, of Rockbridge; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shafer, Alton; and Mrs. Joyce Shafer and family, of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Meyer and family of Hillview.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Earl Shafer and family, Rantoul; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Shafer, Alton; Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Shafer and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith and sons, and Mike, Bruce, and Myron Shafer, of Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shafer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton and son Reg, of Patterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamilton and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dawdy and Lesa, of Roodhouse.

Roodhouse

ROODHOUSE—Mrs. Thomas Gill and daughter and two sons of Sacramento, Calif., and her aunt, Mrs. Clara Folk Belmont, and grandson, Dan Folk, Mansfield, visited Wednesday in the home of Miss Mabel Hopkins. The visitors are relatives of the Harp, Rawlins and Hopkins families and took back with them one of the Roodhouse Centennial books.

Mrs. Theodore Little and son, Alan Dale, Monmouth, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Effie Haylin, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Little.

Mrs. W. Clyde Kinser, Springfield, was an overnight visitor in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Clyde Hopkins, in order to attend the Centennial parade on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis of Chicago attended the Centennial and visiting his two sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vinyard and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Savage and others.

MAJOR SERVICES OF HILLVIEW SPEAKS TO ROODHOUSE CLUB

ROODHOUSE — Russell Carey, program chairman, Wednesday night at the Rotary Club presented an honorary member, Maj. Henri Servais of Hillview, who spoke on the subject, "Why Do Fools Deserve Wisdom?"

A number of members volunteered to sell tickets for the rides in the midway during the Centennial celebration.

President James F. Hopkins announced that the dinner next Wednesday night has been cancelled in order that members may participate in the parade and celebration. The club will drive a float in the parade.

Wednesday night's dinner was served by members of the Adel Rebeke Lodge.

Eugene Adams, Sr., has re-entered the Springfield Memorial hospital for treatment. He expects to remain there for one week.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Harvey Hull are her sister, Miss Fern Haigh, Jacksonville, and her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hull, Wood River. The son and wife have just returned from a vacation spent in Wisconsin and Canada.

There will be 15 exhibitors in the poultry department, 4 rabbit exhibitors and 18 garden exhibitors.

The 4-H horse show in front of the grandstand Wednesday afternoon will be the largest since the show was established. There will be 15 exhibitors.

"I'm very pleased with the turnout," Assistant Farm Adviser Ralph Romig said Friday when he completed the entry lists. "I was afraid the heat and drought might have discouraged some of them."

Varied Events Spark Interest At Morgan County Fair Opening

With the help of more than 150 men, the Morgan county fairgrounds is ready for the opening of the annual exposition starting Tuesday, August 2. The five-day run will conclude Saturday night.

More than 300 entries have been received in the livestock and domestic arts division.

The grounds were readied last Tuesday and tents were raised into place on Thursday to house exhibits and concessions.

Merchants were busy moving their displays into the exposition buildings on the north side of the grounds Saturday afternoon. Many will be busy today and Monday.

Opening day will feature the judging of domestic arts, dairy and beef cattle. The grandstand program will feature a Combo - Clash in which six bands are entered.

Four-Car Crash Causes Damage On South Main

The driver of one car in a four-car pile-up and his passenger sustained minor injuries about 9:30 p. m. Saturday on South Main Street, south of College Avenue.

Harlan W. Fricke, 17, Route 1, Chapin, driver of one of the cars, received a cut on the lip and did not require hospital treatment. A passenger in the Fricke auto, Jack Wilder, 17, of Route 1, Chapin, was taken to Passavant hospital for treatment of a cut lip and loose teeth. He was treated and released.

Fricke struck the rear of a string of cars awaiting the stop light to change and caused damage to three other vehicles.

Fricke struck a car driven by Gerald L. Baptist, 27, of 808 East Independence, whose car was knocked into a car driven by Charles S. Beddingfield, 16, of 203 Franklin Street, whose car was knocked into the fourth car driven by Mrs. Helen E. Danenberger, 47, of Ashland.

The Fricke auto was towed from the scene. A wrecker was required to pull the Danenberger and Beddingfield cars apart. Three of the four cars were driven from the scene.

Police told investigating police officers that he was showing a passenger how to find the ash tray in his car when the accident happened.

Rites Today For Thelma R. Mudd, Crash Victim

WAVELY—Funeral services for Mrs. Thelma Ruyle Mudd, Dow school teacher and former Scottville resident killed Thursday in an automobile accident, will be held at 2 p. m. today at the Scottville Methodist church.

Rev. Charles Richardson will officiate and interment will be in Panther Creek cemetery. The remains will be taken from the Neece Funeral Home to the church one hour before services.

The accident occurred near Jerseyville and Mrs. Mudd was killed instantly.

Mrs. Mudd, 51, was alone in her car when it collided with an auto driven by 18-year-old Robert DeShleria of Grafton at the intersection of Route 100 and the Newbern road, 10 miles southwest of Jerseyville. Police said the accident occurred at 2:20 p. m., following a heavy rain. Details of the crash were withheld Thursday pending notification of the next of kin.

Mrs. Mudd was taken to Jersey Community hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival. DeShleria, a passenger in his car, Dennis Warner, 16, of rural Jerseyville, was taken to the hospital by ambulance and released after treatment of minor injuries.

State police, who are still investigating the crash, said both cars were in the northbound lane when the accident was discovered. There were no witnesses.

Jersey County Coroner Rodney Jacoby will hold an inquest into the death.

Mrs. Mudd, a former Scottville resident, was born July 18, 1915 at Scottville; daughter of David and Hannah Kemperman Ruyle.

She is survived by a daughter, Shelby J. Mudd of Dow; three sisters, Mrs. Helen Powell of Scottville, Mrs. Lena Arnold of Jerseyville and Mrs. Irene Arndt, San Jose, Calif.; a brother, Alvin of Arlington Heights.

Keefe Funeral Services Held

Funeral services for Eugene H. Keefe were held at 3 p. m. Saturday at the Williamson Funeral Home, Reverend Lando Eitzen officiating. Mrs. Arthur Hecker was the organist.

Caring for the flowers were Mrs. J. C. Riley, Mrs. John May, Mrs. E. C. Ransdell and Mrs. R. J. Alkire.

Pallbearers were Robert E. Spink, John S. May, Eldridge Lindberg, Robert C. Hemphill, Joseph Clegg and James Spink.

Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

DRIVER TICKETED AFTER ACCIDENT

A Springfield man was ticketed after a two-car accident at the intersection of Douglas and North East Streets shortly before 1 o'clock Saturday morning.

Cited for failure to yield the right of way was Robert V. Denton, 25, of Springfield.

Investigating city police said Denton was southbound on East Street when his car struck a westbound auto, driven by Sandra S. Brockhouse, 544 Brooklyn Avenue. Denton told police he thought there was a four-way stop at the intersection.

Neither driver was injured and both cars left the scene under their own power.

SEE IF YOU CAN FIND THE LOST PUPPY

Melvin's Uncle Jake takes him and the dog Gomer out to the little cabin in the woods where the two will spend their vacation. Jake is pleased with his uncle's plans and they both look forward to having a relaxed time far from civilization. Gomer seems to feel the same way.

Later that evening Melvin and Uncle Jake sat on the porch in the deepening dusk and listened to the frogs croaking and the owls hooting down on the creek, and heard the nighttime cry of wild birds from the wooded hills. And with a contented look about him akin to blissful delight, Gomer lay at their feet with his great head between his paws and his eyes searching the night.

Finally the night was closing in and the moon was a faint yellow glow, slowly disappearing behind a hill to the west. And as he puffed reflectively on his pipe in the gathering darkness Uncle Jake observed quietly, "Want to be at the river by sun-up, son. Fish always bite better before the heat of the day sets in."

Melvin looked around quickly. "The river? Where is it? All I've seen is a little creek down in the bottom."

Uncle Jake knocked the ashes from his pipe on the porch railing and pointed. "The river is just beyond that high ridge, son. We'll have to leave the car and walk to it," he said. Then he stood up and stretched his elongated frame, and Melvin and Gomer followed him inside.

Gomer Not Alone
Daybreak the next morning found Melvin and Uncle Jake at the crest of the great ridge overlooking the river. And although the sky was clear and the day promised good fishing, Melvin was strangely silent.

Observing him closely Uncle Jake paused and let his tackle box to the ground. "Still worried about leaving Gomer behind, eh son?"

Melvin nodded. "I feel sort of guilty or something. Leaving him shut up in that old shed and everything." He acknowledged with a faint smile.

"But a big retriever like Gomer would be in and out of the water all day and keep the fish scared away," Uncle Jake pointed out. "Don't worry about him. He'll get his share of swimming when the duck hunting season comes in."

Island Beckons
They went on then and soon the river came into view. And as they stood on the bank Uncle Jake pointed to an island out some three hundred yards or so. "The good fishing is over there, son," he declared. "We'll get in a boat and go across."

He led the way then down the bank to a clump of willows where a light craft was anchored to a tree and they climbed in and shoved off. The sun was up and its rays playing over the water reflected brilliantly.

It took police two hours to catch the critter and remove there was a quietness in the her.

Unchangeable Purpose

By Mary Pence Claywell

The Morning Star hangs in the sky;
I see it there, serene and high
And somehow, feel that man will never

Reach those HEAVENLY BODIES, ever;
What makes one feel, it won't be done?
Because God made stars, moon, and sun,

To give us day, and conquer night,
The GREATER... and the LESSER LIGHT;
He also, made for USE OF MAN...

The EARTH BELOW, and ALL there-in;
And the HEAVENLY PASS, He offered him,
Was through REPENTANCE, of his sins;

And he must WAIT till Jesus comes,
To GATHER all the SAVED ones Home;
His WORD'S COMPLETE, but man's forgot...

What's SAID IS SAID... what's NOT, is NOT!

SUMMER

Summer is balmy warm
The bees about you swarm
The dandelions are bright
The sun shines with all its might
The grass grows green
Children sing and scream
Dogs get mad and bite
That's when I begin my flight
The shrubs and bushes all grow
While I behind that mower mow
An when Dad's feeling good
I'd squirt my brother with the hose
Now I've had my say
I guess I'll be on my way
I know it will be terribly hot
So I've decided to work not.

Seymour-Jedrow

NEW SALEM — Miss Barbara Kay Tedrow and Carl Dean Seymour of Baylis were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, July seventeenth, at the local Methodist church. Palms were used at the candlelight altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flaud E. Tedrow and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seymour, all of Baylis.

Mrs. Everett Irick accompanied the soloist, Miss Linda Hammitt.

Miss Carol Steinbaker of Griggsville was maid of honor and Miss Rachel Irick, Pittsfield, was bridesmaid.

Jerry Liehr of Perry, was best man and Jerry Seymour, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. Ushers were Kent Seymour, another brother of the groom and Russell Tedrow, brother of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned on classic lines. A pearl encrusted headpiece held her waistlength veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of daisies and ivy.

The bride's attendants wore mint green whipped cream dresses made on princess lines, with matching headpieces.

The mother of the bride wore a navy blue knit costume with white accessories and the groom's mother was in beige lace with black accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at the New Salem Town Hall. Assisting were Miss Betty Musgrave, Mrs. Donna Potter, Miss Susan Hammitt, Mrs. Nancy Applebaum, Mrs. Judy Coultas and Mrs. Beverly Willis.

The newlyweds are living at 249 North East avenue in Decatur. The bride graduated in 1965 from Griggsville High School and until her marriage was employed at the Brown Shoe Company. The groom, a 1964 graduate of the Pittsfield High School is employed by the Clean Towel Service in Decatur.

Quick and hearty soup for the family: combine tomato soup with pea soup and heat with sliced frankfurters.

Weddings PARTIES and CLUBS

Fisher-Seavey

PITTSFIELD—Miss Kay Seavey of Milledgeville, Illinois and Lee Fisher of Pittsfield, were united in marriage Saturday evening, July second, at the East Jordan church in Sterling, Illinois.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Reverend William Bryan at an altar decorated with yellow gladioli, white pompons and palms.

Curt Williams was at the organ and Gene Haines sang.

The bride wore a full length gown of candlelight satin and Venice lace. Her floor length veil of silk illusion fell from a headdress of satin flowers accented with pearls and crystal. Her bouquet was of pink sweetheart roses centering gardenias.

Mrs. James Seavey of Sterling, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Audrey Weilbacher and Miss Sue Hawkins both of Millstadt, were bridesmaids. The attendants were gowned alike in Nile green crepe floor length gowns. Crowns of white daisy mums and purple violets formed their headpieces which held shoulder length veils. Each carried a cascade of green daisies and white sunburst mums.

Marsha Seavey of Chadwick, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Terry Seavey, nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer. The little flower girl was dressed similar to the bride's attendants and carried a basket of daisies.

Gary Curtis of Pittsfield was best man. Groomsmen were James Seavey, the bride's brother and George Goddin of Pittsfield. Harry Seavey, another brother and Kent Zimmerman of Pittsfield, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore aqua crepe with matching lace jacket. The groom's mother was in an ice mint linen sheath. Both mothers wore pink sweetheart rose corsages.

At the reception held at the church Mrs. Gary Curtis, Pittsfield; Kathie Carter, Milledgeville; DeAnn and Sara Fisher, sisters of the groom, Sylvia Kreider and Judy Cunningham assisted.

The bride graduated from Milledgeville High School, attended Southern Illinois University and is employed by Kraft Foods at Milledgeville. The groom graduated from Pittsfield High School and from McKendree College, Lebanon, Illinois this past June. He is serving with the U.S. Army, stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher entertained at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the Red Carpet dining room in Sterling for members of the wedding party and their guests.

Other guests attending from Pittsfield were Mrs. Kent Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. David Giger, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hurt and Norris Richards.

NICHOLS PARK LADIES DAY GOLF NEWS

The weatherman provided cloudy skies, a delightful breeze and lots of hard ground for Ladies Day last Tuesday. My mother's wish, "I hope you come home soaking wet," did not come true until Wednesday. Incidentally, a sight to behold, I'm sure was Alpha Witham, Betty Meyer and I sharing one umbrella under a tree!

The event for the day was Blind Partners. Park Pro, Bill Lynn selected the partners while we were playing, and gross scores were added after the round.

Alpha Witham and Edna Greener were the first place winners, with Evelyn Cruzan and Marge Howard a close second. Edna Greener received an additional ball for a chip in on the second hole, for a bird. This shot must have inspired Lucille Eberhardt as she drove the green on the next hole and continued on to shoot her best round of the season so far. I can't say that it did much for Toni Rayburn or myself, howl-linois president, well known to Grand chapter officers. A past Illinois president, well known to Grand chapter officers. A past Illinois president, well known to Grand chapter officers.

Regional Grand vice president. Mrs. McCarthy is serving on the Women's Championship two international and two regional committees which met at the Regional to make plans for the International convention to be held next August in Minneapolis, Minn.

Fairings will be posted in the Pro Shop Tuesday morning, so those wishing to play their matches on Ladies Day may do so. Entry fee, $1.00, payable to Lucille Eberhardt, to cover tournament expenses. There will be two flights, with trophies for the winner and runnerup in each flight. This will be the final tournament of the season, so let's make it one hundred percent participation.

Until then—good golf and a good rain for everyone.

1866 Fair A Grand Success

The County Fair opened yesterday under favorable auspices. The day was pleasant and everything passed off remarkably well. This day is not generally a very important day in a fair, it generally being devoted to preparations for the succeeding days. The number in attendance was as large as is usual upon such occasions. The number of entries in the various departments is far above the average of preceding fairs.

That's what Frank Mitchell, local editor of the JOURNAL wrote for the Wednesday, Oct. 17, 1866 issue.

Opening day was pretty slow and Mitchell couldn't find much to write about.

The Morgan County fair was getting off on par. Nothing special was planned, for the men in charge knew that was the way to do it. The farmers of the county and the surrounding area would take the day to come to the fair, park their wagons, arrange for feeding and watering their teams and make other arrangements for their families, so they would be ready for the activities and fun that was to come during the next three days.

In those days the Morgan County fair was always a success. Stockholders always got at least a 10% dividend, and once a 22% dividend.

Just Different Days

Somehow our boys today, even though the state ladies in quite a chunk of currency, can't do much better than break even.

It's just a difference in time. To many families "Fair Week" was what they looked forward to through the long and back-breaking hours of May, June, July, August and September.

Come October off to the fair they went, to see new things, meet new people, new experiences, new ideas.

The fairgrounds a hundred years ago was located precisely where the 1866 fair will be held. But what a different place.

In 1866 a board fence 12 feet high surrounded the place. Most of the 40 acres was a beautiful grove of elm, oak and maple. The southeastern part was cleared off for the amphitheatre which seated "10,000 people in the dry." There the trotting and running races began and ended, with the mile track running to the north and then back again to the grandstand. People not too much interested in the race could sit in their carriage or wagon under the shade of a tree and watch the horses go by.

Some Grandstand

The amphitheatre was built in 1860 when Jacksonville was awarded the annual state fair. When it was finished it dazzled newspaper writers from St. Louis and Chicago.

There were also, in 1866, a half-dozen other permanent buildings, including the horticulture and fine arts building that was constructed in the form of a Grecian cross. Then there were the two dining halls and Editor's Hall, where the management always kept a keg of a "very fine article of whiskey" for the benefit of the scribes.

Yes, times do change.

On opening day Scribe Mitchell admired some "mammoth cabbage and some very large turnips raised by Robert James." He noted that "there was a nice display of jams, pickles, jellies, etc., and a large show of home-made wines." He feared that the season was too late to permit much of show in fruit.

In the ladies' department there were more than 20 quilts, one pieced by a girl of 9 and one by a venerable lady of 60. There were some very nice paintings, in water-colors and in oils, but the one he liked best was the full-colored likeness of "Old Abe," the bald eagle mascot of the 8th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry during the Civil war.

We can see "Old Abe" today, for he was adopted as the trademark of the Case Thresher Co. of Racine, Wisc.

Another nice painting, in aquatint, was "Reading of the Proclamation of Emancipation."

Unexciting Race

The horse race on opening day didn't amount to much. It was restricted to "any horse, mare or gelding, never before run, mile heats, best two of three, premium $25." There were only three entries. It was won by "Panny Dunning," entered by Kelsey Bros. of Jacksonville. Time: 3'8".

"For a green" race, that time is said to be tolerably fast," Mitchell wrote.

The next day, Wednesday, the 17th, "the morning dawned fair and clear" and a good-sized crowd was on the grounds when the cattle show began at 10 o'clock.

Most people said the cattle show was as good as in any year since 1860. There were 12 rings, and in some cases the three judges were "right puzzled" as to where to place the ribbons.

They agreed that the Durham bull, Young Lexington, was the best in his class. He was owned by John Lasburg of Pike county, and was considered just a shade better than "Jacob Strawn, entered by the Insane Asylum."

The judging committee particularly praised a pair of bull calves entered by E.B. Hitt of Exeter. He and E.L. Gillham of near Merritt carried off most of the blue and red ribbons in the cattle show.

There was no dairy cattle show in those days. In fact it was several years before people thought "milk" cows important enough to warrant a premium. And the cycle is nearly around again.

Big Day For Kelley

In the early afternoon there was the thoroughbred horse show. There were some mighty fine steeds entered, but the majority of blues were taken home by J. C. Kelley, who ran a deluxe livery stable on the north side of East Court street. J. S. Rector and F. M. Morton took more than their share of the remaining premiums, but Josiah Strawn scored with his "best suckling colt."

In his account of the day Scribe Mitchell noticed that his friend, Charles M. Eames, had a fine display of his patented Grover & Baker sewing machines in the north end of the horticultural building. Eames was also serving as secretary of the fine arts department. Evidently he didn't care too much about the sewing machine business because within a month he began working as "Local Editor" for the JOURNAL. He was a natural newspaperman, with just enough spice and sparkle to make ordinary things interesting. Although only 22 years old he soon bought an interest in the paper, and within five years owned it outright.

With him, however, politics was a nuisance and when Cleveland defeated Blaine he sold the paper and went to Kansas and bought a bookstore. In this, too, he prospered.

The Big Race

About 8,000 people, at a dime each, were in the amphitheatre "when the double trotting races commenced at 3 1/2 o'clock."

There were three entries, but the fans had eyes for only two—a splendid pair of mares driven by C. Clingfield of Springfield and a wonderful pair of horses driven by J. C. Kelley of Jacksonville.

(Mitchell understood the Sangamon county horseman's name was "Clingenpeel" and that is the way it came out in the paper. Well, that's not too bad an error, at least everybody who read it knew who he was talking about. Just as today, when you hear a TV announcer talk about "assburn" you know its good for headaches.)

Clingfield was slightly favored, but the home town boys were for Kelley. After jockeying around (scoring) for 20 minutes the judge sent them on their way. It was neck and neck, with the mares at the pole and the winners by a length.

Ten years ago there were but eight Lutheran ministers in Paris, and only four Lutheran churches. Now the number of ministers is twenty-one, and they have under their charge fourteen chapels and churches. Vast numbers of German laborers have been attracted to Paris within a few years, and the whole population has been rapidly increasing. The French Government, at its own expense, has recently erected a fine church for the Lutherans, and has legally transferred it to their uses.

Shoe, Race Lost

After a 30 minute rest, during which time everybody either paid up or was paid, and the bets leveled for the next heat, the teams came out again, with the mares at the pole.

Halfway around the track the off mare threw a shoe, broke stride, and the horses came in. The next heat Kelley won easily.

"This match closed the second day," Mitchell wrote. "Altogether the day had been a good one, the crowd in attendance was large, and everything went off so nice that the officers of the association are in much better humor, and wearing more smiling faces than they have been known to do for a long time."

News, Views Century Ago

From the Jacksonville Sentinel:

The Great Eastern arrived at Heart's Content on last Saturday morning, July 21st, having successfully laid the Atlantic cable. Complimentary messages have since passed between Queen Victoria and President Johnson.

The Pittsfield DEMOCRAT estimates that rain fell in Pike county last week to the depth of 12 inches, destroying property to the amount of $500,000.

On Saturday last the despatches announced the appointment of Capt. Horace Chapin as Post Master of this city. The appointment has created considerable surprise among all parties. Outside of politics, Chapin is a gentleman of courteous and popular manners. Cases of cholera infantum and diarrhea have been numerous in this city within the last two weeks, and many cases have been fatal among children.

The walls of the new woolen factory, south of the brook, are completed and ready for the roofing. The building is but two stories high, but covers a large area of ground.

Two escaped prisoners from Cass county jail, a man and a woman, were a day or two since traced by Constable Henderson, of this city, into Pike county and brought back. The great foot race appointed to come off Saturday proved a fizzle. One of the high contracting competitors in speed unceremoniously took French leave before the appointed hour, leaving his backers "to hold the bag."

From the Carrollton Gazette: Whitehall Locals —

REFRACTORY — Quite an exciting scene transpired the other morning, as our French Louie was trying to drive a fat cow up Main street. After running by him a number of times, the animal leaped the fence and boldly walked on to the porch of Mr. James Israel's residence. The next attempt met with better success, as the beast plunged into the office of the Main Street House, and after a tour of inspection, made its exit by the back yard. She was finally driven through the town by the aid of bystanders, and a good many COT-TAMS from the gallant Frenchman.

PUBLIC BENEFIT — An extension to the platform of our depot is being built. The platform accommodations have never been sufficient for the purpose. What there was of it was generally filled with bystanders and loafers while the passengers had to get off in the mud, and we hail the present addition as a step in the right direction.

From the Beardstown Central Illinoisian:

THE CASS COUNTY WEEKLY COURIER — J. S. Harper, Esq., formerly a resident of this place, has started a paper with the above title in Virginia, in this county. The paper is Republican in politics and bids fair to be an able co-worker for the good cause of loyalty and human rights. We think that three newspapers are more than little Cass can sustain, but for the sake of the cause, the editor and all persons interested, we hope the Courier will succeed.

We are under obligations to Hon. Richard Yates, for public documents.

THE RIVER — The late rains have raised the river at this place three feet. It is now in good boating condition and will not be likely to get very low anytime this season.

MILITARY MISSION — NEW YORK (AP) — The Rev. Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the Lutheran Church in America and head of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches, will visit U.S. military personnel in the Far East. The two-week pastoral tour of military installations begins Nov. 7 in Tokyo.

The Denver News announces that a new daily line of stage coaches is to be put on the Smoky Hill route. The road is now being stocked, and the coaches will commence running about the 1st of September.

The granite arch at Plymouth, over the place where the Pilgrims first landed, which is to be twenty-five feet high when finished, has stopped at twelve feet, the funds being exhausted.

In Central Georgia thousands of freedmen are agitating the question of immediate emigration to Liberia. This spirit was said to be rife among them at their late demonstration in Macon.

Mr. Charles T. Willard, a well known photographer of Philadelphia, met with a sudden death on Friday. He was passing along Fifth street, in that city, when he accidentally fell into a deep cellar, recently excavated. Severely young men who left Springfield, Mass., in April last, for Montana, have returned, impressed with the idea that golden Territory is not all their fancy painted it. They visited eleven different mines, lost a round sum for the trip, and finally concluded that home was the best place for them.

The Chicago papers, now that the cholera has fairly made its appearance in that city, assert that the disease has prevailed there ever since the early part of June, but that the physicians, to avoid creating a panic, have called it by a milder name.

Simplicity Not For Us

Whatever our shortcomings, there is one thing any fair-minded person has to concede to us Americans:

We won't do anything simply.

Picking our income tax return as a random example, we manage to live our daily lives in a perpetual state of complexity and confusion.

Take sports and recreation. You think baseball and football are simple games? Try to explain one to a visitor from overseas who has never seen one!

Read about some piece—any piece—of legislation introduced in Congress, a state legislature, or even your local city council. Or a court decision.

Do you dig this stuff at first glance? You bet you don't. You have to study it as you wish you had studied your lessons when you were in school.

And the current war on poverty. You think poverty is something that is clutterproof? Hah! The whole project is now slowed down by the knotty question of just what is "poor" and who is successful enough to qualify as poverty-stricken.

We seem to have developed a mental block which makes it impossible for us to write, introduce, pass or sign a law, contract, agreement, pact, truce, lease, form or even a weather forecast without sticking in enough "however's" and "except's" to throw the average victim who has to try to decipher it.

Surely it ought to be possible now and then to whop up something—however trivial and nonvital—in language so clear and simple even a grown man or woman could understand it.

Such as: "It is illegal to park your car in the middle of a freeway."

Now there is something anyone can understand. Except, of course, when . . .

Boost For Libraries

What with foreign aid and civil rights and other great legislative concerns comparatively little yet quite important bill passed by Congress and signed into law by the President. This is the legislation to continue upgrading of the nation's library services through federal support.

A good start had previously been made. Now Congress has authorized the expenditure of 700 million dollars over the next five years for library construction and improvement of facilities and services.

The biggest chunk of this money, 300 millions, will be expended on grants to states for library construction, including provision of more space and replacement of outmoded buildings. Two hundred seventy-five million will go to beef up library services, and another 75 million will be spent on further extension of services to the physically handicapped and those in a variety of institutions including hospitals, orphanages and prisons.

One of the most significant expenditures will be the 50 million dollars allocated to foster greater cooperation among libraries. This end also will be furthered by creation of a presidential National Library Commission to recommend means of providing a better and more coordinated library system. The importance of this is heightened by recent developments which facilitate exchange of materials. The time will come when, through electronic means, the resources of the great libraries will in large measure be available to citizens in all parts of the country.

This, at any rate, is the dream. It is a dream that is being brought closer to realization by the new library aid bill.

Dear Ann:

Score Evened Up

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Boy-oh-boy, did I ever see glimpses of myself in your column a few weeks ago!!! I turned the clock back about 40 years, but there I was—just like the homey little girl whose father carried a picture in his wallet of a beautiful older sister. Her picture was left in the bureau drawer.

I'm 55 years old, but some of those memories still hurt. My older sister was the star and I was nothing. She got all the praise and I got all the criticism. When "The Beauty" graduated from the 8th grade the whole family was there. When I graduated from the 8th grade nobody showed up.

Life plays funny tricks. When it came time for marriage, my sister made a very poor selection. My marriage was one of the best.

To this day mother resents the fact that I have a wonderful husband, a lovely home, fine children, and a good life. My sister's looks are gone, her husband isn't much good and her life is empty. Mother says I was lucky and my sister was unlucky. I say somebody up there decided to even the score.

ORLANDO: I like your theory best.

Dear Ann Landers: Our son Jed is 19, a college sophomore and he is enrolled for summer courses. The college is about 100 miles from here. He comes home a week. Jed has been dating a high school girl who lives in the college town. The girl has a car. She drives Jed home almost every weekend and moves right into our guest room. We hear them roaming around all hours of the night, which I think is bad for the younger children.

Our family is taking a trip in August and Jed wants to include the girl. I am against it. What kind of parents must she have, anyway?

Dear R. R. R.: The girl's parents must have rocks in their heads, but you've got a few boulders, too, lady.

Obviously you can't police your son when he's away at school—and you shouldn't try, but permitting the girl to move in for weekends offers unspoken approval of this much-too-chummy relationship. Say "No" to the vacation deal.

Dear Ann Landers: My problem is my parents. I am a 15-year-old girl. They make me kiss them good night every night. Then my mom blesses me and says something in her native tongue.

After that she makes me tell her that I love her. I think this is stupid. Besides I am too old for that junk. I have asked mom why she does this and she says it is good for people to tell each other they love one another. It doesn't really make me feel closer to her. In fact it makes me dislike her.

What is your opinion of all this garbage? —ANTI-MUSH-ER

Dear Anti: I feel sorry for your mother. She must be desperately unfulfilled. Maybe you think a good night kiss and being blessed by your mother is "garbage," but one day you will wish you could turn the clock back and do a few things differently. But it will be too late.

Confidential to Reddy Freddy: I hope you are "reddy" for plenty of trouble. This girl is underage no matter what state you live in. Her father can throw the book at you—and I hope he does.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Chinese Got There First

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Q—I was raised in Germany and was always told that it was where sauerkraut originated. We grew up on it. But now my high school daughter says it started in China. She's wrong, isn't she?

A—No, she is right. Sauerkraut originated in China. Back in the third century, B.C., Emperor Shih Hwang added a form of kraut to supplement the rice diet of the laborers building the Great Wall. Little did he know that his cabbage fermented in rice wine would not only improve his men's nutrition, but would become a famous international food. In addition to low-calorie value, sauerkraut is quite inexpensive.

Topflight Men Give China Great Nuclear Potential

By RAY CROMLEY

Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Communist China's nuclear development is no fluke. Her economic slugging and her propagandistic educational methods had led to a discounting of Peking's technical potential.

But new detailed studies here by the National Science Foundation show that Peking has a stronger — than — expected scientific base. The top layer may be thin but it's technically of high quality.

Though the Communist regime has prostituted many of the universities in Red China, that country has a list of top-flight scientists trained in first-rate universities in the United States, western Europe and Japan.

The most outstanding nuclear physicist in China, Ch'ien San-ch'ang, director of the Institute of Atomic Energy, received his Ph.D. in physics from the University of Paris.

Almost equal in prominence are Wang Kan-ch'ang and Chao Chung-yao.

Wang earned his Ph.D. in physics at the University of Berlin. He was later a research associate at the University of California.

Chao received his Ph.D. from the California Institute of Technology. Institute of Atomic Energy deputy director Peng Huang-wu, in charge of Red China's theoretical research in atomic nuclei and fundamental particles, holds a Ph.D. from Edinburgh University.

Institute deputy director Chang Chia-hua was awarded his doctorate by Washington University.

The chief of the Institute of Atomic Energy's cosmic ray laboratory received his Ph.D. at Cambridge.

Communist China's rocket development is headed by Ch'ien Hsueh-shen. He's regarded as one of the world's outstanding aeronautical and jet-propulsion engineers. He has a master's science degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and a Ph.D. in aeronautics.

tical engineering from the California Institute of Technology. He was later a professor of aeronautics at MIT. As a consultant to the U.S. Navy he went to Germany after World War II "to investigate rocket development."

Two other leading men connected with Red China's rocket work are Kuo Yung-huai and Shen Yuan.

Kuo, deputy director of Red China's Institute of Mechanics, has a Cal Tech Ph.D.

Shen, chairman of the board of directors of the Communist China Aeronautical Engineering Society, has a Ph.D. from London University.

Forty-eight per cent of the board members and members of the standing committees of the Departments of Natural and Technical Sciences of the Chinese Academy of Sciences in 1962 were trained in the United States. Twenty-eight per cent were trained in western Europe.

This is not to say Communist China does not have some very serious technical problems for the future. Her top layer of scientists is thin. It will be years before the junior scientists develop to the first rank.

Despite major gaps in training and some serious educational stumbling, it would be unwise to underestimate what this top layer of scientists can accomplish.

Pat Brown Is Welcoming Backing From Any Quarter

By WASHINGTON STAFF

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — On the opening day of the Governors Conference in Los Angeles, six governors — John Connally, Texas; Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, California; Otto Kerner, Illinois; John Love, Colorado; John Reed, Maine, and William Scranton, Pennsylvania, appeared on a nationally televised news show.

As is customary, each governor was given a voice level test before air time. Reed, a Republican, was the first to be tested and he blurted: "I'm sitting behind Pat Brown, the great governor of California."

Brown, facing a tough fall election against Republican Ronald Reagan, quickly barked: "May I quote you?"

There was plenty of entertainment at the Conference, including a preview showing of the movie, "How to Steal a Million."

Noting this item on the day's program, one governor asked: "What is it? A panel discussion?"

Arizona Gov. Samuel Goldwater speculated that it might be a training film for the governors.

Toward the end of the final session, all those governors who were retiring for various reasons this year made their swan song speeches at the Governors Conference podium.

In turn, each stepped to the microphone and briefly mentioned how pleasant it had been working with such a distinguished group for the last two or four or eight years.

Just as the session appeared to be over, the familiar voice of Alabama Gov. George Wallace came booming out:

"I forgot that I wasn't going to be back next year."

This brought the house down. Wallace, barred by state law from succeeding himself, is masterminding his wife Lurleen's campaign to take his place. She is an overwhelming favorite to win. So Wallace added:

"But I will be back next year. I'll be in charge of highway beautification programs in Alabama."

Congressmen sometimes ask for trouble. Take the case of Rep. Robert McEwen, R-N.Y., who recently got a request for a cannonball.

It came from Jefferson Community College in Watertown, part of McEwen's district. The college's athletic nickname is the "Cannoners."

Somehow McEwen located an old cannonball — a relic from the Civil War — and sent it on. Now the college has asked him for a cannon.

FINDING THE WAY

Stand for Something

Dr. Loew

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) —

"Where is their conscience?" That question is asked dozens of times each week as citizens write letters to the editor, or neighbors decry an incident.

"Where is the conscience of the person who hit my dog and didn't stop?"

"Where is the conscience of the young people who tore up the park?"

These are understandable questions. They concern the situations which people can see, feel and understand.

There are more puzzling dilemmas. A man fights bravely in Viet Nam, not because he has a conscience about the matter. Thus, as a matter of principle, he gives himself to a cause.

By a similar motivating principle, another man protests the draft, states his opposition to the conflict and goes to jail, not because he wants to do so, but because he has a conscience about the matter. As a matter of principle, he gives himself a cause.

Conscience is not just happen automatic. It doesn't just happen. It isn't a built-in buzzer, shouting angrily if you go faster than a preset speed. As George Harris once wrote, "A conscience is not a gadget built for comfort, but an internal force, ready at a decisive moment to blow your life apart by turning you against your self-interest or neighbors."

He told the story of Jack Shea, an officer of a firm in Dallas who protested the fellow citizens in the future to the assassination of President Kennedy.

As a result of writing about this, he lost his position and many of his friends. Yet he insisted that he had not done so, he would have canceled his right and responsibility as a citizen. It was a matter of conscience.

When a person asks: "Where is his conscience?" he is really asking, "Where are his values?" Conscience not only implies the knowledge of right or wrong but the compulsion to do and to be right. It is not only an awareness of a difference in judgment, but an expression of approval or of protest. It is a value that is personal; it involves what a person does. It is a value that is social; it involves the way we behave as fellow citizens.

This is why it is of increasing importance for each of us to consider a daily renewal of conscience. We are shocked when an action of the conscienceless touches us; we ought to have reacted years earlier.

It's not only the conscienceless youngster who speeds away after hitting the dog or the irresponsible vandal who destroys property who are problems. It is the understanding of our own goals and of our own compulsion, or lack of it, to give ourselves to these goals.

Men have sacrificed themselves willingly as a matter of conscience.

Or, as Scripture describes the Pharaoh, "the heart was hardened."

Peter Marshall once prayed in the U.S. Senate, "Lord, help us to stand for something lest we fall for anything."

It's a good prayer for us all — as a matter of conscience.

Communication

Dear Sir:

In one of last week's second page editorials, you spoke of the death of Nannu, the killer whale, and said the fiercely intelligent, predatory orca was the same species that caused the crew of the "Kon-tiki" much concern.

You are in error. The whale shark, a harmless, plankton-eating fish—the largest true fish—was the type mentioned in the book "Kon-tiki." Try to be more exact in matters such as this.

Respectfully yours,
C. S. D., Jr.

Mature Parent

Break Up Hate Alliance

By MURIE LAWRENCE
DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: Not take Ann Rose's affection for you too seriously. The nice way she treats you doesn't mean she likes you so much. It means that she dislikes Joan. As I have this problem, please send the column to me. My husband's sister has always held something against our 12-year-old girl though I don't know what it is. But she is devoted to our 9-year-old boy, wants to hear about everything he's doing, never forgets his birthday and makes such a fuss over him. When she goes out of her way to ignore his sister . . .

ANSWER: She wants your children to dislike each other. Division between our children is what our relatives are up to when they shows these of partiality toward one at the expense of another. This desire to create enmity between them is usually unconscious. But it is there. They want the favored child to join them in an alliance to dislike the unfavored one. In the favored one they are seeking to arouse triumphant feelings and in the unfavored one, hurt and jealousy.

Myself, I think that children need to be informed of this is to take that boy of yours aside hostile purpose in partial relation and tell him you know the truth. So, were I you, I would take my son aside and say, "Do it."

If we love a child, we do not want to divide him from his sister or brother. We want him to enjoy as many human relationships as he can.

You don't need that other colings and in the unfavored one, hurt and jealousy.

Now look, I'm not as deficient in world affairs as some people say. —George W. Romney, governor of Michigan, at 58th annual Governors Conference.

Meyer-Koster

CARROLLTON — Miss Mary Lois Koster and Bernard Henry Meyer were united in marriage Saturday morning, July twenty-third, at the St. John's Catholic church here.

Yellow daisies adorned the church altar where the Reverend Vincent Worland received the vows. George Schnelton was soloist and Mrs. Laurence Thien was at the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Koster of Carrollton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meyer, all of Carrollton.

Miss JoDell Tapen was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kay Ballard of Patterson; Miss Judy Wollenweber and Miss Karen Gourley.

Donald D. Becker was best man and Ed Wollenweber, Reginald Meyer and Ronald Meyer were groomsmen. Ushers were John Koster and James Meyer.

The bride wore a gown of chiffon and lace over taffeta with a lace sweep train. A lace petal headpiece held her veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with an orchid center.

The bride's attendants wore identical fashioned gowns of chiffon and lace. The honor attendant wore moss green and pastel yellow and the bridesmaids gold and pastel yellow. Each carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies.

The mother of the bride wore pale green eyelet linen with white accessories and the groom's mother was in a blue ensemble with white trim. The mothers wore corsages of white roses.

At the reception held at the Knights of Columbus Hall Miss Sue McGlasson, Miss Margaret Kirby and Miss Sharon Bal-des assisted.

The bride graduated from Carrollton High School in 1966 and the groom graduated in 1961 from Routt High School at Jacksonville. He is engaged in farming with his father. The couple will make their home on a farm a mile north of Carrollton.

Hoesman-Chumley

WHITE HALL—An afternoon ceremony last Sunday, July twenty-fourth, united in marriage Miss Judith Ann Chumley and William Frederick Hoesman. The Reverend Jack Thompson officiated at the First Baptist church.

Greenery banked the candle-lit altar. Mrs. Charles Wy-att was at the organ and Miss Ethel Dolan sang.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John James Chumley and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hoesman, White Hall route two.

The bride's sister, Miss Janis Chumley of White Hall, was maid of honor. A sister of the groom, Mrs. Donald Christison, Jacksonville and Mrs. Forrest Jones and Mrs. Warren Fansler, both sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. All were gowned identically in blue bonded lace, made on Empire lines. The skirts were fashioned en train. Each carried a bouquet of blue daisies.

Otis Jones was best man and groomsmen were Charles Edwards, Forrest Jones and Warren Fansler. Ushers were Truman Short, Roodhouse; Gary James, Gale Ahern and Albert Hoesman of Chandlerville, cousin of the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin and lace with a lace train which extended from the shoulders. A crown of lace and sequins held her veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of daisies.

The mother of the bride wore aqua cotton brocade with white accessories and the groom's mother was in an aqua knit with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the church ceremony. Assisting were Miss Linda Steelman, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Otis Jones, Mrs. Lewis, Wash.

Jim Crabtree, Mrs. Kenneth Lorton, Miss Linda James, Miss Patty Williams, Miss Mary Hoesman, cousin of the groom, Mrs. Kenyon Cotter and Mrs. Donald Burton.

After a honeymoon in St. Louis, Missouri, the newlyweds left to make their home at Tacoma, Washington. The bride graduated from White Hall High School in 1964 and attended Miss Hickey's School in St. Louis. She was employed at the George Witt Business Service in White Hall until her marriage. The groom graduated from high school with the same class as the bride and is serving with the Army, stationed at Fort Belvoir, Wash.

Guests attended the wedding and reception from Jacksonville, Chicago, Chandlerville and Alsey, Illinois; Fort Riley, Kansas; St. Louis, Mo. and the state of Colorado.

Ladies Golf At Jacksonville Country Club

Our lady golfers enjoyed a good day as guests of the Virginia Country Club on Tuesday with Old Sol hiding himself with most of the morning for our comfort. Because of rain on Wednesday, only nine holes were played in a "Tee to Green" event.

Betty Brown and Rigi Fay tied for first in Class A, with Mae

Mueller and Mildred Plnson tied winners for second place in that class. In Class B, Vera Sue Schneider won first with Dovie Piele, Wilma Jackson, and Liz Dowland tied for second place.

The Championship Tournament starts this week with the first round to be played on or before August 3rd, second round on or before August 10th, third round on or before August 15th, with the final round to be played August 17th. There will be a Consolation Flight for first round losers. Those not participating in the tournament will make their own pairings each week during the event.

Tournament pairings are as follows:

Championship Flight, 18 holes: Bailis vs. Dawdy Fay vs. Bye Glisson vs. Plnson Zachary vs. Bye

Perbix vs. Chumley Bunch vs. Bye Brown vs. Elliott Reuck vs. Bye

First Flight—18 holes Floreth vs. Dyer Piele vs. Cisne Gross vs. Jackson Little vs. Ellis Grant vs. Harris Casler vs. Rammelkamp Duerwer vs. Lukeman Herrin vs. Carbone

Second Flight—18 holes Douglass vs. Rourke Hess vs. Mangan Doyle vs. Foster Wright vs. Maysel Ware McNaughton vs. Massey Warner vs. Kraushaar Wade vs. Newman Murphy vs. Bye

These pairings are posted on the Ladies' Bulletin Board at the club.

Fine Set Of Judges Ready For The Fair

Clyde York, general superintendent of the agricultural departments of this week's Morgan County Junior Fair, and the superintendents of the departments have again arranged an excellent panel of judges to place the ribbons and the premiums.

Jerry Taylor of Prairie City will be on hand at 8 a.m. Tuesday when the beef cattle show gets underway. Taylor is a McDonough county farmer and Scotch Shorthorn breeder.

At the same hour G.W. Harpestad will judge the dairy cattle. He is a University of Illinois Extension dairy specialist.

At 9:30 a.m. Stanley Klaus, the old reliable agricultural products, garden, rabbit and poultry judge, will begin his usual two-day chore. He is the vocational agriculture instructor at Carlinville high school and has judged these departments nearly every year since the junior fair was begun.

Barrows entered in the carcass class will be judged at 8 p.m. Tuesday by buyers and type specialists from the Hunter Packing Co., St. Louis. This company was an early pioneer in advocating the development of a butcher hog carrying more lean meat and less fat. Today it is one of the few firms that truly pays a premium for "meat-type" hogs.

At 8 a.m. Wednesday Richard Sims of Macomb will begin judging the sheep by picking out the best fat lambs. Sims is the regional Extension livestock specialist.

Swine judging will begin at 8 a.m. Thursday and Marvin Beechner, well known Duroc breeder from Farmersville, Montgomery county, will have plenty of work ahead of him from then until noon Friday.

Nearly all of the departments have the same superintendents and assistants as last year and they will help the youngsters and judges move the show along with dispatch.

Illinois Farm OUTLOOK

CATTLE ON FEED UP 11 PERCENT

Cattlemen are increasing their output of the nation's favorite food — beef. Prospective supplies are considerably larger than those of last year, judging from the USDA Report of Cattle on Feed July 1.

According to this report, farmers on July 1 were fattening 8,347,000 cattle and calves for market, 11 percent more than one year before. Of this number, 4,664,000 head during this quarter (July, August and September), or 11 percent more than a year ago.

Weights of Cattle on Feed. The number of cattle over 1,100 pounds was estimated at 346,000 head, up 9 percent from 1965. The number weighing 900 to 1,100 pounds was 2,018,000 head, up 15 percent. Those weighing 700 to 900 pounds totaled 3,685,000 head, up 7 percent. The 500- to 700-pound group numbered 1,971,000 head, up 15 percent.

And calves weighing less than 500 pounds totaled 327,000 head, 17 percent more than last year. Price Prospects. If marketings of fed cattle exceed last year's levels by up to 10 percent, what can be expected for prices? With more pork and poultry as well as more beef, prices for cattle may average lower than last year. Last year prices of Choice steers at Chicago held close to $27.00 from May through February, climbed above $29.00 in March, and then began to decline in April. Recent quotations were around $25.50, $1.50 lower than last year.

The demand for beef seems to increase about 3 percent a year. That is, we can sell about 3 percent more beef without any price reduction. But if there is 6 to 8 percent more beef to sell, prices may have to be trimmed by something like 10 percent — $2.00 to $3.00 a hundred pounds from the $27.00 level maintained in the last half of 1965.

Increasing supplies of pork and poultry will tend to depress beef and cattle prices. Pork output always increases during the last half of the year. Supplies in prospect for the next five months appear to be at least 5 percent larger than last year. Supplies of broilers shrink a little during the last half of the year, but they promise to run about 8 percent larger than in 1965. Turkey production is up close to 10 percent this year. The larger supply of turkeys will make strong competition for beef, especially during the holiday season.

Drouth. Large areas of the nation have been suffering from drouth. The resulting shortage of winter feed may force some extra cattle to market.

L. H. Simerl, Extension Economist, Agricultural Marketing FFA STAR FARMER AWARD URBANA, Ill. (AP) — Gary Organ, 20, of McLeansboro was named Friday star farmer of the 13-state central region, Future Farmers of America.

He will compete with three regional winners from other parts of the country for star farmer of the United States at the FFA national convention in Kansas City, Mo. Oct. 13.

1965 Corn Loans Being Paid Off At Rapid Rate

Corn from the 1965 crop placed under price support loan in Morgan county totaled 217,176 bushels through June, Lester E. Martin, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County committee, reports.

This compares with the 214,857 bushels from the 1964 crop put under loan as of the same date a year ago.

Producers of corn and soybeans had until June 30 to make application for price support loans for which the maturity date will be July 31, 1967.

The chairman said that loans had been repaid on 103,046 bushels of the 1965 crop corn put under loan, leaving 114,130 bushels still under loan.

State-wide 29.5 million bushels of 1965 crop corn were placed under loan by Illinois farmers through June, compared with 26.6 of the 1964 crop placed under loan through the same period a year ago. Only 16.1 million bushels of the 1965 crop remain under loan, the balance having been redeemed by producers.

Nationally, 1965 crop corn placed under price support loan through June totaled 213 million bushels, compared with 214 million bushels as of the same date a year ago. Of this amount, loans had been repaid on 56.2 million bushels, leaving about 156.8 million bushels still under loan.

BRIMFUL and running over

By Jim Brim

I would like to quote from the Morgan County Soil Survey which was made by the University of Illinois a number of years ago:

The climate of Morgan County is typical of Central Illinois. It is characterized by a wide range between the extremes of winter and summer and has an abundant, usually well-distributed, rainfall.

The average annual rainfall for a twenty-five year period was 36.18 inches. Distributed by months as follows—January, 1.72; February, 1.51; March, 3.02; April, 3.54; May, 4.20; June, 5.02; July, 3.07; August, 4.02; September, 4.56; October, 2.66; November, 2.06; December, 1.80.

Yes, our climate has summer and winter extremes. We have had some extremes in the past weeks. I will leave the interpretations of the rainfall data to you.

Have you looked at the futures grain prices lately? Look at them and do some thinking about delayed marketing. Storage should be profitable.

Now you should...
...be thankful.
...swim.
...think about fall fertilization.

...take soil samples.
...eat roasting ears.
...go to the fair.
Is your corn harvesting equipment ready to go? If you need parts get them before the rush begins.

The following is not always true but frequently is an accurate statement:
An adolescent is one who when not treated like an adult acts like an infant.

ARIZONA NUPTIALS FOR BRUCE TRULL

Farm Adviser and Mrs. George Trull will leave Friday for Phoenix, Ariz., where they will attend the wedding of their son, Bruce, to Miss Lucille Riland, Phoenix school teacher. The bridegroom is associated with the Safeway Food Stores of the Phoenix area.

Mr. and Mrs. Trull will travel from St. Louis by air and expect to return next Tuesday.

DAUN E. SCHONE FINISHES COURSE AT MISSOURI FORT

FORT LEONARD WOOD, Mo. (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Daun E. Schone, 21, whose wife, Barbara, lives in Arenzville, completed an administration course at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., July 28.

During the course, he was trained in the preparation of military records and forms. Instruction was also given in fundamentals of the Army filing system and in the operation of office business machines.

His mother, Mrs. Helen M. Schone lives in Beardstown.

Stockmen Protest U.S. Aid To Competitors

OMAHA — "Any move on the part of a United States government-lending institution to subsidize the processing of pork for export to this country — and, particularly, from a Communist country — would most certainly be adding insult to injury, coming on the heels of other pressure exerted on farm prices," asserted Don F. Magdanz, executive secretary-treasurer of the National Livestock Feeders Association.

Magdanz had reference to an application which has been submitted to the Export-Import Bank calling for a loan of millions of dollars to a firm in Romania to build pork-processing facilities to process pork products for export to the United States.

The Feeders Association registered its protest to such a move in a wire sent to President Johnson. The wire pointed out that, "Communist aggression is still the major world problem costing heavily in American lives and taxpayers' dollars." Under these circumstances, "it is unthinkable for the United States to aid business in Communist al.

countries and, particularly, for direct competition with domestic business and United States taxpayers."

The Feeders Association urged immediate disapproval of the loan application, noting the decline in domestic pork prices and the substantial increase in exports. "Since early this year," the wire noted, "live hog prices in the United States have declined substantially." Furthermore, "hog marketings are expected to increase further after September 1."

The message to the President also pointed out that "pork imports during the first five months of 1966 have run 33% above 1965." The quantity of pork imported for the January-to-May period this year came to 135 million lbs. compared to 101.5 million lbs. during the same 5 months of last year.

"Certainly, there can be no justification for our government to lend financial assistance to foreign firms for the sole purpose of creating competition for domestic hog producers — especially those operating in Communist countries," concluded the Feeders Association official.

'66 Management Tour To Visit Logan Farm

The Wilbur and Carl Pauls farm, six miles northwest of Lincoln, has been selected for the state farm management tour on Sept. 7. The farm features a highly profitable confinement hog raising facility and a modern grain handling and feed processing plant with 60,000-bushel capacity.

The hosts for the day belong to the Sangamon Valley Farm Bureau Farm Management Service, which includes Logan, Menard, Sangamon, Mason, Cass, Morgan and Scott counties.

Recognized Swine Producer Wilbur Pauls was one of seven 1964 winners of the Superior Swine Producer Award, sponsored by the Illinois Pork Council and the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service.

Visitors will see a remodeled nursery building, a time-tested confinement finishing building with partial slotted floor and weighing and loading facility, and a pneumatic conveyor system for efficient feed handling.

The farm also has a cattle-feeding enterprise with capacity for 260 head per year.

Cold Storage Maybe New cropping practices and machinery have been introduced to save labor and get top production value per man. This year Pauls shifted to 30-inch corn rows with an eight-row planter and four-row harvesting equipment. He is now considering the use of a Frigidome storage and drying unit. This unit, which uses rigid air to cool 25,000 bushels of wet corn, would give Pauls the storage capacity to keep the corn moving as fast as it came from the field.

This 663-acre, 21/2-man farm has $33 more costs per acre than similar farms, but $49 more returns. Farm management specialists predict that the efficient, profitable hog production demonstrated on this farm suggests the blueprint for 1975 farming.

The tour is sponsored by the Illinois Farm Bureau Farm Management Service and the U. of I. Cooperative Extension Service. Extension specialists and farm management fieldmen will be present to discuss this farm operation.

The farm is located northwest of the junction of U.S. 66 and Illinois 121. A pork chop barbecue will be served at noon, for which reservations must be made through farm advisers.

Morgan 4-H Members Enter 90 Beef Steers

Apparently the heat and the drought didn't affect the 4-H boys and girls of Morgan county very much. They're going to bring just as much livestock to the Junior Fair as they did last year.

They are going to show 90 beef steers Tuesday. This is slightly up from last year.

In the beef cattle breeding classes they'll show 42 head of Angus, 12 head of Herefords and 20 head of Shorthorns.

Altogether the 4-H beef cattle count will be 164 head.

The dairy cattle show will be about the same, 31 head. There will be 8 head of Ayrshires, 7 Guernseys, 7 Holsteins, 8 Milking Shorthorns and 1 lone Jersey.

There are a few less sheep entered in this year's show, 97 head of breeding stock and 32 market lambs. Cheviots lead the list with 24 head, followed by Corriedale, 13; Suffolk, 9; Hampshire, 8; Southdown, 5.

Modernization Loans Available To Rural Areas

Farmers Home Administration County Supervisor Norman T. Torrens, Jacksonville, asserts new or improved housing is well within the price range of most rural families with small incomes, because of new federal government financing arrangements.

"In this section of Illinois," Torrens continued, "we are helping families building housing on which their monthly payments, in some cases, will be as low as $35."

Other families are making plans to have their homes renovated inside and out.

"Our loans for home improvement," Torrens added, "enable a family to put new siding on their house and fix-up and paint-up the interiors as well as the outside. These funds can also finance the installation of a bathroom or an extra bedroom."

Funds are provided by private lenders with repayment guaranteed by the federal government. Farmers Home Administration credit is advanced only when the applicant's needs cannot be met by other lenders.

Roodhouse

ROODHOUSE—Mrs. Thomas Gill and daughter and two sons of Sacramento, Calif., and her aunt, Mrs. Clara Folk Bement, and grandson, Dan Folk, Mansfield, visited Wednesday in the home of Miss Mabel Hopkins. The visitors are relatives of the Harp, Rawlins and Hopkins families and took back with them one of the Roodhouse Centennial books.

Mrs. Theodore Little and son, Alan Dale, Monmouth, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Effie Havin, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Little.

Mrs. W. Clyde Kinser, Springfield, was an overnight visitor in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Clyde Hopkins, in order to attend the Centennial parade on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Davis of Chicago attended the Centennial and visiting his two sisters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vinyard and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Savage and others.

MAJOR SERAVALS OF HILLVIEW SPEAKS TO ROODHOUSE CLUB

ROODHOUSE — Russell Carey, program chairman, Wednesday night at the Rotary Club presented an honorary member, Maj. Henri Servais of Hillview, who spoke on the subject, Why Do Fools Despise Wisdom?

A number of members volunteered to sell tickets for the rides in the midway during the Centennial celebration.

President James F. Hopkins announced that the dinner next Wednesday night has been cancelled in order that members may participate in the parade and celebration. The club will drive a float in the parade.

Wednesday night's dinner was served by members of the Adell Rebekah Lodge.

Eugene Adams, Sr., has re-entered the Springfield Memorial hospital for treatment. He expects to remain there for one week.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Harvey Hull are her sister, Miss Fern Haigh, Jacksonville, and her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hull, Wood River. The son and wife have just returned from a vacation spent in Wisconsin and Canada.

The tour is sponsored by the Illinois Farm Bureau Farm Management Service and the U. of I. Cooperative Extension Service. Extension specialists and farm management fieldmen will be present to discuss this farm operation.

The farm is located northwest of the junction of U.S. 66 and Illinois 121. A pork chop barbecue will be served at noon, for which reservations must be made through farm advisers.

ACROSS THE FIELDS AND FURROWS

with ED GARLICH

Purdue Researchers Find Another Bad Feature of Giant Foxtail! Marvin M. Schrieber and J. L. Williams, Jr., both researchers in the botany and plant pathology departments of Purdue University at West Lafayette, Indiana, have found another bad feature of giant foxtail.

They report that this ubiquitous plant pest is not only avicious when it comes to plant food and available moisture but may have another loathsome characteristic.

In addition to robbing corn of soil moisture and nutrients, the roots of the weed may contain poisonous substances which further impeded the growth of the corn.

Corn roots grown in cartons containing giant foxtail root residues mixed with the soil, were not as large as those grown in cartons of soil not containing the weed residues.

One more good reason for declaring war on this pest:

FROM THE CORN CRIB: A law school professor was puzzled about the mark he should give the student who wrote about wills:

"A will is a written document in which a person tells how he wants his property divided among his heirs."

Across the Fields and Furrows is brought to you daily at 12:25 P.M. on W L D S 1180 on your dial by the people at Elliott State Bank.

Today's hand was played in the days before anyone had thought of a four no-trump convention to ask for aces. Therefore, South made no effort to reach a grand slam in spite of knowing that all he would need from dummy would be two aces plus the king of trumps.

To say that South was disappointed by the dummy is an understatement. He glared as if it were a poisonous snake.

East won the club lead with the ace and returned the suit. South wanted to be in dummy immediately so he discarded his ace of diamonds and let dummy win. Then he led a trump and finessed his queen. West produced the king and returned a third club for South to ruff. South played out his ace of trumps. West showed out and South was down two.

The hand is shown for two reasons. The first is to point out the folly of North's immediate trump raise. We generally approve of raising partner's first bid suit with three trumps and no other logical bid. But here North held such a minimum opening that it behooved him to discourage his partner by a two no-trump call rather than to encourage him by an immediate raise.

Secondly, the hand shows the classic safety play situation. Playing at six, South could not afford to lose a trump trick. His best play for all the tricks was the one he adopted. It would win for him against king-small or king and two small in the East hand.

Had the contract been five South would have made six. His best play to avoid two losers would be to lay down his ace. That would drop the singleton king whereupon he would go to dummy and finesse against East's jack.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South

Pass	3 ♦	Pass	3 ♥
Pass	4 ♠	Pass	?

You, South, hold:

♠ A K 8 7 6 3 2 ♦ K J 5 ♣ A 8 4

What do you do?

A—Bid five diamonds. This bid clearly tells your partner that you want the hand to play in diamonds and that you are extremely interested in a slam.

Instead of responding one diamond, your partner bids one heart. What do you do now?

SEE IF YOU CAN FIND THE LOST PUPPY

1. 2. 3.

Melvin's Uncle Jake takes him and the dog Gomer out to the little cabin in the woods where the two will spend their vacation. Jake is pleased with his uncle's plans and they both look forward to having a relaxed time far from civilization. Gomer seems to feel the same way.

Later that evening Melvin and Uncle Jake sat on the porch in the deepening dusk and listened to the frogs croaking and the owls hooting down on the creek, and heard the nighttime cry of wild birds from the wooded hills. And with a contented look about him akin to blissful delight, Gomer lay at their feet with his great head between his paws and his eyes searching the night.

Yellow Moon

Finally the night was closing in and the moon was a faint yellow glow, slowly disappearing behind a hill to the west. And as he puffed reflectively on his pipe in the gathering darkness Uncle Jake observed quietly, "Want to be at the river by sun-up, son. Fish always bite better before the heat of the day sets in."

Melvin looked around quickly. "The river? Where is it? All I've seen is a little creek down in the bottom."

Uncle Jake knocked the ashes from his pipe on the porch railing and pointed. "The river is just beyond that high ridge, son. We'll have to leave the car and walk to it," he said. Then he stood up and stretched his elongated frame, and Melvin and Gomer followed him inside.

Gomer Not Alone

Daybreak the next morning found Melvin and Uncle Jake at the crest of the great ridge overlooking the river. And although the sky was clear and the day promised good fishing, Melvin was strangely silent.

Observing him closely Uncle Jake paused and let his tackle box to the ground. "Still worried about leaving Gomer behind, eh son?"

Melvin nodded. "I feel sort of guilty or something. Leaving him shut up in that old shed and everything." He acknowledged with a faint smile.

"But a big retriever like Gomer would be in and out of the water all day and keep the fish scared away," Uncle Jake pointed out. "Don't worry about him. He'll get his share of swimming when the duck hunting season comes in."

Island Beckons

They went on then and soon the river came into view. And as they stood on the bank Uncle Jake pointed to an island out some three hundred yards or so. "The good fishing is over there, son," he declared. "We'll get in a boat and go across."

He led the way then down the bank to a clump of willows where a light craft was anchored to a tree and they climbed in and shoved off. The sun was up and its rays playing over the water reflected brilliantly. There was a quietness in the air. And as they turned the boat around and headed for the island only the splashing sound made by the oars broke the stillness of the day.

Then as they reached the island Uncle Jake gathered up the fishing gear hurriedly and stepped from the boat. "Tie her up and bring the oars with you, son," he called back over his shoulder. "Can't risk some prankster making off with 'em. I've known such things to happen."

But a little later the sun had disappeared behind a cloud and a dark, threatening blur was slowly gathering in the west. And even as the rumble of thunder came from afar Uncle Jake cast his spinner into the water and glanced up at the overcast sky. "Looks like a storm coming over, son," he said with concern.

"Yeah, and it's getting plenty close," Melvin added with an uneasy gesture. "Maybe we'd better get back to the boat and head for the house."

Prayer Poem

Unchangeable Purpose

By Mary Pence Claywell

The Morning Star hangs in the sky;
I see it there, serene and high
And somehow, feel that man will never
Reach those HEAVENLY BODIES... ever:
What makes one feel, it won't be done?
Because God made stars, moon, and sun,
To give us day, and conquer night,
The GREATER... and the LESSER LIGHT:
He also, made for USE OF MAN...
The EARTH BELOW, and ALL there-in;
And the HEAVENLY PASS, He offered him,
Was through REPENTANCE, of his sins;
And he must WAIT till Jesus comes,
To GATHER all the SAVED ones Home;
His WORD'S COMPLETE, but man's forgot...
What's SAID IS SAID... what's NOT, is NOT!

SPACE RESCUE

By WALTER B. HENDRICKSON JR.

Both the Air Force and Na-rocket like the Agena or some other emergency supplies, other than a steering system, they would have to wait about two weeks for an Agena Assistance Vehicle to be checked out and launched. This would be too long for NASA's Gemini spacecraft which are not prepared for both space walks and long term stays in space on the same mission.

The system could be used for the Air Force's Manned Orbiting Laboratory (MOL) which is equipped for both. However, the difficulty would have to be spotted early in the MOL's thirty day mission.

A quicker rescue could be provided by using a Titan II or Titan III-C rocket. This rocket could be kept fueled and ready to go within 12 hours.

Incidentally, the Agena target vehicles now being used in the Gemini program would be of some help in an emergency. The Agena's guidance system and its rocket could be used to start a return to earth. These rendezvous and dock with it, space walk over to get the re-Once reentry began the astronauts could separate from the Agena. If necessary a reentry can be made with only a small amount of the spacecraft's fuel remaining—although this is far from the most perfect reentry. This was proven on the second Mercury manned orbital flight when Astronaut Carpenter reentered with all of the fuel gone from his steering jet system and only 15 per cent left in his automatic controls.

Weddings PARTIES and CLUBS

Fisher-Seavey

PITTSFIELD—Miss Kay Seavey of Milledgeville, Illinois and Lee Fisher of Pittsfield, were united in marriage Saturday evening, July second, at the East Jordan church in Sterling, Illinois.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Reverend William Bryan at an altar decorated with yellow gladioli, white pompons and palms.

Curt Williams was at the organ and Gene Haines sang.

The bride wore a full length gown of candlelight satin and Venice lace. Her floor length veil of silk illusion fell from a headdress of satin flowers accented with pearls and crystal. Her bouquet was of pink sweet-heart roses centering gardenias.

Mrs. James Seavey of Sterling, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Audrey Weilbacher and Miss Sue Hawkins both of Millstadt, were bridesmaids. The attendants were gowned alike in Nile green crepe floor length gowns. Crowns of white daisy mums and purple violets formed their headdresses which held shoulder length veils. Each carried a cascade of green daisies and white sunburst mums.

Marsha Seavey of Chadwick, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Terry Seavey, nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer. The little flower girl was dressed similar to the bride's attendants and carried a basket of daisies.

Gary Curtis of Pittsfield was best man. Groomsmen were James Seavey, the bride's brother and George Goodin of Pittsfield. Harry Seavey, another brother and Kent Zimmerman of Pittsfield, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore aqua crepe with matching lace jacket. The groom's mother was in an ice mint linen sheath. Both mothers wore pink sweetheart rose corsages.

At the reception held at the church Mrs. Gary Curtis, Pittsfield; Kathie Carter, Milledgeville; DeeAnn and Sara Fisher, sisters of the groom, Sylvia Kreider and Judy Cunningham assisted.

The bride graduated from Milledgeville High School, attended Southern Illinois University and is employed by Kraft Foods at Milledgeville. The groom graduated from Pittsfield High School and from McKendree College, Lebanon, Illinois this past June. He is serving with the U.S. Army, stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher entertained at a rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the Red Carpet dining room in Sterling for members of the wedding party and their guests.

Other guests attending from Pittsfield were Mrs. Kent Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. David Giger, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hurt and Norris Richards.

Kolker-Day

PITTSFIELD — Miss Maleta Carmen Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Day of New Canton and Dr. Stanley Louis Kolker were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, July sixteenth, at the Methodist church in New Canton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kolker of Baltimore, Maryland.

The Reverend Gilbert Fletcher performed the double ring ceremony. White mums and palms were used at the altar. Miss Sandra Brown was at the organ and Gary Brown was the soloist.

Donald Day gave his sister in marriage. The bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza over taffeta with a Chantilly lace bodice. A crown of seed pearls and sequins held her veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of stephanotis and gardenias.

Miss Karen Kaehert of St. Louis was maid of honor and Miss Carolyn Tilly, also of St. Louis, was bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in yellow dotted Swiss with matching headpieces. Each carried a cascade of daisies.

Captain Ronald Coyle of St. Louis was best man and John Dudley was groomsmen. Ushers were Eddie Codd, Raymond Venus, Stuart Hart and Dr. Allan Yokeson.

Anita Hart and Dwayne Hart, niece and nephew of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer.

At the reception held at the church Miss Dorothy McCoy, sister of the bride, was at the guest book. Others assisting were Myra Wombles and Sheila Hart.

The bride graduated from West Pike High School and is employed at the Shoppers Charge Service in St. Louis. Mr. Kolker graduated from the University of Maryland Dental School and is a Captain in the Air Force, stationed at Scott Field, Belleville, Illinois.

WED AT RUSHVILLE

RUSHVILLE — Miss Betty Sue Baxter of Ray and Ronald Dale Ford of Hillview were married Sunday, July 24 by Rev. Ronald Colton at the First Methodist church. Their attendants were Karen K. Unger and Richard M. Barnett.

Seymour-Jedrow

NEW SALEM — Miss Barbara Kay Tedrow and Carl Dean Seymour of Baylis were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, July seventeenth, at the local Methodist church. Palms were used at the candlelight altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flaud E. Tedrow and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seymour, all of Baylis.

Mrs. Everett Irick accompanied the soloist, Miss Linda Hammitt.

Miss Carol Steinbaker of Griggsville was maid of honor and Miss Rachel Irick, Pittsfield, was bridesmaid.

Jerry Liehr of Perry, was best man and Jerry Seymour, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. Ushers were Kent Seymour, another brother of the groom and Russell Tedrow, brother of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned on classic lines. A pearl encrusted headpiece held her waistlength veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of daisies and ivy.

The bride's attendants wore mint green whipped cream dresses made on princess lines, with matching headpieces.

A reception was held at the New Salem Town Hall. Assisting were Miss Betty Musgrave, Mrs. Donna Potter, Miss Susan Hammitt, Mrs. Nancy Applebaum, Mrs. Judy Coultas and Mrs. Beverly Willis.

The newlyweds are living at 249 North East avenue in Decatur. The bride graduated in 1965 from Griggsville High School and until her marriage was employed at the Brown Shoe Company. The groom, a 1964 graduate of the Pittsfield High School is employed by the Clean Towel Service in Decatur.

NICHOLS PARK LADIES DAY GOLF NEWS

The weatherman provided cloudy skies, a delightful breeze and lots of hard ground for Ladies Day last Tuesday. My mother's wish, "I hope you come home soaking wet," did not come true until Wednesday. Incidentally, a sight to behold, I'm sure was Alpha Witham, Betty Meyer and I sharing one umbrella under a tree!

The event for the day was Blind Partners. Park Pro, Bill Lynn selected the partners while we were playing, and gross scores were added after the round.

Alpha Witham and Edna Greenler were the first place winners, with Evelyn Cruzan and Marge Howard a close second. Edna Greenler received an additional ball for a chip in on the second hole, for a bird. This shot must have inspired Lucille Eberhardt as she drove the green on the next hole and continued on to shoot her best round of the season so far. I can't say that it did much for Toni Rayburn or myself, however we prefer to blame Toni's vacation from golf and my sore finger, for our problems.

Just a reminder concerning the Women's Championship Tournament, beginning Tuesday, August 3. Sign the list in the Pro Shop before Monday, August 2, or call Bill Lynn.

Pairings will be posted in the Pro Shop Tuesday morning, so those wishing to play their matches on Ladies Day may do so. Entry fee, $1.00, payable to Lucille Eberhardt, to cover tournament expenses. There will be two flights, with trophies for the winner and runnerup in each flight. This will be the final tournament of the season, so let's make it one hundred percent participation.

Until then—good golf and a good rain for everyone.

—Marge Howard

Invite Mao To Enter Swim Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The World Professional Marathon Swimming Federation says the welcome mat is out for Mao Tse-tung only if he's a swimmer — not a floater.

Following Mao's much-publicized dip in the Yangtze, the federation invited him to enter two 10-mile races to be held in Canada.

The official New China News Agency reported last weekend that the Chinese Communist leader, 72, swam nine miles in the choppy Yangtze on July 16.

Peking distributed a picture of the party chief with some fellow swimmers. It made a big splash on many front pages.

The swimming federation's invitation to Mao was extended by Carlos Larriera of Argentina, president of the group. He invited Mao to enter races scheduled for this weekend in Hamilton, Ont., and in Quebec City on Aug. 13.

"We are told you swam nine miles on July 16 in the excellent time of 1 hour, 5 minutes," wrote Larriera. "This should put you in line for championships in both events, since the record for the 10-mile Quebec swim, set last year by one of the fastest swimmers in the world, Herman Willemse of Holland, was 4 hours, 35 minutes."

Guilio Travaglio of Italy established in February a record of 3 hours, 56 minutes for the 10-mile Lake El Quilla race in Argentina, Larriera said.

A federation spokesman said today that since the letter was made public, several persons have suggested that Mao might have been able to lower the world record because of strong currents in the Yangtze River.

The Navy said it did not know the speed of currents in the river but added they are so strong a ship with twin engines can be held still while going against them.

The spokesman said one person suggested that the currents were so strong that Mao might have covered the nine miles in 65 minutes by floating.

"This all may be true," the spokesman said. "But if he's a swimmer, we want him. If he's a floater, he better stay home."

Beckert Single Lifts Cubs To Win Over Mets

NEW YORK (AP) — Glenn Beckert's bases-loaded single with two out in the eighth inning drove in two runs and lifted the Chicago Cubs to a 7-4 victory over the New York Mets Thursday night.

The Cubs had loaded the bases against reliever Jack Hamilton on an infield single, catcher's interference and an error. After Hamilton struck out Adolph Phillips for the second out of the inning, Beckert singled. A wild pitch and New York's third error of the inning produced the final run.

SANDY KOUFAX of the Los Angeles Dodgers gives some pointers to Nancy Sinatra before a recent game. Nancy's a baseball fan, and probably a Koufax fan, too.

Reds Score 4-3 Triumph For 1st Win Over Astros

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jim Maloney held Houston to seven hits while the Cincinnati Reds exploded for four runs in the fifth inning and beat the Astros, 4-3, for the first time this season Friday night.

Bob Bruce had given up only one hit before the Reds bunched five hits in the fifth. It was Cincinnati's fourth straight victory and the Astros' sixth consecutive defeat.

Maloney struck out 13 batters as he went all the way for his 11th victory in 15 decisions. The defeat dropped Bruce's record to 2-8.

Following Mantle's homer, the Yankees loaded the bases on a walk and singles by Tom Tresh and Roger Maris before Elston Howard drew a walk, forcing in another run.

South Carolina Games Forfeited

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — The University of South Carolina was knocked from the top to the bottom of the 1965 Atlantic Coast Conference football standings Friday by an ACC ruling that two varsity players had received illegal aid.

ACC Commissioner Jim Weaver ordered that all games in which the two players participated be forfeited to the opposing team. He also said the players were restricted from further participation in athletics.

Weaver did not announce the names of the players nor the games to be forfeited. But it was learned in Columbia that all four ACC victories by South Carolina last year were reversed by the ruling.

South Carolina and Duke tied for the ACC football championship last year.

KIDD WILL NOT START
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — U.S. ski champion Billy Kidd recovering from ankle surgery, will not start in the world Alpine championships next month unless he returns to top form within the next nine days, his coach said Monday.

Kidd, who was operated on in Denver, Colo., last April, turned in the worst performance of his international racing career in the men's giant slalom race at Farolones Sunday. He finished 41st in a field of 96 with a time of 1:53.29.

Coach Bob Beattie, who announced the selections for the U.S. team which is to race at Portillo, put Kidd at the top of the men's list but said the choice was tentative.

Mantle Passes Gehrig HR Mark To Aid 2-1 Edge

CHICAGO (AP) — Mickey Mantle hit his 21st home run of the season Friday night to become the second-greatest home run hitter in Yankee history and lead New York to a 2-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Mantle's 494th homer snapped a scoreless tie with one out in the fourth inning. The clout into the second deck lifted Mantle past Lou Gehrig who had a career mark of 493. The blow also put Mantle in sixth place among baseball's all-time home-run leaders.

Following Mantle's homer, the Yankees loaded the bases on a walk and singles by Tom Tresh and Roger Maris before Elston Howard drew a walk, forcing in another run.

Al Downing blanked the White Sox until the eighth when they scored on singles by Pete Ward and Bill Skovron plus Jerry Adair's ground out.

Faison Finally Comes To Terms

ESCONDIDO, Calif. (AP) — Earl Faison ended his cold war with the San Diego Chargers by signing a contract with the American Football League team Friday.

The signing of the 6-5, 260-pound defensive end came one day after Faison and Charger General Manager Coach Sid Gillman denied they were about to reach an agreement.

Terms were not announced but Gillman said it did not include a bonus which Faison reportedly had been seeking. The San Diego Evening Tribune had reported Faison would sign for $30,000, a $5,000 boost over last year.

Faison played out his option last year and became a free agent May 1 along with defensive tackle Ernie Ladd, who signed with the AFL Houston Oilers.

Commissioner Joe Foss early this year voided a trade that had sent Faison and Ladd to the Oilers.

Ron Jackson, a rookie with the New York Knickerbockers, averaged 29.8 points a game for Clark College in Atlanta last season. He's a Chicago native and also played for Wisconsin.

Feels Mets Now Believe In Team

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Mets are winning because they've dropped their losing complex, explains Manager Wes Westrum.

"We've gotten away from our defeatism attitude and we're not making as many mistakes," said Westrum Friday as his team prepared to open a three-game series against the last-place Chicago Cubs.

Last-place Chicago Cubs? The Mets and last-place have gone hand and glove — not ball in glove — since 1962 when the National League expanded to 10 teams. They're No. 8 in the standings now and, with 45 victories, need only eight more to equal their high for one full season.

"The people are beginning to believe in us. When we're on the road, they don't leave the ballpark before the game is over," said Westrum, who replaced Casey Stengel as manager last August. "They come to see us play ball and not to make mistakes. We're treated with more respect everywhere we go."

Westrum's modest ambition is for his club to win 25 of its remaining 63 games. "We're gunning for 70 victories," he said determinedly. "That should bring us in about seventh or eighth. Anything can happen. This is a well balanced league. But if the boys continue to play as they have been, it's possible that we can finish in the first division."

Robinsons Again Spark Victory, 3-0

ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Brooks Robinson and Frank Robinson each drove in a run Friday night as the American League-leading Baltimore Orioles defeated Minnesota 3-0 behind the combined eight-hit pitching of Jim Palmer and Edie Fisher.

Brooks, who leads the league in runs batted in, drove in the first run of the game, his 82nd over-all, with a double down the left field foul line in the fourth inning. Luis Aparicio had beaten out an infield single and had been sacrificed to second.

Frank increased his league-leading home run total to 31 with a blast into the left field pavilion in the seventh.

Palmer, a 20-year-old right-hander, won his 12th game against four defeats but needed help from Fisher in the eighth inning after Jimmie Hall and Tony Oliva singled with one out.

Fisher came on and promptly induced Harmon Killebrew to ground into a double play.

Krausse's Pinch Double Allows 4-1 KC Victory

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Pitcher Lew Krausse socked a two-run double and Bert Campaner is added a two-run single in a four-run second inning as the Kansas City Athletics defeated Detroit 4-1 Friday night.

The Athletics loaded the bases in the second on singles by Ed Charles and Dick Green, a force out and a walk to Phil Roof. Then John Podres got two quick strikes on Krausse before the pitcher lashed a double to right center field, driving in two runs.

Campaner followed with a single for two more runs, and that was Kansas City's scoring for the night.

Krausse allowed the Tigers' only a second-inning, inside-the-park homer by Willie Horton.

STUDSTILL ENDS HOLDOUT
DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions announced Friday the signing of holdout flanker-back Pat Studstill and the claiming on waivers of rookie Joe Wellborn from the New York Giants.

Studstill walked out of the Lions training camp at Cranbrook Academy last Monday but showed up for practice Friday and signed his contract.

Buc's Rally Nets Edge Over Phils

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Jose Pagan's two-out, three-run double climaxed a four-run rally in the eighth inning that shot the National League-leading Pittsburgh Pirates past Philadelphia 5-3 Friday night.

Chris Short was pitching a two-hitter and had retired 15 straight batters when the Pirates struck in the eighth.

With one out, pinch hitter Gene Michael, Manny Mota and Gene Alley singled for one run, well, O'Dell (3), Face (9) and cutting the Phillies' lead to 3-2. Pagliaroni. W—O'Dell, 4-3. L—Short, 11-7.
Home runs—Philadelphia, Al-Denn Clendenon, loading the bases. Pagan then came up and drilled a double to left-center field, clearing the bases. Pagan was out trying for a triple.

The Phillies got all of their runs in the third inning when Rich Allen hit his 23rd homer following singles by John Briggs and John Callison.

Pittsburgh 010 000 04x—5 6 1

Pro Charts

By MURRAY OLDERMAN

Chicago Bears

OFFENSE
PASSING—Rudy Bukich had a fantastic year for guy who's left from wily vet Joe Fortunato, to spiritual leader of defense. Now up to Rudy to prove he can take a team all the way. Larry Rakestraw his lead in sight. RATING—A-

RECEIVING—Important for Mike Ditka to be happy as well as healthy. Best tight end in game. And the deep stuff is adequately stocked with flanker Johnny Morris, split ends Jim Jones and Dick Gordon. Latter two were rookie finds of '66. No shortage of receivers here. RATING—B+

RUNNING — Devasting, if Gale Sayers continues his pace. Out of this world, if Andy Livingston learns the little nuances of football. Has the raw ability of a Jim Brown. Vets Jon Arnett, Ron Bull provide the steadiness and the relief to keep Sayers fresh. Don't need more. RATING—A-

LINE—Credit Abe Gibbon with superb building job. Convinced bunch of nonentities they could handle anybody. Biggest touch of class comes from Mike Pyle at center. Besides Mike Rabold and Jim Cadile (guards), Bob Wetoska and Herman Lee (tackles). Abe looks for help from George Seals and Palmer Pyle, maybe Riley Mattson and rookie Frank Cornish. RATING—B

KICKING—Booming punter in Bobby Joe Green, good as any, but quality drops off in place-kicking, where Roger Leclerc wins job annually, almost by default. At least, he generally makes extra points. RATING—B-

DEFENSE
LINE—Retirement of end Doug Atkins was only a between-seasons thing. Lucky for Bears, because they need big Doug on flank. Dick Evey came strong on other side. Ed O'Bradovich might recapture form. Bit of shuffling going on at tackles, where incumbents Earl Leggett, Bob Kilcullen might give way to Seals and rookie named Franklin McRae. RATING—B

LINEBACKING—Bruiser But-

Bob Vinyard tossed a fifty two-hitter, both singles, and struck out 11 batters in the nightcap. The one Alton run was unearned. Ron Tomhave led the batting parade with a triple and a two-run homer, both in an eight-run fifth.

Tomhave started the decisive fifth with a triple, scoring on a safe on an error and Wayne Smith reached on a fielder's choice. Spangenberg doubled in two runs and Oldenettel one with a sacrifice fly. Bob Speaks' double and Sonny Hickox' single added another run before Tomhave's two-run blast ended the scoring.

Jimmy Brown . . . Running in Another Direction

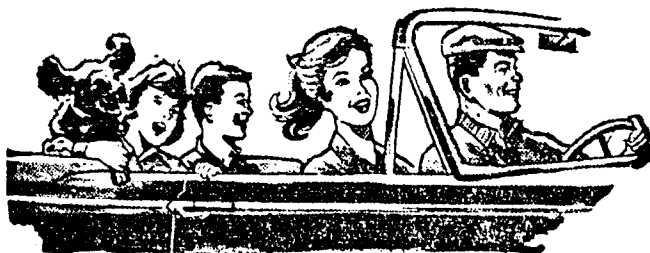

The gentleman wearing the Cleveland Browns uniform, left, is the same as the one wearing the U.S. Army uniform, right. And that is why Art Modell, owner of the Browns, is having headaches. Jimmy Brown has announced his retirement from pro football to concentrate on his acting career and other business interests. Currently, Brown is in England filming "The Dirty Dozen." Brown has been one of the great running backs in the history of pro football.

1866 Fair A Grand Success

The County Fair opened yesterday under favorable auspices. The day was pleasant and everything passed off remarkably well. This day is not generally a very important day in a fair, it generally being devoted to preparations for the succeeding days. The number in attendance was as large as is usual upon such occasions. The number of entries in the various departments is far above the average of preceding fairs.

That's what Frank Mitchell, local editor of the JOURNAL wrote for the Wednesday, Oct. 17, 1866 issue.

Opening day was pretty slow and Mitchell couldn't find much to write about.

The Morgan County fair was getting off on par. Nothing special was planned, for the men in charge knew that was the way to do it. The farmers of the county and the surrounding area would take the day to come to the fair, park their wagons, arrange for feeding and watering their teams and make other arrangements for their families, so they would be ready for the activities and fun that was to come during the next three days.

In those days the Morgan County fair was always a success. Stockholders always got at least a 10% dividend, and once a 22% dividend.

Just Different Days
Somehow our boys today, even though the state ladies in quite a chunk of currency, can't do much better than break even.

It's just a difference in time. To many families "Fair Week" was what they looked forward to through the long and back-breaking hours of May, June, July, August and September.

Come October off to the fair they went, to see new things, meet new people, new experiences, new ideas.

The fairgrounds a hundred years ago was located precisely where the 1866 fair will be held. But what a different place.

In 1866 a board fence 12 feet high surrounded the place. Most of the 40 acres was a beautiful grove of elm, oak and maple. The southeastern part was cleared off for the amphitheatre which seated "10,000 people in the day." There the trotting and running races began and ended, with the mile track running to the north and then back again to the grandstand. People not too much interested in the race could sit in their carriage or wagon under the shade of a tree and watch the horses go by.

Some Grandstand
The amphitheatre was built in 1860 when Jacksonville was awarded the annual state fair. When it was finished it dazzled newspaper writers from St. Louis and Chicago.

There were also, in 1866, a half-dozen other permanent buildings, including the horticulture and fine arts building that was constructed in the form of a Grecian cross. Then there were the two dining halls and Editor's Hall, where the management always kept a keg of a "very fine article of whiskey" for the benefit of the scribes.

Yes, times do change.

On opening day Scribe Mitchell admired some "mammoth cabbage and some very large turnips raised by Robert James." He noted that "there was a nice display of jams, pickles, jellies, etc., and a large show of home-made wines." He feared that the season was too late to permit much of show in fruit.

In the ladies' department there were more than 20 quilts, one pieced by a girl of 9 and one by a venerable lady of 60. There were some very nice paintings, in water-colors and in oils, but the one he liked best was the full-colored likeness of "Old Abe," the bald eagle mascot of the 8th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War.

We can see "Old Abe" today, for he was adopted as the trademark of the Case Thresher Co. of Racine, Wisc.

Another nice painting, in aquatint, was "Reading of the Proclamation of Emancipation."

Unexciting Race
The horse race on opening day didn't amount to much. It was restricted to "any horse, mare or gelding, never before run, mile heats, best two of three, premium $25." There were only three entries. It was won by "Fanny Dunning," entered by Kelsey Bros. of Jacksonville.

"For a 'green' race, that time is said to be tolerably fast," Mitchell wrote.

The next day, Wednesday, the 17th, "the morning dawned fair and clear" and a good-sized crowd was on the grounds when the cattle show began at 10 o'clock.

Most people said the cattle show was as good as in any year since 1860. There were 12 rings, and in some cases the three judges were "right puzzled" as to where to place the ribbons.

They agreed that the Durham bull, Young Lexington, was the best in his class. He was owned by John Lasburg of Pike county, and was considered just a shade better than "Jacob Strawn," entered by the Insane Asylum.

The judging committee particularly praised a pair of bull calves entered by E.B. Hitt of Exeter. He and E. L. Gillham of near Merritt carried off most of the blue and red ribbons in the cattle show.

There was no dairy cattle show in those days. In fact it was several years before people thought "milk" cows important enough to warrant a premium. And the cycle is nearly around again.

Big Day For Kelley
In the early afternoon there was the thoroughbred horse show. There were some mighty fine steeds entered, but the majority of blues were taken home by J. C. Kelley, who ran a deluxe livery stable on the north side of East Court street. J. S. Rector and F. M. Morton took more than their share of the remaining premiums, but Josiah Strawn scored with his "best suckling colt."

In his account of the day Scribe Mitchell noticed that his friend, Charles M. Eames, had a fine display of his patented Grover & Baker sewing machines in the north end of the horticultural building. Eames was also serving as secretary of the fine arts department. Evidently he didn't care too much about the sewing machine business because within a month he began working as "Local Editor" for the JOURNAL. He was a natural newspaperman, with just enough spice and sparkle to make ordinary things interesting. Although only 22 years old he soon bought an interest in the paper, and within five years owned it outright.

With him, however, politics was a nuisance and when Cleveland defeated Blaine he sold the paper and went to Kansas and bought a bookstore. In this, too, he prospered.

The Big Race
About 8,000 people, at a dime each, were in the amphitheatre "when the double trotting races commenced at 3 1/2 o'clock."

There were three entries, but the fans had eyes for only two—a splendid pair of mares driven by C. Clingfield of Springfield and a wonderful pair of horses driven by J. C. Kelley of Jacksonville.

(Mitchell understood the Sangamon county horseman's name was "Clingenpeel" and that is the way it came out in the paper. Well, that's not too bad an error, at least everybody who read it knew who he was talking about. Just as today, when you hear a TV announcer talk about "assburn" you know its good for headaches.)

Clingfield was slightly favored, but the home town boys were for Kelley. After jockeying around (scoring) for 20

FOREIGN

July, 1866
Ten years ago there were but eight Lutheran ministers in Paris, and only four Lutheran churches. Now the number of ministers is twenty-one, and they have under their charge fourteen chapels and churches. Vast numbers of German laborers have been attracted to Paris within a few years, and the whole population has been rapidly increasing. The French Government, at its own expense, has recently erected a fine church for the Lutherans, and has legally transferred it to their use.

It is said that Prince Christian, who has just married Helena, Victoria's daughter, has induced the royal family to withdraw the prohibition against smoking in Windsor Castle, and that the Queen has directed the architect of Balmoral to build a smoking room in the royal residence in the Highlands.

—Harper's Weekly.

minutes the judge sent them on their way. It was neck and neck, with the mares at the pole and the winners by a length.

Shoe. Race Lost
After a 30 minute rest, during which time everybody either paid up or was paid, and the bets leveled for the next heat, the teams came out again, with the mares at the pole.

Halfway around the track the off mare threw a shoe, broke stride, and the horses came in. The next heat Kelley won easily.

"This match closed the second day," Mitchell wrote. "Altogether the day had been a good one, the crowd in attendance was large, and everything went off so nice that the officers of the association are in much better humor, and wearing more smiling faces than they have been known to do for a long time."

(Maybe next week we'll have an account of the last two days of the Morgan County Fair of 1866.)

News, Views Century Ago

From the Jacksonville Sentinel:
The Great Eastern arrived at Heart's Content on last Saturday morning, July 21st, having successfully laid the Atlantic cable. Complimentary messages have since passed between Queen Victoria and President Johnson.

The Pittsfield DEMOCRAT estimates that rain fell in Pike county last week to the depth of 12 inches, destroying property to the amount of $500,000.

On Saturday last the despatches announced the appointment of Capt. Horace Chapin as Post Master of this city. The appointment has created considerable surprise among all parties. Outside of politics, Chapin is a gentleman of courteous and popular manners.

Cases of cholera infantum and diarrhea have been numerous in this city within the last two weeks, and many cases have been fatal among children.

The walls of the new woolen factory, south of the brook, are completed and ready for the roofing. The building is but two stories high, but covers a large area of ground.

Two escaped prisoners from Cass county jail, a man and a woman, were a day or two since traced by Constable Henderson, of this city, into Pike county and brought back. The great foot race appointed to come off Saturday proved a fizzle. One of the high contracting competitors in speed unceremoniously took French leave before the appointed hour, leaving his backers "to hold the bag."

From the Carrollton Gazette:

Whitehall Locals — REFRACTORY — Quite an exciting scene transpired the other morning, as our French Louie was trying to drive a fat cow up Main street. After running by him a number of times, the animal leaped the fence and boldly walked on to the porch of Mr. James Israel's residence. The next attempt met with better success, as the beast plunged into the office of the Main Street House, and after a tour of inspection, made its exit by the back yard. She was finally driven through the town by the aid of bystanders, and a good many COT TAMS from the gallant Frenchman.

PUBLIC BENEFIT — An extension to the platform of our depot is being built. The platform accommodations have never been sufficient for the purpose. What there was of it was generally filled with bystanders and loafers while the passengers had to get off in the mud, and we hail the present addition as a step in the right direction.

From the Beardstown Central Illinoisian:

THE CASS COUNTY WEEKLY COURIER — J. S. Harper, Esq., formerly a resident of this place, has started a paper with the above title in Virginia, in this county. The paper is Republican in politics and bids fair to be an able co-worker for the good cause of loyalty and human rights. We think that three newspapers are more than little Cass can sustain, but for the sake of the cause, the editor and all persons interested, we hope the Courier will succeed.

We are under obligations to Hon. Richard Yates, for public documents.

THE RIVER — The late rains have raised the river at this place three feet. It is now in good boating condition and will not be likely to get very low anytime this season.

MILITARY MISSION
NEW YORK (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the Lutheran Church in America and head of the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches, will visit U.S. military personnel in the Far East. The two-week pastoral tour of military installations begins Nov. 7 in Tokyo.

DOMESTIC

July, 1866
On the 1st instant the New York City poundkeeper had been at work for about six weeks and had drowned 3,600 dogs—one hundred a day. The largest proportion of the business was done at the beginning of the dog season.

The exports of petroleum from this country to Europe are rapidly increasing. The exports to date this year are four times as large as during 1865.

The Denver News announces that a new daily line of stage coaches is to be put on the Smoky Hill route. The road is now being stocked, and the coaches will commence running about the 1st of September.

The granite arch at Plymouth, over the place where the Pilgrims first landed, which is to be twenty-five feet high when finished, has stopped at twelve feet, the funds being exhausted.

In Central Georgia thousands of freedmen are agitating the question of immediate emigration to Liberia. This spirit was said to be rife among them at their late demonstration in Macon.

Mr. Charles T. Willard, a well known photographer of Philadelphia, met with a sudden death on Friday. He was passing along Fifth street, in that city, when he accidentally fell into a deep cellar, recently excavated. Mr. Willard was the inventor of ciphers for telegraphing, which were used in the army during the war.

Several young men who left Springfield, Mass., in April last, for Montana, have returned, impressed with the idea that the golden Territory is not all their fancy painted it. They visited eleven different mines, lost a round sum for the trip, and finally concluded that home was the best place for them.

The Chicago papers, now that the cholera has fairly made its appearance in that city, assert that the disease has prevailed there ever since the early part of June, but that the physicians, to avoid creating a panic, have called it by a milder name.

$5,000 Fire Damages House North Of City

Fire officials estimated damage to a frame house northeast of Jacksonville at between $5,000 and $6,000 Friday night.

The home owned by James R. Parker, Route 3, was burning several minutes prior to discovery at 7:45 p.m. The house is located 1/2 mile east of Route 67. Parker was moving the yard at the time the fire started.

Firemen were at the scene about an hour and pumped water from the city water wagon in preventing the blaze from spreading further.

Two possible causes of the blaze may have been something burning in a waste basket or towels hanging near the stove ignited by a pilot light on the range. Insurance officials at the scene said the loss is completely covered.

The kitchen, located in the southwest corner, was gutted by the blaze. There was also heavy structural damage to an enclosed porch and hallway. The entire house sustained extensive smoke damage.

City Building Commission Elects Officers

Members of the Jacksonville Building Commission met Tuesday evening for an organizational meeting for the current year.

R. J. Reuck, was elected chairman; James L. Malone, vice chairman; William F. Spencer, secretary, and Gilbert H. Todd, treasurer. Todd was sworn in as a commissioner at the opening of the meeting. He replaced Charles Quinn.

Members of the commission finalized plans for the new city hall building scheduled for construction on West Douglas.

Chairman Reuck said the commission will ask the mayor to call a special meeting of the city council so that aldermen can approve plans for the building and the bidding date may be set.

The special council meeting may be called sometime next week.

House Destroyed Near Winchester Friday Afternoon

A home and a shed four miles southeast of Winchester were destroyed by fire about 2:30 p.m. Friday.

Winchester volunteer firemen were summoned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thomas but firemen said the roof had caved in by the time they arrived. Four lawn chairs were saved.

Firemen said the home had just been remodeled and the Thomases were not at home when the fire was discovered.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Bray Services Conducted Here

Funeral services for Miss Alice K. Bray were held at 10:30 a.m. Friday at Gilham-Buchanan Funeral Home. Reverend William J. Boston officiating. Mrs. Genevieve Wood served as organist.

Graveside rites were conducted at Grafton City cemetery at 2 p.m. Friday.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES SUNDAY

The congregation of Mount Emory Baptist church will hold anniversary services for Reverend and Mrs. H. N. Nance at 3:30 p.m. Sunday.

Reverend L. R. Hubbard of Pleasant Grove Baptist church, Springfield, will be guest speaker and will be accompanied by members of the church choir. The public is welcome.

SOUTH JACKSONVILLE FIRE CALL FRIDAY

South Jacksonville volunteer firemen answered a call at Jacksonville Foods Supermarket, 1417 South Main Street, about two o'clock Friday afternoon.

An air conditioner repairman started to weld a part of the unit and ignited a portion of the insulation around the unit which had absorbed a quantity of oil. Damage was confined to the air conditioning unit of the store.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It has been a few months since Richard Chamberlain abandoned his bedside manner as Dr. Kildare, but the earnest young medic continues to haunt him.

"And will continue for some time to come," he admits.

After all, the NBC series has been on the network for five years and will continue to run itself to death in the late summer. Now Chamberlain is faced with the challenge that comes to all stars of television series: establishing his own identity.

As a first move in the campaign, Chamberlain embarked on a four-week tour of summer theaters in the Noel Coward comedy, "Private Lives" The results?

"Mixed," the actor admitted. "The audiences laughed all the way, but it was tough playing an intimate comedy in theaters seating up to 4,000 people.

"While the audiences seemed to like the show, I could sense the resistance to my appearing as something besides Kildare. During the early part of the play, there would be an undercurrent of comment as people said things like, 'But his hair team next winter. He's from isn't blond?' or, 'He doesn't Honolulu sound the same on TV.'"

"After the performance there would be an autograph line, which was kind of a drag, but it did give me a cross-section of opinion. Men would say, 'I bet you're glad you don't have to play that goodie-goodie any more,' while women commented, 'Why did you change your hair?'"

The hair is part of his escape plan. He changed from his good-guy blond to a shade somewhat darker than his natural brown.

Chamberlain realizes, of course, that it will take more than a change of hair shade to create himself in a new image. He's reading scripts in search of a movie to aid the campaign.

He made two movies under his MGM contract, which still extends a year and a half. Neither advanced his film career.

Myers Brothers "STOP KILLING YOURSELF"

Abdominal Support FOR LONGER LIFE

Why do widows outnumber widowers? To the traditional team of work and worry, long branded the guilty pair, weight has been so strongly linked by science that dieting, once a woman's pastime, has become a male preoccupation.

And now comes evidence that it isn't just the paunch, but the sag, that brings on the pallbearers—that the girdles that give the ladies their girlish figures may also be extending their lives.

The idea that control under shorts, tightening the abdominal muscles and expanding the chest, improve not merely appearance but health isn't exactly a new one. Long before modern drugs came on the market, doctors prescribed abdominal belts for men with heart ailments.

But new research, reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association, tends to show that the new drugs may be no more effective than the old-fashioned belt—or the modern control shorts. Scripps Institute scientists found that "application of the belt previous to exercise reduced or prevented the abnormal postexercise increase in the amplitude of the A-wave of the apex cardiogram," just as popularly-prescribed glyceryl trinitrate.

How do control shorts help the heart? One famed medical writer, Dr. P. J. Steiner, writes that it helps the circulation of the blood, and "thereby takes an unnecessary load off the heart. And when one multiplies this by the heartbeats which add up to a few billion in the normal lifetime, one can understand how a simple abdominal support might aid years to a man's life."

Many doctors are suggesting the increasingly popular new types of men's control shorts to their patients, and finding back and breathing as well as circulation benefits. The most popular type, MANDATE, "underwear that slims," meets the Medical Journal's prescription of a belt "rigidly applied to the abdomen in such a manner that it does not disturb the patient's respiration or produce discomfort."

Sunday SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. William Frederick Hoesman

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Perkins

Open House will be held Sunday afternoon, August seventh, from two to four o'clock, celebrating the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ora L. Perkins of Murrayville. The reception will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perkins, 1425 South East street in Jacksonville, for family and friends.

Miss Blanche B. Wells and Ora L. Perkins are the parents of three living children, Robert A. Perkins, Jacksonville; Leora M., wife of Milton F. Cook, Hattiesburg, Miss.; and Mrs. Ora L. Perkins of Murrayville. The groom's mother was in a blue ensemble with white trim. The mothers wore corsages of white roses.

Meyer-Koster

CARROLLTON — Miss Mary Lois Koster and Bernard Henry Meyer were united in marriage Saturday morning, July twenty-third, at the St. John's Catholic church here.

Yellow daisies adorned the church altar where the Reverend Vincent Worland received the vows. George Schenelton was soloist and Mrs. Laurence Thien was at the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Koster of Carrollton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meyer, all of Carrollton.

Miss JoDell Tapen was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kay Ballard of Patterson, Miss Judy Wollenweber and Miss Karen Gortley.

Donald D. Becker was best man and Ed Wollenweber, Reginald Meyer and Ronald Meyer were groomsmen. Ushers were John Koster and James Meyer.

The bride wore a gown of chiffon and lace over taffeta with a lace sweep train. A lace petal headdress held her veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with an orchid center.

The bride's attendants wore identically fashioned gowns of chiffon and lace. The honor attendant wore moss green and pastel yellow and the bridesmaids gold and pastel yellow. Each carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies.

The mother of the bride wore pale green eyelette linen with white accessories and the groom's mother was in a blue ensemble with white trim. The mothers wore corsages of white roses.

At the reception held at the Knights of Columbus Hall Miss Sue McGlasson, Miss Margaret Kirchbach and Miss Sharon Baldes assisted.

The bride graduated from Carrollton High School in 1960 and the groom graduated in 1961 from Routh High School at Jacksonville. He is engaged in farming with his father. The couple will make their home on a farm a mile north of Carrollton.

Hoesman-Chumley

WHITE HALL — An afternoon ceremony last Sunday, July twenty-fourth, united in marriage Miss Judith Ann Chumley and William Frederick Hoesman. The Reverend Jack Thompson officiated at the First Baptist church.

Greenery banked the candlelight altar. Mrs. Charles Wyatt was at the organ and Miss Ethel Dolan sang.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John James Chumley and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hoesman, White Hall route two.

The bride's sister, Miss Janis Chumley of White Hall, was maid of honor. A sister of the groom, Mrs. Donald Christison, Jacksonville and Mrs. Forrest Jones and Mrs. Warren Fansler, both sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. All were gowned identically in blue bonded lace, made on Empire lines. The skirts were fashioned en train. Each carried a bouquet of blue daisies.

Otis Jones was best man and groomsmen were Charles Edwards, Forrest Jones and Warren Fansler. Ushers were Truman Short, Roodhouse; Gary James, Gale Ahern and Albert Hoesman of Chanderville, cousin of the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin and lace with a lace train which extended from the shoulders. A crown of lace and sequins held her veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of daisies.

The mother of the bride wore aqua cotton brocade with white accessories and the groom's mother was in an aqua knit with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the church ceremony. Assisting were Miss Linda Astman, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Otis Jones, Mrs. Jim Crabtree, Mrs. Kenneth Lorton, Miss Linda James, Miss Patty Williams, Miss Mary Hoesman, cousin of the groom, Mrs. Kenyon Cotter and Mrs. Donald Burton.

After a honeymoon in St. Louis, Missouri, the newlyweds left to make their home at Tacoma, Washington. The bride graduated from White Hall High School in 1964 and attended Miss Hickey's School in St. Louis. She was employed at the George Witt Business Service in White Hall until her marriage. The groom graduated from high school with the same class as the bride and is serving with the Army, stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Guests attended the wedding and reception from Jacksonville, Chicago, Chanderville and Alsey, Illinois; Fort Riley, Kansas; St. Louis, Mo. and the state of Colorado.

Ladies Golf At Jacksonville Country Club

Our lady golfers enjoyed a good day as guests of the Virginia Country Club on Tuesday with the final round to be with Old Sol hiding himself most of the morning for our comfort. Because of rain on Wednesday, only nine holes were played in a "Tee to Green" event.

Betty Brown and Rigi Fay tied for first in Class A, with Mae

Mueller and Mildred Plon tied winners for second place in that class. In Class B, Vera Sue Schneider won first with Dovie Piele, Wilma Jackson, and Liz Dowland tied for second place.

The Championship Tournament starts this week with the first round to be played on or before August 3rd, second round on or before August 10th, third round on or before August 15th, with the final round to be played August 17th. There will be a Consolation Flight for first round losers. Those not participating in the tournament will make their own pairings each week during the event.

Tournament pairings are as follows:

Championship Flight, 18 holes: Pay vs. Dawdy, Glisson vs. Pinson, Zachary vs. Bye, Perbix vs. Chumley, Bunch vs. Bye, Brown vs. Elliott, Reuck vs. Bye.

First Flight—18 holes: Floreth vs. Dyer, Piele vs. Cisne, Gross vs. Jackson, Little vs. Ellis, Grant vs. Harris, Casler vs. Rammelkamp, Duerwer vs. Luktman, Herrin vs. Carbone.

Second Flight—18 holes: Douglass vs. Rourke, Hess vs. Mangan, Doyle vs. Foster, Wright vs. Maysel Ware, McNaughton vs. Massey, Warner vs. Kraushaar, Wade vs. Newman, Murphy vs. Bye.

These pairings are posted on the Ladies' Bulletin Board at the club.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters

Members of Mu Eta chapter Beta Sigma Phi, gave a surprise pink and blue shower July 22nd for Linda Bione. The party was at the home of Norma Willner.

After the many gifts were opened games were played and refreshments served. The chapter president, June Hazelrigg, observed Opening Day will be observed by the chapter with 7 p.m. polluck dinner at the home of Linda Keegan.

Attending the July party were Mrs. Bione, Karole Claussen, Gloria Gray, June Hazelrigg, Glenda Keegan, Delores Matthews, Betty Means.

Sharon Prewitt, Lora Tolbird, Martha Varble, Sue Willard, Norma Willner and Barbara Woolldridge.

Sandra Clark, Noel Fraley Wed

ROODHOUSE — Miss Sandra K. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Champ Clark of White Hall and Noel Lynn Fraley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noel C. Fraley of Roodhouse, were married July 22 at the First Baptist church in Roodhouse.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Janvrin in the presence of the immediate families.

Mrs. Everett Lee Schofield served as the bride's matron of honor and Everett Lee Schofield was best man.

Mrs. Fraley is a graduate of North Greene High school. Her husband, a graduate of Roodhouse Community High school, was inducted into the U.S. Army in September of 1965 and is now at Ft. Belvoir, Va., serving in the medical corps.

To Be Bride

Carolyn Sheleen Mathews

BEARDSTOWN — Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Mathews, 1213 East Eighth street, announce the engagement and approach the marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Sheleen, to Robert Allan Kleinschmidt, son of Mrs. Lydia Kleinschmidt, 851 North Church street, Jacksonville, and the late Robert Kleinschmidt. The couple plans a September third wedding in Beardstown.

Miss Mathews graduated in 1964 from Beardstown High School and is employed at the Hertzburg New Method Book Bindery in Jacksonville. Mr. Kleinschmidt graduated from Arenville High School in 1960, served two years with the U.S. Army and is employed by the Keystone Corporation in Peoria,

The party was given at Hamilton's hosted by the Women's Division, Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, which co-sponsors the contest with the Morgan County Fair Association.

CIRCLE HAS PARTY AT BYERS HOUSE

The July meeting of Ruth Circle of Centenary church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Byers. At the picnic-swimming party for circle members and their husbands, special guests were Rev. and Mrs. Batz.

Circle members are asked to bring their dish towels and dish cloths for the church kitchen to the August meeting.

The meeting a "Come As You Are" meeting and will be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Norfleet. Hostesses are Mrs. Wayne Odell and Mrs. Richard Norfleet.

Ever add diced pineapple, along with diced celery, to chicken for salad? Nice for a ladies' lunch.

Pass	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead—♣ J

Today's hand was played in the days before anyone had thought of a four no-trump convention to ask for aces. Therefore, South made no effort to reach a grand slam in spite of knowing that all he would need from dummy would be two aces plus the king of trumps.

To say that South was disappointed by the dummy is an understatement. He glared as if it were a poisonous snake.

East won the club lead with the ace and returned the suit. South wanted to be in dummy immediately so he discarded his ace of diamonds and let dummy win. Then he led a trump and finessed his queen. West produced the king and returned a third club for South to ruff. South played out his ace of trumps. West showed out and South was down two.

The hand is shown for two reasons. The first is to point out the folly of North's immediate trump raise. We generally approve of raising partner's first bid suit with three trumps and no other logical bid. But here North held such a minimum opening that it behooved him to discourage his partner by a two no-trump call rather than to encourage him by an immediate raise.

Secondly, the hand shows the classic safety play situation. Playing at six, South could not afford to lose a trump trick. His best play for all the tricks was the one he adopted. It would win for him against king-small or king and two small in the East hand.

Had the contract been five South would have made six. His best play to avoid two losers would be to lay down his ace. That would drop the singleton king whereupon he would go to dummy and finesse against East's jack.

♥ CARD Sense ♦

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
Pass	1 ♦	Pass	1 ♠
Pass	3 ♦	Pass	2 ♠
Pass	4 ♣	Pass	3 ♥
Pass	4 ♣	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
 ♠ A K 7 ♥ A 3 2 ♦ K J 5 ♣ A 8 4

What do you do?

A—Bid five diamonds. This bid clearly tells your partner that you want the hand to play in diamonds and that you are extremely interested in a slam.

TODAY'S QUESTION
 Instead of responding one diamond, your partner bids one heart. What do you do now?

ROUGH-AND-TUMBLE fight scenes in the movies are staged affairs but a slip-up does happen occasionally and an actor can be injured. In "Hombre," Paul Newman, wearing Indian clothes, is baited into violence by a white man (David Canary) shown back to the bar. Newman smashes his rifle butt into his tormentor's face and, in this one, fortunately, no one was hurt. Three takes were necessary, however, consuming an entire day of shooting for about one minute of film on the screen.

Invite Mao To Enter Swim Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The World Professional Marathon Swimming Federation says the welcome mat is out for Mao Tse-tung only if he's a swimmer — not a floater.

Following Mao's much-publicized dip in the Yangtze, the federation invited him to enter two 10-mile races to be held in Canada.

The official New China News Agency reported last weekend that the Chinese Communist leader, 72, swam nine miles in the choppy Yangtze on July 16.

Peking distributed a picture of the party chief with some fellow swimmers. It made a big splash on many front pages.

The swimming federation's invitation to Mao was extended by Carlos Larriera of Argentina, president of the group. He invited Mao to enter races scheduled for this weekend in Hamilton, Ont., and in Quebec City on Aug. 13.

"We are told you swam nine miles on July 16 in the excellent time of 1 hour, 5 minutes," wrote Larriera. "This should put you in line for championships in both events, since the record for the 10-mile Quebec swim, set last year by one of the fastest swimmers in the world, Herman Willemse of Holland, was 4 hours, 35 minutes."

Guilio Travaglio of Italy established in February a record of 3 hours, 56 minutes for the 10-mile Lake El Quilla race in Argentina. Larriera said.

A federation spokesman said today that since the letter was made public, several persons have suggested that Mao might have been able to lower the world record because of strong currents in the Yangtze River.

The Navy said it did not know the speed of currents in the river but added they are so strong a ship with twin engines can be held still while going against them.

The spokesman said one person suggested that the currents were so strong that Mao might have covered the nine miles in 65 minutes by floating.

"This all may be true," the spokesman said. "But if he's a swimmer, we want him. If he's a floater, he better stay home."

Beckert Single Lifts Cubs To Win Over Mets

NEW YORK (AP) — Glenn Beckert's bases-loaded single with two out in the eighth inning drove in two runs and lifted the Chicago Cubs to a 7-4 victory over the New York Mets Thursday night.

The Cubs had loaded the bases against reliever Jack Hamilton on an infield single, catcher's interference and an error. After Hamilton struck out Adolpho Phillips for the second out of the inning, Beckert singled. A wild pitch and New York's third error of the inning produced the final run.

Larry Elliot had tied the game for the Mets with a sixth-inning homer. Ron Swoboda connected with two on in the first, giving New York an early 3-1 lead.

Reds Score 4-3

Triumph For 1st Win Over Astros

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jim Maloney held Houston to seven hits while the Cincinnati Reds exploded for four runs in the fifth inning and beat the Astros 4-3, for the first time this season Friday night.

Bob Bruce had given up only one hit before the Reds bunched five hits in the fifth. It was Cincinnati's fourth straight victory and the Astros' sixth consecutive defeat.

Maloney struck out 13 batters as he went all the way for his 11th victory in 15 decisions. The defeat dropped Bruce's record to 2-8.

Houston 000 000 102-3 7 0

Bruce, Taylor (5) and Bateman; Maloney and Edwards. W—Maloney, 11-4. L—Bruce, 2-8.

Following Mantle's homer, the Yankees loaded the bases on a walk and singles by Tom Tresh and Roger Maris before Elston Howard drew a walk, forcing in another run.

Al Downing blanked the White Sox until the eighth when they scored on singles by Pete Ward and Bill Skowron plus Jerry Adair's ground out.

New York 000 200 000-2 6 0

Home runs—New York, Mantle (21).

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — The University of South Carolina was knocked from the top to the bottom of the 1965 Atlantic Coast Conference football standings Friday by an ACC ruling that two varsity players had received illegal aid.

ACC Commissioner Jim Weaver ordered that all games in which the two players participated be forfeited to the opposing team. He also said the players were restricted from further participation in athletics.

Weaver did not announce the names of the players nor the games to be forfeited. But it was learned in Columbia that all four ACC victories by South Carolina last year were reversed by the ruling.

South Carolina and Duke tied for the ACC football championship last year.

KIDD WILL NOT START
SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — U.S. ski champion Billy Kidd recovering from ankle surgery, will not start in the world Alpine championships next month unless he returns to top form within the next nine days, his coach said Monday.

Kidd, who was operated on in Denver, Colo., last April, turned in the worst performance of his international racing career in the men's giant slalom race at Farefarens Sunday. He finished 41st in a field of 96 with a time of 1:53.29.

Coach Bob Beattie, who announced the selections for the U.S. team which is to race at Portillo, put Kidd at the top of the men's list but said the choice was tentative.

Ron Jackson, a rookie with the New York Knickerbockers, averaged 29.8 points a game for Clark College in Atlanta last season. He's a Chicago native and also played for Wisconsin.

Commissioner Joe Foss early this year voided a trade that had sent Faison and Ladd to the Oilers.

Faison played out his option last year and became a free agent May 1 along with defensive tackle Ernie Ladd, who signed with the AFL Houston Oilers.

Campaneris followed with a single for two more runs, and that was Kansas City's scoring for the night.

Krauss allowed the Tigers' only a second-inning, inside-the-park homer by Willie Horton. Detroit 010 000 000-1 7 1

Kansas City 040 000 000-4 7 1

Podres, Wickensham (6), Gladding (8) and Freehan; Krauss, Aker (7) and Roof. W—Krauss, 7-5. L—Podres, 2-2.

Home run — Detroit, Horton (14).

STUDSTILL ENDS HOLDOUT
DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions announced Friday the signing of holdout flanker-back Pat Studstill and the claiming on waivers of rookie Joe Wellborn from the New York Giants.

Studstill walked out of the Lions training camp at Cranbrook Academy last Monday but showed up for practice Friday and signed his contract.

Feels Mets Now Believe In Team

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Mets are winning because they've dropped their losing complex, explains Manager Wes Westrum.

"We've gotten away from our defeatism attitude and we're not making as many mistakes," said Westrum Friday as his team prepared to open a three-game series against the last-place Chicago Cubs.

Last-place Chicago Cubs? The Mets and last-place have gone hand in glove — not in glove — since 1962 when the National League expanded to 10 teams. They're No. 8 in the standings now and, with 45 victories, need only eight more to equal their high for one full season.

"The people are beginning to believe in us. When we're on the road, they don't leave the ballpark before the game is over," said Westrum, who replaced Casey Stengel as manager last August. "They come to see us play ball and not to make mistakes. We're treated with more respect everywhere we go."

Westrum's modest ambition is for his club to win 25 of its remaining 63 games. "We're gunning for 70 victories," he said determinedly. "That should bring us in about seventh or eighth. Anything can happen. This is a well balanced league. But if the boys continue to play as they have been, it's possible that we can finish in the first division."

CHICAGO (AP) — Mickey Mantle hit his 21st home run of the season Friday night to become the second-greatest home run hitter in Yankee history and lead New York to a 2-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Mantle's 494th homer snapped a scoreless tie with one out in the fourth inning. The clout into the second deck lifted Mantle past Lou Gehrig who had a career mark of 493. The blow also put Mantle in sixth place among baseball's all-time homer leaders.

Following Mantle's homer, the Yankees loaded the bases on a walk and singles by Tom Tresh and Roger Maris before Elston Howard drew a walk, forcing in another run.

Al Downing blanked the White Sox until the eighth when they scored on singles by Pete Ward and Bill Skowron plus Jerry Adair's ground out.

ESCONDIDO, Calif. (AP) — Earl Faison ended his cold war with the San Diego Chargers by signing a contract with the American Football League team Friday.

The signing of the 6-5, 260-pound defensive end came one day after Faison and Charger General Manager Coach Sid Gillman denied they were about to reach an agreement.

Terms were not announced but Gillman said it did not include a bonus which Faison reportedly had been seeking. The San Diego Evening Tribune had reported Faison would sign for $30,000, a $5,000 boost over last year.

Faison played out his option last year and became a free agent May 1 along with defensive tackle Ernie Ladd, who signed with the AFL Houston Oilers.

Commissioner Joe Foss early this year voided a trade that had sent Faison and Ladd to the Oilers.

Buc's Rally Nets Edge Over Phils

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Jose Pagan's two-out, three-run double climaxed a four-run rally in the eighth inning that shot the National League-leading Pittsburgh Pirates past Philadelphia 5-3 Friday night.

Chris Short was pitching a two-hitter and had retired 15 straight batters when the Pirates struck in the eighth.

With one out, pinch hitter Gene Michael, Manny Mota and Gene Alley singled for one run, cutting the Phillies' lead to 3-2.

Roberto Clemente forced Alley at second, but Short walked. Donn Clendenon, leading the bases. Pagan then came up and drilled a double to left-center field, clearing the bases. Pagan was out trying for a triple.

The Phillies got all of their runs in the third inning when Rich Allen hit his 23rd homer following singles by John Briggs and John Callison.

Pittsburgh 010 000 04x-5 6 1

Short and Dalrymple; Cardwell, O'Dell (3), Face (9) and Pagliaroni. W—O'Dell, 4-3. L—Short, 11-7.

Home runs—Philadelphia, Allen (23).

SECONDARY—Dave Whitsett, the right corner man, gets his annual write-off. This time Charlie Brown of Syracuse is nominated to take over. But Dave always manages to stick around. Other members of the cast unchanged: Bennie McRae, Roosevelt Taylor, Richie Peterson. RATING—B+

RECEIVING—Important for Mike Ditka to be happy as well as healthy. Best tight end in game. And the deep stuff is adequately stocked with flanker Johnny Morris, split ends Jim Jones and Dick Gordon. Latter two were rookie finds of '66. No shortage of receivers here. RATING—B+

RUNNING—Devastating, if Gale Sayers continues his pace. Out of this world, if Andy Livingston learns the little nuances of football. Has the raw ability of a Jim Brown. Vets Jon Arnett, Ron Bull provide the steadiness and the relief to keep Sayers fresh. Don't need more. RATING—A-

LINE—Credit Abe Gibon with superb building job. Convinced bunch of nonentities they could handle anybody. Biggest touch of class comes from Mike Pyle at center. Besides Mike Rabold and Jim Cadile (guards), Bob Wetoska and Herman Lee (tackles), Abe looks for help from George Seals and Palmer Pyle, maybe Riley Mattson and rookie Frank Cornish. RATING—B

KICKING—Booming punter in Bobby Joe Green, good as any, but quality drops off in placekicking, where Roger Leclerc wins job annually, almost by default. At least, he generally makes extra points. RATING—B-

DEFENSE
LINE—Retiree of end Doug Atkins was only a beat-two-seasons thing. Lucky for Bears, because they need big Doug on flank. Dick Evey came strong on other side; Ed O'Bradovich might recapture form. Bit of shuffling going on at tackles, where incumbents Earl Leggett, Bob Kilcullen might give way to Seals and rookie named Franklin McRae. RATING—B

LINEBACKER—Bruiser But-

Bob Vinyard tossed a nifty two-hitter, both singles, and struck out 11 batters in the nightcap. The one Alton run was unearned. Ron Tomhave led the batting parade with a triple and a two-run homer, both in an eight-run fifth.

Tomhave started the decisive fifth with a triple, scoring on a fielder's choice. Vinyard was safe on an error and Wayne Smith reached on a fielder's choice. Spangenberg doubled in two runs and idemitted one with a sacrifice fly. Bob Speaks' double and Sonny Hickox' single added another run before Tomhave's two-run blast ended the scoring.
